MONDAY WILL BE A HOLIDAY.

Gov. Chamberlain Names Monday, Sept-ember 3 as Labor Day.

Governor George E. Chamberlain has set aside Monday, September 3 as Labor day. The text of his proclamation is as follows:

"Whereas, the first Monday in September of each year has been set apart and declared to be a public holiday under the designation of Labor Day:

"Now, therefore, I, George E. Chamberlain, as governor of the state of Oregon, pursuant to the statute in case made and provided, do hereby declare Monday, the 3d day of September, A. D., 1906, a legal holiday, to be known as Labor Day.

"The people of the state are to be congratulated upon the friendly relations which have always existed between the employer and the employed within its jurisdiction. To this condition is largely due the prosperity that surrounds us on every side.

It is to be hoped that the day hereby set apart for observance as a public holiday will be generally observed by all classes of our citizens, and that the workshops, and the store and all places of business will be closed, so that the employer as well as the employed may completely rest from all labor."

Some Oregon Freaks.

A Tillamook county man raised a strawberry 6 1/2 inches in circumference.

A fig tree near Dallas will have 25 well developed figs.

A piece of Corvallis plum tree limb four feet long contained 150 well developed peach plums.

A lemon tree near Cannonville has a lemon measuring 11 1/2 inches in circumference.

From a farm near Forest Grove, timothy heads were found measuring from 10 to 11 1/2 inches.

A Traveling Saloon.

How liquor was freely sold by the glass on the Newport excursion train Sunday has just been a source of gossip. Two demijohns of whisky, various kinds of wines and other drinks are declared to have been the stock in trade of a young boy who is alleged to have hailed from Stayton, Marion county, and who retailed his wares without stint on the train. He is described as perhaps 17 years of age. It is related that his sales on the train were made in every county, and since he passed through three dry counties the fines and imprisonment that could have been piled up against him if any one had been on hand to gather evidence would be enough to bankrupt an ordinary capitalist. His operations were in effect a traveling saloon.—Corvallis Times.

Nathaniel P. Nye, of Forest Grove, was up before the board of insanity Wednesday, and after an examination was committed to the asylum at Salem. The old gentleman was born in Massachusetts, is a farmer by occupation, and 71 years of age. Some years ago a tree fell on him, and to this is attributed his present condition. He is very stubborn, often talks of committing suicide. He gets into terrible fits of anger, makes all kinds of dire threats, occasionally forgets his wife's name and wants to go away from home. He is suffering from cancer on the face, and physically is in a very serious condition, as well as mentally. Dr. Linklater pronounced him a subject for the insane asylum and he was taken to Salem by an attendant Wednesday noon.—Hillsboro Independent.

Reduced Rates

During the Summer Season of 1906 reduced round trip excursion rates will be in effect from the East to all North Pacific Coast Points, such as Portland, Tacoma, Seattle, Victoria, Vancouver, etc.; also to Spokane and San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego.

Rates from Chicago via direct lines to the North Pacific Coast and California will be $75 and from Missouri River points, namely: Council Bluffs, Omaha, Atchison, St. Joseph, Kansas City, also St. Paul and Minneapolis, rates will be $60. Rates to Spokane will be $5 less than to the Coast or $70 from Chicago and $55 from the Missouri River and St. Paul.

Rates one way via the Shasta Route and California will be $13.50 higher than those above mentioned.

These tickets will be on sale daily, commencing June 1st and continuing until September 15, with final return limit of October 31st.

Notes of Jamestown Exposition.

The Jamestown Exposition will be one vast Colonial city in architecture, environment, art and industrial activity. The Exposition visitor will live during his stay in an atmosphere of Colonial romance and history. To paraphrase Napoleon's famous remark at the Pyramids, "Three centuries will look down upon you."

The Jamestown Exposition, near Norfolk, Va., next year, will be open longer than any similar enterprise yet held in the United States. It is to run from April 26 to November 30—seven months and five days.

The Arts and Crafts village at the Jamestown Exposition will be a feature never before seen at a national celebration. It is bound to be one of the great attractions, and being something new it will be visited by millions.

Norfolk and the neighboring towns and cities in Tidewater, Virginia, are making extensive preparations to handle the vast throngs of visitors who will attend the Jamestown Ter-Centennial Exposition in 1907. In addition to the scores of hotels and the hundreds in boarding houses already in these cities and summer resorts by the sea, many new hotels of a temporary character though well-built, are being constructed near the grounds.

Lee's parade, the large space set aside on the grounds of the Jamestown Exposition for the drill work of the military bodies from all nations, is in honor of Gen. Robert E. Lee, the great Confederate chieftain and one of Virginia's favorite sons. These military parades and drills will surpass any that have been held.

The evolution of war craft and other shipping will be portrayed at the Jamestown Exposition next year, not by pictures and drawings, but by real wood and metal models of correct size. The three ships which brought the first settlers across from England to Jamestown will be reproduced faithfully, riding at anchor off the exposition grounds in Hampton Roads.
