ring the summer, while the Port- Y. M. C. A. lads were in the city, ed a pleasant little incident. of the boys, who had left in a and had forgotten to make all preparation, stepped into one of general stores and asked whether ould purchase a bathing suit. He old by the polite clerk that none in stock at present and that try stores seldom found much and for such articles. The lad disappointed, but a happy thought k him about that time. "Have any trunks?" The clerk, always e alert for a sale, told the pros- ive buyer to "step this way," and led off in a corner before a large ay of trunks, suit-cases and travel- bags. That was enough for the ng man, but coming from the city, cked out of the store as politely ossible under the circumstances— once out of the local department e he was heard to give vent to his ngings—one of the biggest and hearti- horse-laughs ever heard anywhere.

"Chick" Shannon returned to this a few days ago, with a friend from ern Oregon, on the belated train at 1 o'clock p. m. Upon arriving the house "Chick" was up to some his old tricks and thought it would e great to scare the ladies who were ing there. He ran up the steps to the porch and in a strong, stern ce ordered to be let in, when a ce was heard at one of the windows the second floor asking what was ed. Chick replied that he wanted get inside, but would not say what wanted or anything except that he anxious to get inside. He made bold move for one of the ground r windows, when the voice up-stairs lered "You had better get away m here or I'll shoot." That amused boys for a while until they realized it was no joke. The friend from stern Oregon could have been seen gging a tree, trying to get out of ht, while "Chick," thinking it ould be best to stop right here and e his identity, spoke up and the e was called off. The boys went to Corvallis the next day to enter college. They are now a little er after the cool reception they ceived.

You Can Easily Operate This Typewriter Yourself.

Don't worry your correspondent. Don't write him anything by hand that takes time to make out—that may leave him in doubt—that he can't easily read.
And don't fill out legal papers or card memos—or make out accounts or hotel menus in your own handwriting.
It looks bad, reflects on your standing makes people think you can't afford a stenographer and is sometime ambiguous.
You can write out your letters, make out an abstract, fill in an insurance policy, enter your card memos, make out your accounts, or a hotel menu, or do any kind of writing you need, on any kind, size or thickness of paper, and space any way you want on

The OLIVER Typewriter

The Standard Visible Writer

You can write any of these things yourself if you do not happen to have a stenographer.
For you can easily learn, with a little practice, to write just as rapidly, and as perfectly, as an expert operator on the OLIVER. Because the OLIVER is the simplified typewriter. And you can see every word you write. About 80 per cent more durable than any other typewriter, because it has about 80 per cent less wearing points than most other typewriters.
80 per cent easier to write with than these other complicated, intricate machines that require "humoring"—technical knowledge—long practice and special skill to operate.
Than machines which cannot be adjusted to any special space—with which it is impossible to write abstracts, insurance policies, or odd-sized documents except you buy expensive special attachments requiring experts to operate.
You can adjust the OLIVER to any reasonable space—you can write on any reasonable size and thickness of paper, right out to the very edge, without the aid of an expensive attachment or special skill, and your work will be neat appearing, legible and clear.
For the OLIVER is the typewriter for the doctor, the lawyer, the insurance agent, the merchant, the hotel proprietor—or any man who does his own writing.
Write us now for our booklet on the simplified features of the OLIVER.
