American history.

Bear Shot Within 30 Feet of Kitchen Door.

The following account was sent to us from Glenwood, Ore., by Chas. E. Ward:

"Dad" Thompson, while preparing eight miles from here, saw a large black bear climbing upon a log not fifty feet from the house. He rushed for his rifle and was soon trying to get a bead on old bruin. The bear came sauntering along straight toward the kitchen door unmindful of any danger, but "Dad" soon drew a bead on him and sent a rifle bullet through his brain.

Scheme for Advertising Oregon

One of the biggest schemes for advertising Oregon has been undertaken in Portland by Philip S. Bates, publisher of Oregon's Great agricultural Monthly, the Pacific Northwest. The proposition is nothing less than the taking of 33 young ladies, one from each county of the state to the Jamestown Exposition which will open May 15th, 1907 at Jamestown, Virginia. The Exposition is to commemorate the first settlement of the English in the United States which took place in 1607. This historical event in the history of our country is one which gives opportunity for a wonderful exploitation of the great strides which have taken place in the past 300 years and the Jamestown Exposition, from an educational standpoint, will no doubt prove an exceptional undertaking along these time. U. S. Sloop Jamestown at the Jamestown Exposition (by Charles Frederick Starsbury)

Peaceful and beneficent, the United States sloop of war Jamestown lies off Sewell's Point, where a multitude of men are building the Jamestown Exposition to commemorate the birth of the nation at Jamestown.

Exactly forty-four years ago this famous war sloop lay in the same spot and threw shot from her twenty guns at the fortification thrown up by the Confederates on the beautiful spot where the Exposition is now rapidly assuming shape. Peaceful and smiling with beauty as the scene now is, it re-Mrs. H. O. Hill (nee Wood) sails quires an effort of the imagination to

> She was built at the Norfolk navy voyage, bound for the African station and under command of R. B. Cunning-

She mounted 20 guns, was of 1,150 register, 163 feet long, with 32 foot beam. Her armament was changed in 1861 and twenty fear-inspiring monsters were put aboard and their noses poked through her ports. Fourteen of these each threw a 32-pound shot and six of them were 8-inch smooth bores. In March, 1847, when famine was raging in Ireland she sailed from Boston, conveying a full cargo of food stuffs, the gift of America to the Irish people. In July, 1858, the Jamestown was at

------We all came to town yesterday to see the circus.

The election was a victory for the independent voter.

The eyes that were on Oregon saw an interesting election.

Has the Oregonian succeeded in convincing you that you are not just right in the upper story because you voted for Chamberlain?

Baldwin Bros. are constructing a brick in Hillsboro, a flourishing little community east of Cornelius, the home of Lucius A. Long and the Argus.

Everybody and his brother was in Portland, Oregon, town yesterday to see the big circus. Everybody and his grandfather was in office on or before said 23rd day of July, 1906. town Monday to vote. Altogether an exciting week.

The word "overwhelming" does not appear in the press accounts of the election in the columns of our esteemed contemporary of "the tower." On the other hand there is a slight mention of some "formidable" majorities from over in Baker County. A couple came to Justic Wirtz to be married this week but since the girl was not of age and her father did not care to take the trouble to go to Hillsboro and swear in his consent. the nuptials had to be postponed. This is no Washington County hop dream. Nothing appears in this column but truths. The principal excitement in Forest Grove, Tuesday morning resulting from the election was the race for coroner. It seems strange that the Independent candidate ran so well and carried this end of the county, which has always had a dry tendency while in Hillsboro and the other end-the wet districts -turned the candidate down. Where Mr. Miller was known he had many triends and his influence counted for something.
