

FIRST NATIONAL BANK
Forest Grove, Oregon

Capital	$ 25,000.00
Surplus	10,000.00
Resources	250,000.00

A General Banking Business Transacted

Directors: R. M. Dooly, J. E. Loomis, H. C. Wortman, Frank E. Dooly, R. M. Dooly, Jr.

Pacific Art Studio FOREST GROVE, Ore

Under new Management

High class work in all lines of photography at popular prices—Views and amateur work finished with neatness and dispatch.

For a limited time we will make a Carbon Sepia Photo on Elegant Folder for $4 per dozen. Portland price for this work is $10 per dozen.

ARCHIE BRYANT, Prop. MISS KATE LILLY, Reception Lady.

THE CITY

H. W. SPARKS, LOCAL EDITOR.

Claud Smith was a Portland visitor Tuesday.

Charles Roe came home from Newport Saturday.

—The new school books are now on sale at The Bazaar.

Mrs. Traver was a Portland visitor one day last week.

Miss Zula Shorb is the guest of the Misses Haney of this city.

Earl Dennis returned Tuesday from a short recreation to Tillamook.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wirtz spent Sunday with friends in the country.

—We have always paid the highest for wool and mohair.—Bailey's.

W. E. Pegg was transacting business in Portland the first of the week.

—For water and light meters see S. E. Todd.

Pay up your arrearages and a year in advance before the rate goes up to $1.50.

Oscar Baldwin and wife, who have been sojourning at Newport for the past month, have returned home.

Tom Hughes, a brother of Miss Helen Hughes of Portland, has been visiting with relatives in this city.

Prof. Taylor arrived a few days ago from Nebraska and has purchased the Mrs. Glass property in South Park.

Take advantage of the hour and subscribe for The News at the old rate of $1. October 1 the price goes up.

Lloyd McNutt and E. Hardin who have been spending a week in the mountains returned home Monday.

Miss Belle Denny of La Salle, Ill., has accepted a position as bookkeeper with Goff Bros. the hardware men.

Will Kerton returned from Newport last Saturday but in the process of his stay at the coast he lost his mustache.

Archie Clark, who is with a survey party over in the Wilson River country was in the city the first of the week.

P. P. Murphy and family have returned from Astoria where Mr. Murphy has been employed. They will reside here.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Harmon who have been visiting at the home of John E. Bailey have returned to their home in Seattle.

Mr. Schofield, who lives on the Gales Creek road, is carrying his arm in a sling as a result of a runaway he had the other day.

James McClaren, one of the oldest pioneers of Gales Creek and a wealthy farmer of that section, was doing business in this city yesterday.

Tom Todd was transacting business in town Tuesday incidentally making this office a pleasant call and renewing his subscription to The News.

Evan Ranes, who is in the employ of the Marshal-Wells Hardware Company along with Nibbs Wirtz is in the city visiting with his mother.

W. R. Harris and his brother, Rev. W. B. Harris of Rockford Ill., have returned from an outing and will go to Seaside for another sojourn.

Miss Bessie Stoetzel of Murphy, Idaho, is here the guest of A. G. Hoffman. Miss Stoetzel is book-keeper for a lumber concern in Idaho.

Chester Fletcher left last evening for Pueblo, Col., where he is instructor in modern languages in the High School of which his brother is principal.

Mrs. W. B. Haines, who has been at Newport for several weeks, is at the home of her parents at Philomath seriously ill. Mr. Haines is at her bedside.

Cy Fowler's daughter, Cora, was brought home with the typhoid fever Tuesday from Anna Cortz, Wash. Yesterday it was thought she was some better.

Mr. Austin T. Buxton, Worthy Master of the Oregon State Grange, wife and two small sons spent Friday and Saturday nights with Mrs. Holm returning to their home at Forest Grove Sunday.—North Yamhill Record.

Charlie Smith, the painter, is here visiting the home folks before leaving for California next Monday. Charlie intends to take in all of the big towns in the sunny state.

Mrs. Gertrude Smith Eilers of Portland, has been visiting at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Smith. Mrs. Eilers recently returned from an extensive trip to New York.

Mrs. S. Wiggman sold her 4-acre fruit farm Wednesday, located 1 1/2 miles southeast of town to "Bud" Watson, consideration $900. Sale was made by Stahr & Verhoeven.

The 40 acre farm known as the Mizner place, south of Dan Baker's ranch has been sold to J. E. Cronin of Portland for the consideration of $5000. Mark Noble made the sale.

G. W. Young of Hood River, has rented the Curtis farm at Hillside and will take possession of the place October 15. Mr. and Mrs. Curtis will either move here or to Portland.

