OSE CONTRACT FOR NEED OF BRICK

W. McKenzie Gets Contract for normitory, Angel & Son Forfeit same-Lack of Brick Yard

f

TO

ailor

farm secur

es the lar

ngton Con

beat.

farm s eco

7c per lb.

25 for 25c.

MARKET.

rest Grov

The New

onths, $2.5

UDIO

Proprietor

LODIO

AS, and

RADE

bred

DES

Bucks

& Son

olls Div

or 25c.

fork On Excavation to Begin Right Here Today

nity has been felt more than usual

ming the last week among the conectors, as they have been unable to eure them at a reasonable price elsetractors, who have been awarded the building of the new dormitory, bre forfeited the same, and the next highest bidder, A. M. KcKenzie of and, now has the contract. Mr. McKenzie, in company with Mr. Whiden of Whidden & Lewis, the archiis, and Alfred J. Bingham of Bingam & McClelland, the brick contracus of Portland, are here today getting sything ready, for the excavation which is to begin right away. Mr. lingham is the man who has corred the season's run of most of the brick yards of the West Side, and is ile to furnish all the brick.

Angel & Son depended on the local and to supply them, but as that is out wy freight charges.

The plans of the new building show large brick building, L shaped, four September 7. tories high and similiar to Marsh Hall the Year, $5.00; Six Months, $2.50. Mr. Tooze.

Stores Will Close Early.

Nearly all of the business men have agreed as specified below to close their stores at a certain time every evening ---6:30 p. m., after the 10th of October. This will give a chance as we said last week, for the clerks to get the much needed rest and the business men may have an hour or so of the day to spend as they think best. The evening mail will arrive after the 1st of October at 5:20 so that all can secure their mail before supper and all shopping can easily be done before the closing time of the stores at 6:30. We hope that all residents of this city will Away --- Architects And Contractors cooperate with the merchants and help them to close up on time. This move has been made for the good of all, and no one need run up town during the cold wet evenings of the winter, and it is hoped all stores will fall into the line. The lack of a brick yard in this The pledge signed by the business men reads:

We the undesigned business men of Forest Grove, do hereby agree to close Angel & Son, the Portland our places of business at 6:30 p. m. except Saturdays and the 12th of each month on such day as the Condenser checks are received; this agreement to go into effect on or about October 10, and to remain in effect until such time as we may come to some other agreement; said agreement not to be binding until 12 of the principal business men have signed it.

Goff Brothers. Roe & Buxton. M. Peterson & Son. John Anderson. Watrous, Caples & Co. M. Smyth Hoffman & Allen Co. W. E. Bowman. Nelson B. LaCourse. Martin & Son. John E. Bailey.

Tooze Declines to Lead the Boosters.

Because of the stress of personal commission, the contract had to be business and his health Hon. Walter L briefited. The local yard prices are Tooze of Woodburn has declined to bout $7.00 per M, while in Portland accept the executive chair of the Wilby are $9.00 without counting the lamette Valley Development League, of which he was elected permanent president at the Forest Grove meeting

The election of officers comes within the jurisdiction of the executive board and a meeting will be called in the near future to consider the selection of Evening T elegram and The News, an officer to fill the chair declined by

PROMINENT WEDDINGS

Popular Forest Grove Young People Surrender to Cupid's Wishes-Quiet Home Weddings

Impressive Ceremonies And Artistic Decorations—Former Forest Grove Favorite Wedded In Portland

RAFFERTY-WESTON

A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 26th, inst, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Weston, when Avery C. Rafferty and Miss Jennie H. Weston were united in marriage by Justice Wirtz. Following the ceremony a dainty lunch was served to which only immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present.

Many useful and valuable presents were given the happy couple, among them was a deed to five acres of land on which they intend building later, and some city property. After a trip up the Columbia as far as The Dalles, Oreg., Mr. and Mrs. Rafferty will be at home to their friends in this city.

The bride is one of our most popular young ladies. Mr. Rafferty has lived here most of his life and is one of the efficient clerks in LaCourse's store.

GILLILAND-JONES

Miss Eldora Maud Jones and Mr. Ranceford Pierce Gilliland of Portland, were married yesterday at the home of Kearney St. Miss Jones formerly rebusiness man of Portland.

SUES-PRICE.

