NEWSLETS

"The other side of life"

The public school boys have the football fever, but it seems that it has not yet got a strong enough hold on them.

If you ever hear that the News doesn't stand for everything that is beneficial to Forest Grove and Washington county—just put it down that they don't know.

The "weather plant" is doing wonders in Mexico and Cuba as it is said that it has no equal in forecasting atmospheric and seismic disturbances.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES.

The Literary society is becoming interesting and proving very beneficial to all, especially those who take part in the meeting. A good program was rendered last week including a debate, Resolved: That, the Rights of Suffrage Should be Denied a Woman.

Edith Regg, a pupil from the fifth grade has moved with her parents to Oklahoma, where they will make their future home.

Cecil Christian, who has been employed in Portland during the past six months, has returned and resumed his work in the eighth grade.

The girls of the ninth and tenth grades expect to organize a basket ball team next week.

Keith Abraham, recently from Nebraska, is a new pupil in the ninth grade. The High school enrolled twelve the first week and has gradually increased until it now has twenty.

Freddie Aydelott returned after a week's absence.

The next meeting of the Literary society will be one week from Friday. The subject to be debated is, "Resolved That the Chinese Exclusion Act has been detrimental to the United States."

We hope that our friends keep in mind the date of our entertainment, Nov. 27. If you patronize it you will aid a worthy institution—the public school.

COLLEGE NEWS

Rev. Gould gave a very interesting chapel talk Friday. Elias Payne, a member of Gamma Sigma and a student in the academy is expected back this week from Snohomish, Washington, where he has been working since last June. The fourth year Hallowe'en party was a thorough success. Mrs. E. E. Williams very kindly opened her house to the class and aided the committee in its arrangements. The rooms were filled with autumn leaves and the lights covered with pumpkin colored paper, while Jack-o lanterns grinned upon the guests as they entered. The dining room was a veritable forest, the walls banked with red and gold branches, and the floor a mass of leaves. Apples were also strewn about. When every one was comfortably seated on the floor, a large wash-tub of dandy Hallowe'en nuts, apples, doughnuts, cheese, etc., was passed around. Prof. Ben Kori and Tom Bailey vied with each other in the performance of magic stunts. All voted Mr. Kori a capital story-teller. He and his wife acted as chaperons.

The Third year's held their Hallowe'en party at the home of Mrs. Rasmussen last Wednesday evening. The house was beautifully decorated with ivy and vine-maple and orange and dark green ribbon. The dull lights and jack-o'-lanterns grinning behind the vines and in every conceivable corner, gave the whole rather a ghostly appearance. Probably the most attractive feature of the evening was the old Witch who sat nodding in a corner and told the future in a spectral manner to all the guests. Mr. Laurence Gardner made himself famous by receiving the first prize for writing the best love letter, while Miss Helen Chalmers received the booby prize which doubtless proved she has not had the same amount of practice as Mr. Gardner.