—Pictures of merit not of trash is our motto. If we can't make you a good Foto we won't make you one at all. See Archie Bryant, the picture man, Pacific Art Studio.

About fifteen young folks enjoyed the afternoon Friday near H. T. Buxton's having a picnic. Games of all kinds were played after which lemonade and cake were served.

Rolla Phelps, who recently purchased a piece of land near Forest Grove, Oregon, was in the city during the week attending to some business matters.—Hood River News-Letter.

Miss Mable Wirtz of Portland who has been visiting with relatives in Portland has returned to this city and is stopping with her mother here while Nibbs and Willard are over to Newport.

Miss Margaret Jesse of Banks, entertained last week her friends, Misses Ethel Lee and Dora Reincke of Portland. The ladies had a delightful time while there and declare their intention of returning.

A. Richter and Melvin Sykes are here from the east. They are friends of Walter Roswurm, our popular ice man, and may work with him in the restaurant which he is contemplating starting up here.

A. L. Sexton went over to Seaside last Saturday for an over Sunday stay with his wife and Bess who had been spending a couple of weeks at the seashore. Al brought them both back with him Monday.

Thomas Roe was to have been brought home from his cottage at Newport the first of the week, on account of his ill health, but just about that time he got better and wished to remain at the seashore.

Miss Nellie James, who formerly lived here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. James, is in the city visiting her aunt, Miss Mary James. Miss Nellie is teaching school at Bend and her father is conducting a store at Lairdlaw.

A party of lads consisting of Don Trumble, Ernest Steigleider, George Jackson, Roy Knox and Young Moore, returned from the Timber country Monday after spending a week in the mountains. They report that they got a couple of deer.

Alfred Gilbert, familiarly known as Little Gillie around these parts, and Jim Thompson, both former students of Pacific, passed through here Monday enroute to Timber, the camping ground of the Shannons, Langleys and others from here.

A. C. Schofield who resides on the Buxton place on the Gales Creek road was breaking a colt Tuesday, when the animal turned the buggy over with Mr. Scofield underneath. The left wrist was badly sprained as a result. Dr. Via dressed the wound.

Dick Holsier was doing trading in this city Saturday. Dick has a fine little ranch on David's Hill where he is making all kinds of money off his grapes. His sister who stopped there for some time this summer has returned to New York.

Uncle Obed Thornburg, the grand old man of Washington County, who only lacks four years of being a centenarian, was up town Tuesday shaking hands with his many friends. He still gets around very spryly and drives his horse under the whip.

Ira Purdin of Portland came out Monday to look after his farm for a few days. He with his daughter Edna will leave Sept. 11 for a visit to the Jamestown Exposition and on his return he will visit his old home in Brown County, Ohio.

A. G. Hoffman has returned from his trip to Netarts where he has been camping with his family for the past three weeks. They went over the Wilson River road and returned by the Grand Ronde. The Erickson and Green families were in the same party.

A. J. Russell, brother of C. V. B. Russell the shoe man, died at his home in Glenwood, Iowa, on August 15 after an illness of about a month, caused by a paralytic stroke. Mr. Russell was about 70 years of age, and together with his wife visited here last summer.

Ed Davidson and Jim Hall came up from Southern Oregon, the first of the week and have been visiting at the home of Prof. LaFrane. Mr. and Mrs. Hall left Tuesday for their home in Grants Pass where he has a position with the railroad. Ed Davidson's home is in Jacksonville, where he runs a big ranch.

Ivan Roy Curtiss, the second son of Wm K. Curtiss, fell from a load of hay a few days ago and sustained a broken arm by the fall. Carl, his brother and his father were hauling hay and the wagon ran over a stump and Roy was tossed up into the air and to the ground. He is still carrying his arm in a sling.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Walker and Misses Elda and Leva have returned from their outing at Newport and report a very pleasant time. Misses Elda and Leva will leave in about two weeks for the University of Nebraska where they both have responsible positions as instructors in the botanical department, for which the Nebraska institution is noted.

Len Morley and his brother Will, who is employed on the new bank building, will leave the first of September for their old home in Wisconsin for a visit with their mother and other relatives. "Shorty" has some stalwart brothers in the east and he thinks likely that Oregon's population will be increased somewhat by his visit to the east.

Oscar Love ripped his right leg just above the knee quite badly while threshing for Krebs near Greenville Tuesday afternoon by catching the member on the sack hooks of the separator. He had been working on the separator and gave a leap but did not quite clear the machine catching his leg on the hook. He came to town and had Dr. Brown dress the wound.

A crowd of boys consisting of Chet Johnson, Ora Fields, Clarence Parker, Carl Christian, Harve Baldwin and Trumbull went over to Newport last Saturday returning Monday. They were joined at Carlton by Carl Michaux and every one of the bunch was clad in red sweaters and when they arrived at the coast were bradred the red sweater brigade.

