HILLSBORO

Work on remodeling the Sheriff's office commenced this week. A large number went to Banks Sunday afternoon on the excursion. M. Edee, a former resident of this city, was here Monday on business. J. H. Ray has been in Portladd for several days past, for treatment at the hospital. August Tews, the barber, is back in his shop after an outing at Garibaldi and Netarts. Editor D. W. Bath of the Independent, is visiting his son Irving at Bandon, Coos county, this week. The Free Methodist people have pitched a tent, across the street west of the Crescent Theatre, for a meeting. A. M. French, an attorney of Cloud County, Kan., is here this week taking some depositions before attorney Benton Bowman, to be used in a case in his home county. Our business men have commenced putting in cement walks in front of most of the business property. The Council has established a grade for walks, and will insist upon cement as the board walks are to be replaced. Hillsboro will soon have an additional number of new business rooms ready for occupancy and they are quite readily taken. The demand for residence property is active, new houses being rented before they are completed.

GALES CREEK

John Lilly made a business trip to Portland Friday. John Wilson is much improved and is able to be around. One of Mr. Adkins' horses kicked and seriously injured Guss Geen's pony Thursday. Mr. Maitland and family have moved from the upper logging camp down to the lower one. Mrs. Belle Lilly and children Howard, Norman, Rife and Raleigh visited with friends in North Yamhill this week. Louie Jacobsen, while playing last Tuesday ran a splinter of wood about five inches long into his thigh. Dr. Brown was called. Fire mysteriously broke out about a quarter of a mile from the lower logging camp Tuesday. It soon got beyond control of the loggers and spread rapidly consuming lots of fine timber.

NEWPORT

Levi Walker arrived Friday evening and joined his family at Nye Creek. Mr. Thomas Roe, father of C. O. Roe, has been quite ill for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. C. V. B. Russell came over last week to remain a week or more by the sea. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Thomas arrived last week to remain for a couple of weeks at the beach. M. Peterson came over again Thursday. He was on the delayed C. & E. train and got to Newport at 12 o'clock at night. Mr. C. O. Roe left for home Thursday and was in the wreck on the C. & E. near Philomath. No one was seriously hurt in the wreck. Mr. and Mrs. Will Kertson and son Ross and Oscar Baldwin left Saturday for home. Mr. Baldwin expects to go to Tillamook to be there in time for the Carnival this week. Herbert Wirtz, son of Councilman Wirtz will leave for his home in Portland, Friday, spending a month at the beach. He was employed as door-keeper at the Casino while here. A jolly crowd came over from Forest Grove Saturday and went back Monday. Among them were: Carl Christian, Ora Fields, Chester Johnson, Harvey Baldwin, Clarence Porter, Carl Mischeaux, formerly of the Grove, Mr. Trumble, Mrs. Langley and son Lotus and Mr. and Mrs. Will French. Felix Verhoeven of the Forest Grove Real Estate Co., is a very busy man nowadays, as people are coming out from Portland every day to see the great bargains in real estate, and he has to show them around all over the country.
