—Don't be fooled and made to believe that rheumatism can be cured with local appliances. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is the only positive cure for rheumatism. 35 cts, Tea or Tablets. Dr. Hines' Drug Store.

Mr. Gillis, who not long ago bought the E. A. Jerome place east of town on the Cornelius drive, is improving the place considerably. He will install a silo and windmill and equip it generally for dairying purposes. He has increased the acreage and will put on stock as the capability of the soil increases and will allow for. These are the kind of farms that the future of Washington County and especially the vicinity of Forest Grove will demand.

—I have just returned from Southern Alberta where I have a choice section of land located in the center of the winter wheat belt. Would sell half section and hire the purchaser to fence my half and put it under cultivation and crop it. I can also cite a few parties to first class homesteads where the entire 160 acres will make good plowland, free from rock or brush and well located. Will soon be valuable. A. B. THOMAS.

Unloading Cars

The Southern Pacific wishes to call the attention of its patrons to the fact that there is a limit to the time that can be consumed in loading and unloading cars that are standing on the side-tracks. The rules issued to the agents expressly declare that 48 hours free time will be given and no more. The rule reads as follows: "On all commodities for loading or unloading 48 hours free time will be allowed" and all shippers should note that if this rule is violated, charges will be assessed according to the following: "After the free time allowed under these rules has expired a charge of $1.00 per day, or fraction thereof, for the first five days and $2.00 per day thereafter shall be made and collected on all cars except tank cars, upon which the charge shall be $2.00."

SOCIAL EVENTS

A "farewell party" was given in honor of Miss Florence Hanna by Miss Anna Johnson last Friday evening at C. N. Johnson's city residence on First Street. All kinds of games and all kinds of things to eat made the time pass off quickly and everybody had a glorious good time. Those present were: Miss Edna Hamilton, Mrs. Latta, Miss Anna Jackson and Misses Anna and Bertie Johnson and Carl Huston, Roy McPherson, Archie Clarke, Ray Williams and Edward Drake. Miss Hanna left for her home in Hood River Monday and has been visiting with Miss Anna Johnson for the last two or three weeks.

Miss Maud Shannon, last Sunday evening gave a dinner party in honor of Mrs. Pauline Miller Chapman who is going abroad immediately after Commencement. It was one of the most delightful affairs of the month. Old e instructors engaged in the work at the Conservatory of Music at Pacific University were present as well as some others closely connected with the work. An exquisite menu was served to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Chapman, Miss Wilma Waggener, Miss Irene Cadwell, Miss Lillian Pherne Bain, Miss Gladdys Hartley, Mrs. James T. Shannon, Miss Katharine Shannon and Miss Maud Shannon.

Modern Woodmen Given Big Spread

At the close of the regular meeting last Friday evening of the Modern Woodmen of America, the ladies connected with the lodge and who are contemplating an organization, gave supper to the lodge members. The object was to count the strength of ladies auxiliary to the Modern Woodmen and see just what could be done towards organizing the Royal Neighbors. Over ninety members were present and took part either in the program or the supper or both.

State Head Consul, H. G. King, was present and presented a very good talk. He commented upon the work, the efforts and the endeavors of the Modern Woodmen organizations. Mrs. Mary Corl, Miss Helen Wilhelmson and Miss Gertie Nichols stocked Misses Maude and Hazel Rockwood favored the guests with a duet accompanied by a mandolin and guitar. Together the evening passed off very pleasantly and every Modern Woodman was led to believe that the lodge would not be a lodge if it were not for the ladies.

Pioneer Honored.

June 13th, on the invitation of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sexton, forty-seven relatives and friends of the pioneer Alvin C. Brown, met at his residence in honor of the 77th anniversary of his birth; a bountiful repast was served at noon.

At the first table were seated eighteen old friends whose combined ages were 1193 years, or an average of sixty-five years, the oldest in age being the youngest in residence within the state.

Mr. Brown, a youth of 17 years with Mrs. N. J. Walker, then Emma Davis, a girl 7 years old and Mrs. B. O. Brown, then Aesente Cary a girl of five years—sixty-five years ago crossed the plains together and are pioneers of '46. Seated at the table with them were: Mrs. Emma Ross Slaven '40, John A. Slavin and Levi C. Walker '40, Newton J. Walker, Stephen Black, Mrs. Parthenia E. Blank, Mrs. Belle Putman Walker '52, Mrs. Sarah N. Dixon and Mrs. Anna Dixon '66, Prof. Jos. W. Marsh '67, W. K. Curtis '71, Reuben Snyder '81, Mrs. Callina M. Curtis '84, Mrs. Abbie E. Sorenson '87 and Mrs. A. P. Haskell '95. Many interesting incidents of pioneer days were recalled.

Mr. Brown was the recipient of many tokens of remembrance of the day, among which was a check for seventy-seven dollars from his oldest son, Dr. Elmer Brown of Tacoma, and a bouquet containing seventy-seven distinct varieties of roses, from Mrs. L. C. Walker.