Miss Ruby Price of this city and Frank Suess of Cornelius, were married on Monday, in Hillsboro. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Price, while the groom is well known here, especially in baseball circles. Mr. Suess last year played with the Portland Giants.

large number of their congregation and south-bound crew. asked many of the business men with their wives to join them in showing those present, wishing that they might sition of 1900. holding meetings now in Portland. is perfect, but the quantity is so small diseased body as well as the mind. until Monday or Tuesday. President couraging. Ferrin of Pacific spoke from the standhe had tried to do for the good of the extreme dry summer months." community, he had lived among us to the best of his knowledge as a minister

Equalization Board Meets October 22

The Equalization Board, of this county, consisting of Assessor George H. Wilcox, County Judge J. Wesley Goodin and Clerk E. J. Godman, will convene on Monday, October the 22nd and will be in session one week. The duties of the board are to equalize and correct the assessment made during the summer and which is now being transcribed on the tax rolls of the Assessor's office. It is said that the tax roll will foot about $11,000,000 exceeding that of last year by nearly a half million dollars. Should any one have a complaint concerning their taxes, this will be their last opportunity to register a kick.

Prune Crop Only Half of That Expected.

The prune growers of this vicinity which occurred in July somewhat Pacific Coast Condensed Milk Comtion of an immense crop. Last week was left began falling to the ground.

fruit, their evaporators not doing the denser with milk. required work quick enough.

Postmaster Atwell of this city, who Girl Injured While Alighting From is perhaps the best authority on this subject, says that about one half of the crop about here will go to waste. train on the Southern Pacific on its last plains with an ox team. He was seen before the rain set in, trip Saturday reached Hillsboro with Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Jones at 622 and those two or three days of rain a large number of passengers, but bewill no doubt crack the remainder of fore all had alighted the train was sided in this city and was well known the fruit, thus causing great dismay started. Emily Young, a girl of about here. Mr. Gilliland is a prominent among the prunegrowers. Growers 18, was thrown violently to the ground. say this year is really the worst ever The train went on for about half a mile, experienced by them.

Return From Tillamook.

Guy W. Talbot, general manager, and C. A. Stewart, general agent at River Railroad, have returned to Porttrict to be tapped by the extention of two miles north. the road. Good progress is being made on the surveys for the new con Surprise Farewell to Rev. and Mrs. struction. One crew is almost to Neterminus of the road at Seaside, while On Monday evening Rev. and Mrs. a second crew will leave Tillamook L. F. Belknap were surprised by a this morning to run a line to meet the Grape Crop Almost a Failure.

ers and ministers, met at the residence vineyards, mostly managed by Germans. had 12 children, four of whom survive. of A. G. Hoffman and marched in a The yearly output of the best brands body to the Methodist parsonage. It of wines of Oregon come from this in London, England, where he pracwas truly a surprise, nevertheless all very spot. Mr. Reuter has perhaps ticed his profession until 1856, when were heartily welcomed by the good parson and his kind wife. After every-winemaker in Oregon for his product one had shaken hands with the sur- He has had his numerous brands on York City, after which he removed to the Cornelius cemetery. prised and expressed their desire of exhibition at the Chicago, Buffalo, St. Grundy County, Illinois, where he seeing them return to their work here, Louis and the Lewis and Clark exposi- practiced five years. He then rea number of hymns were sung. and a tions, and from all has received medals moved to Olivet, Mich., remaining prayer opened the talkfest of the even- and awards that are the pride of Oregon. there six years. While there, being a ing. Rev. Clapp spoke at some Mr. Reuter has also received a gold talented preacher and a Congregationlength, giving the sentiments of all medal for wine sent to the Paris expo- alist, he was induced to enter the reg-

The assignments will not be known that the present outlook is very dis-point of a citizen and his words were lect and are very sweet. Mr. Ander- Congregational Church at Astoria, after well said. In behalf of the Methodist son, who is the largest grower of which he removed to Forest Grove church Mr. Starrett spoke of the appre- grapes on the hill, further said: "The that his children might be near Pacific ciation of the members and this feeling Niagara and the Concord are a failure, University. Here he purchased a was brought out by the presentation of the Sweetwaters are only bearing a comfortable home and attended to the a purse of $40 to Rev. Belknap by the half crop, but are of good quality. better class of practice, so far as his members of the church and $20 to The Black Hamburg, although not ripe strength would permit. Mrs. Belknap from the Ladies' Aid yet, show what might be called a good several beautiful selections.

