BUXTON
(Too Late for Last Week.)

Quite a number went from Buxton to the Grove to see the ball game Sunday.

Miss Marian Crawford was visiting in Portland for the past week at the home of E. Lorenz.

The family of Mr. Geo. W. Evans have moved to their summer home at the Donald Lumber Co.'s sawmill.

Clarke and Dixon of Forest Grove, have been doing some work on Lew Crawford's barn, raising it eight feet.

Salvanus McHargue, the eleven year old son of John McHargue, was run over by a wagon and bruised pretty badly one day this week.

Mrs. Emmet Quick and Mr. T. Eagan, the engineer at the tunnel, were injured quite severely in a runaway last Sunday a week ago.

David O'Donnell Jr., who is working with the surveyors on the Astoria branch of the P. R. & N. line, is spending a week's vacation with his folks.

The fourth Saturday of this month, Hannans' will have another dance in the new hall, the best in the county. Walker and Barrett will furnish the music.

Mrs. A. Playfair, her daughters, Mrs. Austen and Miss Florence Erickson, all of Bellingham, Wash., were recent visitors at the homes of L. L. Crawford and W. Hines.

DILLEY

Oscar Kuhns spent Thursday in the Rose City.

Miss Merle Maury was a Portland visitor Friday and Saturday.

Mr. John Hardebeck made a business trip to the Grove Saturday.

Mr. G. H. Briggs has returned from a short business trip to Camas, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Van Meter who have been spending a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Van Meter, have returned to their home in Portland.

Miss Minne McLeod of the Oregonian staff, is spending her vacation at her home in Dilley.

Paul and Robert Brown of Amity, who visited relatives here last week have returned home.

Mrs. Temple of Tacoma, Wash., is spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hubbert.

In a base ball game between Dilley and Fern Hill, Sunday, at the Ball Grounds in Wolf's field, Dilley won, the score being 14 to 11.

Mrs. Chas. LaChapelle who has been spending a couple of weeks with her mother, Mrs. M. McLeod, at her place here, returned to her home in Portland Sunday.

NEWPORT.

Mrs. C. L. Large and baby arrived last week.

Mrs. Iva Hartrampf and Oran La Course arrived last week.

George Best and wife of Gaston arrived Saturday evening.

Misses Lyda and Ella Staehr arrived last week to remain some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McNutt and son Floyd left for home Monday.

Raleigh Walker and friends made a very enjoyable trip to the Punch Bowl last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Markee and daughter Luella came over last week to spend a few days.

Dr. and Mrs. Brown came over last week and returned after a few pleasant days by the sea.

Mr. Wade Everst of Cornelius, and uncle A. Saterlee of Portland, arrived last week for the summer.

Miss Laura Jackson of Hillsboro and Miss Mabel Matison are spending the week at the Hibbs cottage.

About two hundred merry dancers tripped the light fantastic at Walker Bros. new ball Saturday evening.

Among the Groveites who came over Saturday and went back Monday were: Mr. and Mrs. Miles Pardin, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Pritchett of Banks and Victor Fuqua.

Among the arrivals Monday from Forest Grove were Will Mills, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. McEldowney, Mrs. Littlehale and family and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Baldwin.

POWER HOUSE.

G. Hammock and wife visited at Forest Grove Friday.

James Lee took some campers in to Lee Falls for their summer outing.

Robt. Lockwood and his newly made wife will enjoy the mountain breezes this summer.

The tents that are at the power house make one think they had struck a gypsy camp.

John Roberts who got hurt awhile back, had a narrow escape from having his house burned down but with the assistance of Mrs. Miller, his sister and his brother, they managed to subdue the flames with little damage.

Mrs. Mathew has been staying on her ranch above the power house. Mr. Longren took dinner with her last Friday and says she has one of the best improved claims he ever saw. Her walnut trees are growing rapidly and it is good to see a large orchard of them in the hills, besides a big apple orchard.

BANKS

Joe Schulerick started for the coast last Saturday.

New buildings are going up fast around here. The town is booming.

Hay is reported very scarce out this way this season and will be worth its weight in gold.

The Banks baseball players defeated the Cornelius nine last Sunday by a score of 4 to 3.

Eugene Friday is working with John Herb and C. F. Brown's baler crew. He is their water hauler.

Wm. Moore, postmaster, and John M. Kessler have been talking of buying property in this place to move their families on.

Quite a number from this place went to Carlton on the excursion last Sunday and report having had a good time. They say it is a fine place.

The R. F. D. carrier John M. Kessler is boarding at John W. Friday's about one-half mile above Banks now. He says he likes his new boarding place fine.

The new Banks band is making good progress with its new instruments and is turning out all kinds of music. The band consists of farmers, R. F. D. carriers, store keepers and to top it off they got the leading blacksmith of the city in it, Hon. J. J. Smith.

There are three rural routes from this place now. John M. Kessler appointed carrier on route No. 1, with John W. Friday as sub; Frank H. Herb appointed carrier on route No. 2, with Chas. J. Herb as sub; and Frank T. Vandomelen appointed carrier on route No. 3, with Bert Vandomelen as sub. Route No. 1 is now 24 1/2 miles long, route No. 2 a little over 17 miles and route No. 3 a little over 19 miles long.

[Will Banks cor. please sign his name so we can send stationery. ED]

WATT DISTRICT.

Allan Dilley does not believe in remaining idle though he is disabled, for Friday he pitched five loads of hay.

Mr. John Wilson has severed his connection with the Base Line Lumber Company and is now with a surveying party in the mountains.

The young people of the Watt Sunday School have been invited to spend Wednesday with Mrs. Van Kirk. They all anticipate a fine time.

It keeps people wondering whether its an automobile or M. Patton with his new delivery outfit that is passing. They both go by at the same high rate of speed.

Mr. Keagy, who recently purchased N. Wiberg's farm, had a severe attack of appendicitis last week, at Mr. Peterson's where he was boarding. He is now better, due to the excellent care given him by Mr. and Mrs. Peterson and the nurse, Miss Helen Rueter of Portland. Mr. Keagy left Monday for Astoria where he will soon undergo an operation.

GALES CREEK

Mr. Carlson started for Finland last week.

Miss Josie Kyle is visiting friends on Gales Creek.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Johnston Thursday last.

John and Chas. Lilly started for the former's claim near Buxton Tuesday.

Miss Mattie Clark has gone over to Wilson River to stay with Mrs. Rheer.

Mrs. Prosser's father, mother and sister of Forest Grove attended Sunday School here Sunday.

Fear of the measles causes many people to stay close at home. Mrs. Will Lee and two children, Walter Sargent and Cecil Lilly have had them and many others have been exposed.

Quite an accident befell Fred Wilson while he and his brother, Dennis, were barking logs for Mr. Brimhorner. His brother's ax slipped out of his hand and struck Fred just above the knees and quite a gash was cut. Dr. Via was called.

HILLSBORO

Sheriff Connell is home from his hunting trip to Tillamook.

Several parties have gone to Newport for an outing, and there are more to follow.

Circuit court closed for the term, Monday. But little business was transacted during the term.

Bricklaying has commenced on the walls of the new store rooms adjoining the Shute Bank building.

The Jap extra crew left a pile of old ties burning near the Zina Wood place, Monday, and fire caught in the fencing and did considerable damage before it was brought under control.

Vernon Spaulding of Somers, Montana, arrived here last Friday and has been visiting his father in this city. He went over to Tillamook the first of the week and spent a few days with his sister, Mrs. Everett Hall, and will leave for Montana tomorrow.
