THURSDAY, AUGUST 2, 1906.

Will Aid Tillamook Celebrate.

Many of our business men have received invitations to attend the county fair and street carnival to be held in Tillamook City, August 23rd, 24th and 25th. The people of that enterprising city are sparing no pains to make this fair an interesting and enjoyable one, in fact they intend to give all visitors the time of their lives. They are preparing to entertain thousands of visitors from the outside, who will reach there by stage, wagon, buggy, auto and steamer.

Many people from this section who are now at the beaches along the Tillamook coast will stay until the fair, and others from here are contemplating making this trip, including the fair, their summer outing. Tillamook, adjoining our county, with Forest Grove as its nearest neighboring town, ought to receive a large delegation of Forest Grove people. Five crews of railroad surveyors are said to be at work in Tillamook county for different roads, hurrying to be first to reach that fertile section and as no doubt the first line to be built may have connections with Forest Grove, we shall receive ample returns for whatever aid we render.

To Our Subscribers

In casting about for means to meet our obligations we noticed a good many of our subscribers were in arrears on their subscriptions. The subscription price for The News is but $1.00 per year in advance. This is a small sum for each subscriber but in the aggregate it means much to us. Now we are going to ask each one of our subscribers, who are in arrears, to pay up thereby helping us to meet our obligations for which we thank you in advance. The date to which your subscription is paid follows the name on the address. Out of town subscribers may remit by mail for which a receipt will be immediately returned.

Household Exemption Tax

The Exemption Tax Law of this state, exempting household property to the value of $300, has been declared unconstitutional by the Supreme court. This law goes out after a period of over fifty years, with only one exception—the year 1904—when it was set aside but repealed within ten months. This decision will work a hardship on the poor man who was exempted on his goods to the value of $300 while the rich will hardly notice it, although a step towards equal and uniform taxation.

For Improvement of Coos Harbor.

Messrs. Peter Logge and Aibrecht of North Bend and Marshfield, who are now travelling over Oregon and securing names for their petition pertaining an appropriation for the deepening of Coos Bay Harbor to be brought before Congress, were here a few days ago, and secured many signatures. Before finishing their task they will have the names of all commercial clubs, boards of trade, banks and newspapers of Oregon. These gentlemen have received the support of all these clubs and business houses of the Willamette Valley and this week they will invade Eastern Oregon. This work all means advancement towards a new Oregon.

An Authority on Dairying.

Prof. G. L. McKay, head of the dairying department of the Iowa State Agricultural College, who met and discussed important phases of the dairy business with our Board of Trade and a few dairymen, last Saturday, is a recognized authority on the dairy problem. On the first page we have collected some of his remarks in this and other places which will be worth the consideration of the dairymen. Washington County, although comparatively new in the dairy line, has already proven itself to be one of the best dairying sections of the Willamette Valley and greater efforts should be undertaken to make it the leading county in this industry.

Interesting Historic Document Shows Norfolk, Virginia Citizens Were Ahead of Philadelphia

The coming Jamestown Exposition brings to mind many historic facts long since forgotten.

While loth to leave the British Empire the patriots of Norfolk, Va. were the first to resent the aggression of the British Stamp Act which led to the American Revolution. Under the name of "The Sons of Liberty" they assembled in Norfolk on March 13th, and in bold and determined phrases announced their intention of resisting any further aggression on the part of the English Parliament. This was two months before the promulgation of the celebrated Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence and nearly five before the thirteen colonies assembled in Philadelphia to forever cast off the authority of the British Crown and start the country on a career of prosperity and splendor which will be celebrated at the Jamestown Exposition, to be held at Hampton Roads near Norfolk in 1907.

The Norfolk people did not declare their independence but expressly affirmed their wish to be subjects of King George III. They merely stated their determination that they should not be taxed without representation.

The resolutions read as follows: "Having taken into consideration the evident tendency of that oppressive unconstitutional Act of Parliament commonly called the Stamp Act, and being desirous that our sentiments should be known to posterity and recollecting that we are a part of the colony who first in General Assembly expressed their detestation to the said act (which is pregnant with ruin and productive of the most pernicious consequences) and, unwilling to rivet the shackles of slavery and oppression on ourselves and millions yet unborn, have unanimously come to the following resolutions: "1. Resolved, That we acknowledge our Lord and Sovereign, King George the Third, to be our rightful and lawful king and that we will, at all times, to the utmost of our power and ability support and defend his most sacred Person, Crown and Dignity; and shall always be ready, when constitutionally called upon, to assist his Majesty, with our lives and fortunes; and to defend his just Rights and Prerogatives.