Levi Walker returned last week from the government survey he has been making in the Cascade Mountains about 12 miles southeast of Gates. Mr. Walker reports that country very rich in minerals and some fine strikes are being made in lead. Gordon Clapp, Albert Kirkwood and August Wagner did work for Mr. Walker on the survey.

Mr. Thos. Emrick arrived from Forest Grove this morning with a load of men who have been employed by the Wakefield Company, contractors on construction of the railroad. Mr. Emrick will make regular trips by this route, by which method it is hoped by the contractor to secure enough men to fill the present pressing need.—Tillamook Herald.

John Vondehey's farm of 34 acres and located 1 1/2 miles north of Forest Grove has been sold to I. C. Nealeigh of Hood River and R. A. Phelps of the same place has purchased J. H. Herb's ranch of 40 acres near Greenville. Both of these families have lived at Hood River for the past seven years and this community is to profit by the apple country's loss. Both sales were made through the Oregon Land Company.

Frank Miller, the renowned aeronaut who sent his boy, the Russian, up at Hillsboro the Fourth, came out with Zeno the snake charmer, Sunday, and had Ira Bradley take them on over to Tillamook where they will do stunts or the people during the fair. Miller is reported as saying that he did not go over on the boat from Portland because he was afraid to load all the gold on the boat he intends taking away from the land of cheese for fear of sinking the craft.

E. I. Kuratli of Hillsboro and ex-recorder of conveyances was in the city yesterday on business. He found time to call at The News office.

—Pictures of merit not of trash is our motto. If we can't make you a good Foto we won't make you one at all. See Archie Bryant, the picture man, Pacific Art Studio.

About fifteen young folks enjoyed the afternoon Friday near H. T. Buxton's having a picnic. Games of all kinds were played after which lemonade and cake were served.

Rolla Phelps, who recently purchased a piece of land near Forest Grove, Oregon, was in the city during the week attending to some business matters.—Hood River News-Letter.

Miss Mable Wirtz of Portland who has been visiting with relatives in Portland has returned to this city and is stopping with her mother here while Nibbs and Willard are over to Newport.

Miss Margaret Jesse of Banks, entertained last week her friends, Misses Ethel Lee and Dora Reincke of Portland. The ladies had a delightful time while there and declare their intention of returning.

A. Richter and Melvin Sykes are here from the east. They are friends of Walter Roswurm, our popular ice man, and may work with him in the restaurant which he is contemplating starting up here.

A. L. Sexton went over to Seaside last Saturday for an over Sunday stay with his wife and Bess who had been spending a couple of weeks at the seashore. Al brought them both back with him Monday.

Thomas Roe was to have been brought home from his cottage at Newport the first of the week, on account of his ill health, but just about that time he got better and wished to remain at the seashore.

Miss Nellie James, who formerly lived here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. James, is in the city visiting her aunt, Miss Mary James. Miss Nellie is teaching school at Bend and her father is conducting a store at Lairdlaw.

A party of lads consisting of Don Trumble, Ernest Steigleider, George Jackson, Roy Knox and Young Moore, returned from the Timber country Monday after spending a week in the mountains. They report that they got a couple of deer.

Alfred Gilbert, familiarly known as Little Gillie around these parts, and Jim Thompson, both former students of Pacific, passed through here Monday enroute to Timber, the camping ground of the Shannons, Langleys and others from here.

A. C. Schofield who resides on the Buxton place on the Gales Creek road was breaking a colt Tuesday, when the animal turned the buggy over with Mr. Scofield underneath. The left wrist was badly sprained as a result. Dr. Via dressed the wound.

Dick Holsier was doing trading in this city Saturday. Dick has a fine little ranch on David's Hill where he is making all kinds of money off his grapes. His sister who stopped there for some time this summer has returned to New York.

Uncle Obed Thornburg, the grand old man of Washington County, who only lacks four years of being a centenarian, was up town Tuesday shaking hands with his many friends. He still gets around very spryly and drives his horse under the whip.

Ira Purdin of Portland came out Monday to look after his farm for a few days. He with his daughter Edna will leave Sept. 11 for a visit to the Jamestown Exposition and on his return he will visit his old home in Brown County, Ohio.

A. G. Hoffman has returned from his trip to Netarts where he has been camping with his family for the past three weeks. They went over the Wilson River road and returned by the Grand Ronde. The Erickson and Green families were in the same party.

A. J. Russell, brother of C. V. B. Russell the shoe man, died at his home in Glenwood, Iowa, on August 15 after an illness of about a month, caused by a paralytic stroke. Mr. Russell was about 70 years of age, and together with his wife visited here last summer.

