Harry says Gaston is a busy place these days, almost too busy, for he has only been fishing twice this far but both times making good catches.
Emmett Quick passed through this city Monday from Tillamook City. Mr. Quick is moving his family and household goods north of town and will be employed at Buxton by the Pacific Railroad & Navigation Co. To see him drive his heavy load of furniture and six horses reminds us of him as the "veteran stage driver" that he was a few years ago. Many expert drivers on the street that day wondered how he had gotten through the mountains in only two days time and very few were willing to make that drive with the outfit.

Prof. George E. Coghill Leaves for Willamette.

Prof. G. E. Coghill and family left yesterday for their future home in Salem. The professor will take up his work at Willamette University this fall as head of the Biological department and goes early to enable him to get settled in his new home and become acquainted with the new surroundings. He will be greatly missed here, by the business men as well as his own students at the college. He goes after a stay of about three years. During this time his department has been brought up to a high standard, and ranks among the best in the West. Prof. Coghill, before leaving, gave as his main reason for making the change that, Willamette University having a College of Medicine and his real work—The Nervous System—led him in that department, he thought he could do research work to a better advantage in that institution. The professor is an authority on the nervous system and has been one of the editors of a prominent magazine of Neurology, published in the east.

Leipold-Sappington.

On July 30, at noon, the country residence of Mrs. E. Leipold of Thatcher, was the scene of one of the prettiest weddings of the season, when Miss Birdie M. Sappington was married to Mr. Carl H. Leipold, Rev. L. F. Belknap performing the ceremony under a beautiful arch of Oregon Grape. The wedding was a quiet home affair, yet very impressive, only members of the families and intimate friends being present. Miss Elsie Burnett of Greenville, played Sheldon's wedding march. The parlor was beautifully and tastefully decorated with white roses and ferns, and the dining room, where a bounteous repast was served after the ceremony, with Oregon grape and red roses. The bride looked beautiful in an Alice blue silk gown in the midst of this array of decorations. The couple left on the afternoon train for Mohler, Idaho, where they will reside in the future. Miss Mabelle Leipold, sister of the groom, accompanied them as far as Portland. The bride is the daughter of E. B. Sappington of this city, and is well known here, while Mr. Leipold is known to many, having made Forest Grove his home for some time.

French-Raper

The many friends of Mr. William French will be pleased to learn of his marriage sometime ago to Miss Raper of Topeka, Kansas. The wedding took place in Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, at the home of friends, who are prominent society people of that city. Mr. French is well known throughout this county, his parents living near Dilley. He was formerly publisher of The News which he established about four years ago, but is now representing the Pacific Coast Condensed Milk Co. in the east with present headquarters at Pittsburg.

Portland Y. M. C. A. Out Camping.

Sixty Portland Y. M. C. A. boys came up on the train yesterday morning enroute for Tillamook. The boys will walk all the way, camping along the Wilson River and will take 14 days for the trip. On arriving at the station they ran most of the way through town, giving their yells, so anxious were they to start their march. It is to be hoped they feel as good today. Holman Ferrin and Egbert Bishop joined them.

Christian Church

Preaching at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. on the first and third Sundays of each month. Sunday School at 10 a. m. every Sunday. Rev. Sias, pastor.

Toll Gate Now Torn Down.

The toll gate proposition of the Wilson River road has been causing a good deal of trouble of late. Only a few days ago the people living within the gates, broke down the fence at the eastern end of the road and it seems to be up to the county court as to what shall be done in the way of an agreement, for the court has given the right to charge toll on that road.