"2. Resolved, That we will by all lawful Ways and Means which Divine Providence has put into our hands, defend ourselves in the full enjoyment of, and preserve inviolate to posterity, those inestimable privileges of all free-born British Subjects, of being taxed only by representatives of their own choosing; and of being tried by none but a jury of their peers. And that if we quietly submit to the execution of the said Stamp Act all our claims to Civil Liberty will be lost, and we and our subjects in America are deprived of the invaluable Privileges aforementioned.

"3 Resolved, That a committee be appointed who shall in such manner as they may think proper, go upon necessary Business and make public the above resolutions, and that they correspond as they shall see occasion with the Associated Sons of and Friends to Liberty in the other British Colonies of America."

As a result of the adoption of the resolutions, Lord Dunmore, the British Colonial Governor, made a demonstration before Norfolk and several shots were fired into the city from the frigate Liverpool. As a result of this and other outrages the Norfolk people were ready to throw off all authority and join with the other colonies when the Philadelphia Declaration of Independence was promulgated.

A Scotch Test.

Auchtermuchty is the happy town which every Scot, proud of his unpronounceable tongue, uses as a shibboleth to test the linguistic skill of the southern. If you cannot say "Auchtermuchty" you are still an uneducated barbarian. The meaning of the word happens to be as monstrous as its sound. "The high ground of the wild soil" is not a name one would choose for a garden city. People, however, are found to flock to it as a summer resort, and as it has a lover's pool, the town has probably attractions more real than its name. In the early part of last century Auchtermuchty went bankrupt and was deprived of all its property except the jail and one or two other assets of an equally necessary character. It is now rich, peaceful and radical.

Really a Human Being.

The story is told in China that years ago a missionary made his appearance upon a platform there and that the native orator who introduced him closed with these words: "When I have finished a gentleman from the west is going to address you. He is not a foreign demon. His appearance and his clothing may seem strange to you, but look carefully at him. He has two arms and two legs, two ears and two eyes, a nose (though a long one) and a mouth; and I assure you his teeth are made of bone, just like yours. He is really a human being, and I hope you will regard him as such."

A Bank Fraud.

Mrs. Nuwed - Here's the bread I started to make today. Isn't it too annoying? Mr. Nuwed - Why, it isn't baked at all. Mrs. Nuwed - I know it isn't; that's just it. I put plenty of baking powder in it, but it doesn't seem to have worked. - Philadelphia Ledger.

A Question of Cuts.

"There is no short cut to fame," remarked the wise guy. "How about the upper cut?" suggested the simple mug, looking up from the sporting page. - Philadelphia Record.

Ennui.

"Oh, dear, how the hours do drag! I wish I knew how to hurry them on." "Why don't you apply the spur of the moment?"

The Pawnbroker's Sign.

The pawnbroker's sign came from the sign used by the Lombard bankers, who took it from the sign used by the Medici family of Florence. The founder of the house had been a medicus, or physician. His descendants became bankers and brokers, and their sign was their ancestor's golden pills. When they became nobles they assumed as arms six golden pills or balls on a blue field.

Sunny People.

The world delights in sunny people. The old are hungering for love more than for bread. The air of joy is very cheap, and if you can help the poor on with a garment of praise it will be better for them than blankets. - Henry Drummond.

Trust to Nature.

A great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to home, office or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, in fact in every weary, thin and thin-blooded person, do their work with great difficulty. As a result fatigue comes early, is extreme and lasts long. The demand for nutritive aid is ahead of the supply. To insure perfect health every tissue, bone, nerve and muscle should take from the blood certain materials and return to it certain others. It is necessary to prepare the stomach for the work of taking up from the food what is necessary to make good, rich, red blood. We must go to Nature for the remedy. There were certain roots known to the Indians of this country before the advent of the whites which later came to the knowledge of the settlers and which are now growing rapidly in professional favor for the cure of obstinate stomach and liver troubles. These are found to be safe and yet certain in their cleansing and invigorating effect upon the stomach, liver and blood. These are: Golden Seal root, Queen's root, Stone root, Bloodroot, Mandrake root. Then there is Black Cherrybark. The medicinal principles residing in these native roots when extracted with glycerine as a solvent make the most reliable and efficient stomach tonic and liver invigorator, when combined in just the right proportions, as in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Where there is bankrupt vitality—such as nervous exhaustion, bad nutrition—and thin blood, the body acquires vigor and the nerves, blood and all the tissues feel the favorable effect of this sovereign remedy. Although some physicians have been aware of the high medicinal value of the above mentioned plants, yet few have used pure glycerine as a solvent and usually the doctors' prescriptions called for the ingredients in varying amounts, with alcohol. The "Golden Medical Discovery" is a scientific preparation compounded of the glyceric extracts of the above mentioned vegetable ingredients and contains no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs.