NEW ENTERPRISE FOR FOREST GROVE

City to be Headquarters for Best Herds of Cows.—Secured Through Condensed Milk Company.

D. Ross of Washington, The Promotor—Has Leased The Mrs. Hughes Farm Will Also Run Dairy

A new enterprise is to be started in have about given up their large crop a few days in this city. This has been The phenomenal drop secured through the efforts of the placed a damper on their early realiza- pany. Its purpose is to bring to this Burial took place Tuesday at Cornelius county the finest and best herds of under the auspices of the Ladies Relief during the last three days of very milk cows-cows that will give the Corps warm weather, the greatest part that best results. This undertaking will be owned and managed by Mr. J. D. Ross, As few of the prunegrowers have who has had similiar enterprises in the evaporators in this section, many will Kent, Wash. region, where he has have to let their fruit on the ground go supplied the patrons of the company with the best of cows for the last ten Usually the fruit on the ground years. Mr. Ross has leased the keeps quite a length of time, but this Hughes farm on the edge of town on year the fruit that has fallen fermented the road to Cornelius and will have all on the ground in less than a due to breeds of cows-but intends only to the extreme heat of those few days. have those which give the most and Even the growers that had evaporators best milk. He will at the same time have not been able to save their own run a dairy farm and supply the con-

The Forest Grove local passenger and the passengers who were unable to get off at the station protested to the conductor, who returned with his train.

Dr. Linklater was among the passengers carried by his station, and on his Portland for the Astoria & Columbia return rendered assistance to the injured girl, who still lay unconscious where land from a trip to Tillamook, where she had fallen. A carriage was later they went to get in touch with the dis- ordered and she was sent to her home, died Tuesday at 1:30 o'clock. He age of 76 years. She had made her Desirable grades and tangents are in Halletrow, in the parrish of the high years. Mrs. Wilkins was born in New residents of the town. This surprise being secured, and the line will probable was arranged by some of the members ably be permanently located this Fall.

DR. F. CRANG DEAD.

Well-known Physician of Washington halem, having started from the present County Passes Away at His home.

Littleton, Somersetshire, April 11, York, but had lived in Janesville, Minn., most of her life. The children try, and comes of a prominent family who survive her are: Chas. Wilkins of physicians, his grandfather, father, of Seattle, Mrs. L. S. Fester of Corne-The large grape industry of this two uncles and a brother being reput- lius and Everett Wilkins. She also their appreciation of Mr. and Mrs. vicinity may this year be called a able members of that profession. His leaves a husband. Belknap's work in this place. The failure as far as a large crop goes, parents were Dr. James and Susanna large number of people, old and young, David's Hill, a few miles northwest of (Hay) Crang, his mother being the business and professional men, teach- this city, is covered with scores of daughter of the Earl of Errol. They

Dr. Crang was reared and educated ular ministry. In this capacity he return to us. Mr. Belknap has been Mr. Anderson, when asked about served for a number of years in several here six years and is the senior pastor the output of the vineyards this fall, churches, doing much good in buildof this city. His fate is in the hands said: "The crop might be called a ing new houses of worship. During of the Methodist conference which is failure this year, although the quality all this time he continued to treat the

In 1875, desiring a change of climate for his wife, he came to Oregon, The grapes on the hill are ripe, per- and was for several years pastor of the

The doctor was married in England society. Mr. and Mrs. Belknap both crop, but nothing to brag of. The in 1850 to Miss Emma Owens. They responded and thanked the people of Red Mountain are beauties and in per- have had three children, of whom one this city and their church for the fect condition and the vines are bur- son is living, Frederick Richard, in appreciation and help in the work dened with fruit. These are really the Des Moines, Ia. Mrs. Crang died in which they had been assigned to do only vines that are bearing anything 1855. On March 15, 1856, Dr. Mr. Belknap saidmany good things and near the expected crop this fall. This Crang married Miss Catharina Walker, spoke of his work, saying "although all result was due to the early condition of a native of Ireland. They have had had not always been accomplished that the spring weather and later to the nine children, seven of whom are living, namely, Mrs. Mary A. McKensie, Astoria; Thomas Henry, Portland, pilot The college reception last Friday between Portland and Astoria; Mrs. W. of the gospel should. He visited the evening was well attended by students G. Vandusen, Mrs. George H. George, sick, helped those in need, and was and friends. Many pronounced it the Frank L. Crang, Miss Sadie Crang. ever ready to help any cause for the best given for years. Miss Cordelia Astoria, and Edwin James Crang. Portbetterment of this city. Should Mr. Barker of Portland, the new violin land. Dr. Crang had practiced medi-Belknap be appointed elsewhere, we teacher, delighted the gathering with cine for nearly 50 years. The funeral

