We are all glad to hear of his rapid advances and wish Earl success.

Weddings the Latest Fad.

white silk, and carried a bouquet of cream roses. The procession was only more noticeable by the beautiful dresses of the little ring girl and the maids of honor. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Gladys Spaulding.
After congratulating the young couple, supper was served to the guests. The bride and groom were then escorted to their new home and place of business on Pacific Avenue, which had been purchased and arranged by Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Allen as a gift to the young people. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hoffman, Misses Reba Hoffman, Aileen Hoffman, Gertrude and Martha Allen and Gladys Spaulding, Messrs. Archie Clark and Everett Hall.

Tregoning-Thompson
A pretty wedding occurred in Seattle on Wednesday, October 17th, when Miss Lucretia Thompson was united in marriage to Mr. Frank Tregoning. The young people spent their honeymoon in this city, the guests of Mrs. Tregoning's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Thompson, and with Portland friends. Mrs. Tregoning is well known here, having lived in this city for several years before going to Seattle.
Mr. Tregoning is a prominent business man of Seattle, a sheet-metal boat builder and contractor. Mr. and Mrs. Tregoning left for home Tuesday.

Gheen-Bear
A quiet wedding occurred Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. Bear in North Forest Grove, which brought together in wedlock Miss Grace A. Bear and Mr. Fred E. Gheen of Hillsboro. The wedding was a quiet home affair, yet impressive and witnessed only by a few immediate friends. The happy couple left the same evening for Astoria, their future home, where Mr. Gheen is employed.

Will Banquet Neighboring Rebekahs.
The social event of the year among lodges will occur on October 31st, when the Forest Rebekah lodge of Forest Grove will serve a banquet to the Rebekah lodges of Hillsboro and Gaston and also to the Odd Fellows and their wives of this city and in celebration of the 63rd anniversary of the Rebekah lodges. The committee on arrangements for the banquet and evenings program are sparing no pains to make this anniversary one long to be remembered. They expect the lodges both from Hillsboro and Gaston to come down in force. The local lodge is in a very prosperous condition with over one hundred members.

One of the leading social events of the season was the Five Hundred party given in honor of the Fleur de Lis Club Thursday evening at the beautiful residence of Mrs. L. L. Watt by Mesdames John Wilson Macrum and L. Tindal Robinson. The parlors were beautifully decorated for the occasion as well as the dining room where the banquet was served. The table decorations consisted of an immense center-piece of Papa Gontier roses. During the evening Miss Margaret Hinman and Mrs. Arthur Caples were the recipients of handsome gifts. Those present were: Mrs. John Macrum, Mrs. L. Robinson, Miss Maude Shannon, Mrs. Mayne Abbott, Miss Manche Langley, Mrs. N. J. Adkins, Miss Alice Cronin, Miss Margaret Hinman, Mrs. Arthur Caples, Mrs. Wilbur McDowdy and Miss Minnie Myers.

Miss Minnie Myers entertained the "Fleur de Lis" club last evening with a Cosmos party. After a pleasant evening of Five Hundred, each guest was presented with a flower pot of ice cream in which was planted a spray of cosmos. Miss Alice Cronin received the first prize and Miss Josephine Baber, the second. Each received a large bouquet of cosmos.

Eva Stewart of Forest Grove, who in her own right owns about 360 acres of land as well as some money, was brought down to Hillsboro last Monday, for examination of her mental powers. She is not exactly demented, but for years has been uncontrollable, and had a guardian in the person of her brother, the late Dave Stewart. After the brother's death Geo. Bacon has been acting as the guardian. Of late she has been violent occasionally, and she now claims protection of her brother in Eastern Oregon. Judge Godwin will keep her at the county seat a few days, until he can hear from the brother. There is plenty of estate to pay for her care at a private place and there is hardly sufficient dementia to send her to the asylum.—Argus.

After a more thorough examination, Mrs. Eva Stewart was committed to the asylum. The authorities came after her and she was placed in the hospital department. Mrs. Stewart has been afflicted for many years, and it is doubtful if she ever recovers her mental powers.

Guitar and Mandolin Class
Professor Edwin A. Smith of the Columbia University, Portland, will be in Forest Grove on Wednesday, Oct. 31, to start a class on the above instruments. Those wishing for instruction will please leave their names at The Bazaar.

PACIFIC LOSES TO COLUMBIA.
Place Kick and Touchdown Won for the Catholic Lads.
(A good game of football under the new rules was played on the local gridiron Saturday which resulted in Columbia winning from Pacific University 10 to 0.) The visitors showed much superiority in handling the ball, especially in forward passes and in punting. Pacific kicked off to Columbia, and held the Catholics for downs, but several line bucks forced the nigskin to Columbia's 30-yard line. The Catholics then made a stand, took the ball and punted it into Pacific's territory. Pacific was penalized 15 yards for a substitute getting on the field.
Columbia then took the ball on downs and forced it over the line for a touchdown. Columbia kicked to Pacific in the second half, and kept the ball in their territory throughout the remainder of the game. Pacific was again penalized for cutting in on a quarterback run. Captain Smith then made a place kick, and saved four points for Columbia. Porterfield, Grussi, and Captain Smith made several good plays for Columbia, gaining 35, 25 and 20 yards, respectively. Abraham, Logan and Denny made long runs for Pacific. Lawrence was laid out, and his place was filled by Captain Ward, who was injured in last Saturday's game. The line-up was as follows:

COLUMBIA	PACIFIC

Died.
Mr. F. S. Barnes received a telegram from Will H. Thompson, the archer, poet, lecturer and orator of Seattle, telling of the death of his wife this morning.

The body of Florence Beamis, who died on October 20, at the Good Samaritan Hospital after a long siege of typhoid fever, was brought to this city on Tuesday morning's train, and then taken to the family residence near Greenville. The funeral took place at 10,30 a. m. Tuesday with interment in the family plot in the Wilkes cemetery. Florence was 8 years old.
News has been received here of the death of Sam Lee in Chicago, who formerly lived here and was the faithful washee of many households of this city. Sam had made many friends in this city and all will mourn his loss.
