Pete's little daughter who went over with his brother, dropped him a few lines and is enjoying herself nicely.

E. E. Mink, business manager of the Guard Printing Co., Eugene, Oregon, and well known here, was in this city Saturday for a short stay. Mr. Mink was at a former time manager of the Forbes ranch at Dilley, and is a brother of Mrs. H. L. Deckert, whom he visited while here. He reports business constantly increasing in his new field and The News wishes him continued success.

C. E. Harbaugh, who was working for the Groner & Rowell Company at Scholls, seven miles southeast of Hillsboro, died Monday morning of heart failure. He was camping out in a tent near the company's mill and passed before aid arrived. He was 48 years of age and leaves a widow and seven children. Several years ago he founded the McMinnville News, which was later merged with the Reporter.

C. A. Broderson, who came here a few months ago from Nebraska where he had charge of a large force of painters and workers for the railroad, has lumber on his place on the Dilley road for a new house. He and his wife lived in Chicago for several years where Mr. Broderson was in the employ of the railroad but they have both fallen in love with Oregon and would not leave the Beaver state for a corner lot in the "Windy City."

Mrs. W. H. Hollis last week received a carload of furniture from the east, and among it was Mrs. Hollis' standard bred pacer. The goods were on the road about two weeks but the horse is none the worse for its long journey. This animal is a beautiful black mare with white strip down her face and one white foot. She has not established a record but has near kin in Michigan that have good records. Mr. and Mrs. Hollis will go to housekeeping here just as soon as a suitable property can be had.

J. C. Callahan sold out his sawmill located in Patton Valley last week to E. A. Thomas, Mr. McFall, and Mr. Greeney who have assumed management. These gentlemen are all from the east. Mr. Callahan retains a fourth interest and the same crew will continue to work both in the mill and camp. Mr. Callahan has run the mill for about four years. The out-put is 20,000 feet of lumber per day and about 25 men are in the employ of the company.

The brick work on the new bank building will be somewhat delayed owing to the inability of the brickmakers to fill the order. They are to be gray pressed brick of the finest quality. When completed this will be one of the most substantial structures in Washington County besides one of extreme architectural beauty. The floors are being prepared for tiling and the first floor plans are so drawn that when completed this will be a most modern banking institution.

Archie Bryant, who recently purchased the Pacific Gallery, left Monday for his home at Timber Valley for a week's visit with his family. Upon his return he will be accompanied by his wife and two children and will make Forest Grove their home. Mr. Bryant is one of the best photographers on the coast and he informs The News that upon his return he will improve the gallery to such an extent that it will enable him to turn out the finest work possible.

Dr. Eaton will leave Monday for Davenport, Iowa, to take a special course in the school of Chiropractic. He expects to be gone three months before returning to Oregon. This is the only school of the kind in the United States. Mrs. Eaton, who preceded him, will join him in the east. The Doctor has established a good practice here, and his many friends and patrons will miss him during his absence.

Prof. Wilkerson received a letter from Paul Boyd from Boston, a few days ago, in which the Rev.'s son told of their trip to the city of culture and of the things they saw at the State house. When they started east Prof. Wilkerson told Paul to write and the little fellow said "well, I'll take down your name for fear I'll forget about it." He is a very observing lad and remembers all he sees. The Boyd family is stopping in Massachusetts while Mr. Boyd is on his trip abroad. They will return to this city in October.

De Feour, who lives a couple of miles south-west of here above the Atwell prune ranch, was personally acquainted with Francis Heney when he taught school in Idaho and is a great admirer of the noted graft prosecutor. Heney was handed a lemon by the Idaho school district because of his strenuous methods and went from there to Arizona where he dropped a man who attempted to kill him, because of divorce proceedings Heney was conducting for the fellow's wife. Mr. Feour came to Oregon for his health.

Hugh Smith came near getting mashed by the up train Sunday. It is well known that Hugh is in the habit of butting bulls off the bridge but he is playing a distinctively new role in trying to butt the cow-catcher off the switch. Sunday when the train pulled in from Carlton, Hugh and catcher Getter got off the train on the south side and the up train passed here instead of at the Dilley switch as usual. Hugh was talking to the popular catcher of the Colt aggregation, forgetting himself, when he was almost run over by the train. He fell back quickly which was the only thing that saved him.