MRS. S. A. HABERSTROH DIES AT CORNELIUS

Survived by Many Grandchildren and One Great Great Grandchild.

Mrs. Sarah A. Haberstroh died at Cornelius Monday, aged 68 years She was born in Ohio, August 27, 1838, and was the only daughter of Jacob and Barbara Rupert. She went to Missouri with her parents and married Richard T. Lane, February, 5, 1851. Two sons, W. C. and A. W. Lane, were the result of this union. Her husband died in 1859, and Mrs. Lane then made her home with her parents, teaching elocution for a few years, later taking up the practice of medicine, which she followed until she came to Washington County, Oregon, in 1881, where she had since lived. She was married to Earnest Haberstroh, of this county, in 1891, who survives her, together with 15 grandchildren, three great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

Mrs. Haberstroh was an indefatigable worker in the Womans Relief Corps and many of the local circles.

Joshua Clark Dead.

Joshua Clark, aged 90 years, a resident of Washington County for 40 years, died at 12:03 o'clock on Friday night. He was born at Miama, Miama County, O., March 10, 1816, where he was married to Miss Hannah Rood in 1835, who died November 16, 1892, and where he lived until 27 years of age, then with his family he moved to Bloomfield, Ia., where he remained ten years, then emigrated to California, arriving there in 1854, crossing the

He lived in California two years, then returned to Iowa and lived until 1865. With his family he came to Oregon, and settled near where North Yamhill is now located, and remained until 1867, then came to Cornelius, Washington County, where he lived until locating at Forest Grove, 23 years

Mr. Clark was a volunteer in the Indian War in Southern Oregon in 1865-56. The following children survive him: T. J. Clark, Riddles, Or.; D. H. Clark, Stella, Wash.; Mrs. S. A. Kidder, Grass Valley, Cal.; John H. Clark, Bumcam, Or.; Joshua Clark Jr., Alba, Or.; H. H. Clark, Forest Grove, and Mrs. R. W. S. Hamer, Forest Grove.

Frederick Crang, a distinguished Mrs. Zelpha Wilkins died at her physician and surgeon of this place, home in Cornelius, Saturday, at the Died.

Helen Ione, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hart of Cornelius died on Saturday, September 8, at the

A. T. Buxton Appointed to Farmer's Congress.

Governor Chamberlain has appointed R. Cartwright and Walter Huston of Harrisburg, and A. T. Buxton of Forest Grove, delegates to the National Farmer's congress to be held at Rock Island, Illinois, October 9 to 13.

WOOD taken on subscription.

No Girl Is Happy!

Unless she has a BRACELET. We have bracelets at prices to suit all purses. We also have a great variety of gold band rings and set rings, opals, rubies, garnets, turquoise, any stone you want we can furnish it, PRICES THAT ARE RIGHT.

Our Brooches

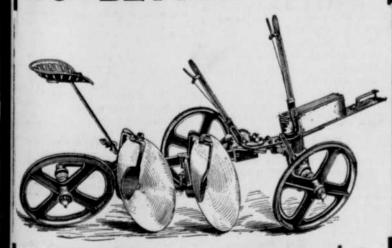

are perfect beauties, from 25c to 20 dollars. Call and examine our stock of jewelry.

Abbott & Son Jewelers

Our line of Ranges and Heating Stoves is Complete and prices reaonable. We are sole agents for

Bridge & Beach STOVES

You can do all your plowing with a Disk Plow before you can work a moleboard plow and DO BETTER WORK

We guarantee them to give carry the Satisfaction and Single on Double Disk

GOFF BROS., OREGON FOREST GROVE,