"A whistling girl and a crowing hen are sure to come to some bad end" is the way the old saying goes, and basing their belief upon this, the neighbors of W. K. Curtis, who lives on a ranch north of town were sure for awhile that one of his this-year's hens was surely doomed to a tragic conclusion. The bird is a mixture of Minorca and Leghorn, and has all the earmarks of a hen but the thing crows and as yet has not been seen on a nest. As the days increase the fowl takes on the appearance of a rooster and it is hoped by the superstitious that that is the sex of the bird lest it go the way of the whistling girl.

Fred Parsons, a Dilley hop grower, believes that all of the growers over the whole United States should organize, "and then" says he, "we would have an organization worth while and one that would force buyers to pay a fair price." He is not an advocate of state union for he says that is not sufficient and therefore he is not a member of that organization. "California, New York, Washington and Oregon should unite and select a man and his assistants of business principles and not hop growers to look after the interests of the growers. Mr. Parsons thinks that 15 cents would be a fair price to both consumers and producers.

Young Levy, the meat cutter, has been kept busy the past week telling the people all about the little spotted fawn he captured last Sunday up Gales Creek. He and his brother were out in the country rounding up cattle for the market when they came across the juvenile doe shaking and hungry by the side of the road. They picked the little fellow up and brought her to town on horse back and have her at their home on Main Street where many pilgrims have gone to see the animal. In all probability the mother was shot and the fawn was driven to shift for itself, for it was very weak when captured. It is about a month old and is about the size of a rat-terrier dog.

Tillamook County will have another exhibition of its dairy products at its annual county fair this year, which takes place in Tillamook City on the 22nd, 23rd and 24th of August. There will be a stock show in connection with the fair. Dairymen have been receiving exceedingly high prices for butter fat in Tillamook this year, ranging from 33c to 37c per lb., being 10c per lb. above that paid last year, averaging from $12 to $14 per cow per month. The fair will be made interesting for the numerous campers and pleasure seekers who go to Tillamook every year from other counties, where they spend their summer vacations in that prosperous and delightful Coast County.

Walter Roswurm, the ice man, was compelled to get "Bill" Doeres to deliver his frozen goods the first of the week as the result of a mishap he had in Dilley one day last week. He drove in behind Pegg & Company's mercantile establishment with a load of ice when his team became frightened by the up coming train. They started suddenly and reeled and he was jammed against the fence throwing out his right hand as he fell. His arm was badly peeled and he was badly bruised up generally. This happened on Friday and on the following day he sold 17,200 pounds of ice. He is educating the people up to the idea of keeping cool and has a fine trade.

COLTS WIN GOOD GAME.

Kopple Makes Home Run—Big Crowd at Carlton Sunday.

About two hundred people journeyed via a special train to Carlton last Sunday with the Colts and witnessed a good game of baseball with the Yamhillers which resulted in a score of 6 to 3 in favor of the colts.

Carlton was defeated here Decoration day by a score of 6 to 5, so that gives our boys the championship of the series. The exhibition Sunday was clean and hard fought and several hundred dollars exchanged hands as the result of the matinee.

The features of the game were the pile-driver hit which Kopple made in the eighth inning sending the spherelet out to the edge of the lake, the timely hitting of Wirtz, the manager, who smashed the ball for three two pillow bingles and got one single; the heavy hitting of Getter, the base sliding of Moore, the line catch of Babe Britton and the steady work of Betties won the game. Kopple made a home run.

Death or victory is the slogan of the Colts for next Sunday's game when they meet the avaricious contingent from McMinnville. Both teams hold a scarp and this will be a battle for final conclusions.

It is generally noted over the country that this will be the hottest game of the season and will be the strongest crowd puller in the history of baseball in this county.

In the morning the second team will cross bats with the Stephenson bunch of Portland. This is their first game and the older folks should see that they get a good patronage. The game is called for 9:30.