It Will Pay You

To go and see John Anderson for

SUITS

We have them greatly reduced.

John Anderson,
THE TAILOR.

Nice Cool Dress Goods

Dimity and lawns of all kinds. A new shipment of trimmings, the very best that money will buy. Laces and embroideries.

Big stock of

SUMMER SHOES

Also the finest line of groceries in town. Everything guaranteed or your money refunded. Get your fruit jars—Mason and Economy—from us.

ABRAHAM BROS

Forest Grove - - Oregon

A Complete Line

Camp Stoves,
Tinware,
Enamel ware

& Cooking Utinsels needed for the

Hopfield or Home

You will need a new Range this fall we have a good stock and shall be pleased to tell you about the range we are selling, of which over 30 sold since March 1st. We can refer you to any of these purchasers any one who buys one of these stoves remains our friend for life. They are the best bakers and fuel savers on the market.

Gladys Kelsey of Portland, is visiting her many little friends in this city this week.

John Stevenson of the Telegram, was visiting his parents on Gales Creek Sunday.

Ora Smith, one of our first subscribers, was in Tuesday and renewed his subscription.

—The Auction House received a carload of new and second hand furniture last week.

Mrs. Ed Dixon is at Newport working on one of her choice paintings of scenes about the beach.

A new story will begin in The News next week. "The Red Trail" by Gustave Aimard. Read it.

Miss Goldie Peterson returned Monday from Newport where the Peterson family is taking an outing.

Dr. D. W. Ward and Father Verhaeg of Verboort, went over to Tillamook Monday for an outing.

Mrs. A. E. Dixon, the milliner, went to Portland yesterday to purchase her Fall stock of Millinery goods.

The Book Store offers ten per cent discount through August on wood to burn. Better lay in a supply.

E. F. Seifert returned last week from his trip up the valley where he has been visiting his parents.

A new story will begin in The News next week. "The Red Trail" by Gustave Aimard. Read it.

Miss Clara Templeton who has been acting as central in the Pacific States office has gone to Hood River.

Next Saturday is the Grange picnic at Watt's grove. One of the best times of the season is promised.

Miss Rita Bailey of Salem is the guest of Mrs. John E. Bailey and will make a visit of about six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Harmon who have been visiting at the home of John E. Bailey have returned to their home in Seattle.

Mr. Schofield, who lives on the Gales Creek road, is carrying his arm in a sling as a result of a runaway he had the other day.

James McClaren, one of the oldest pioneers of Gales Creek and a wealthy farmer of that section, was doing business in this city yesterday.

Tom Todd was transacting business in town Tuesday incidentally making this office a pleasant call and renewing his subscription to The News.

Evan Ranes, who is in the employ of the Marshal-Wells Hardware Company along with Nibbs Wirtz is in the city visiting with his mother.

W. R. Harris and his brother, Rev. W. B. Harris of Rockford Ill., have returned from an outing and will go to Seaside for another sojourn.

Miss Bessie Stoetzel of Murphy, Idaho, is here the guest of A. G. Hoffman. Miss Stoetzel is book-keeper for a lumber concern in Idaho.

Chester Fletcher left last evening for Pueblo, Col., where he is instructor in modern languages in the High School of which his brother is principal.

Mrs. W. B. Haines, who has been at Newport for several weeks, is at the home of her parents at Philomath seriously ill. Mr. Haines is at her bedside.

Cy Fowler's daughter, Cora, was brought home with the typhoid fever Tuesday from Anna Cortz, Wash. Yesterday it was thought she was some better.

Mr. Austin T. Buxton, Worthy Master of the Oregon State Grange, wife and two small sons spent Friday and Saturday nights with Mrs. Holm returning to their home at Forest Grove Sunday.—North Yamhill Record.

Ed Davidson and Jim Hall came up from Southern Oregon, the first of the week and have been visiting at the home of Prof. LaFrane. Mr. and Mrs. Hall left Tuesday for their home in Grants Pass where he has a position with the railroad. Ed Davidson's home is in Jacksonville, where he runs a big ranch.

Ivan Roy Curtiss, the second son of Wm K. Curtiss, fell from a load of hay a few days ago and sustained a broken arm by the fall. Carl, his brother and his father were hauling hay and the wagon ran over a stump and Roy was tossed up into the air and to the ground. He is still carrying his arm in a sling.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Walker and Misses Elda and Leva have returned from their outing at Newport and report a very pleasant time. Misses Elda and Leva will leave in about two weeks for the University of Nebraska where they both have responsible positions as instructors in the botanical department, for which the Nebraska institution is noted.

Len Morley and his brother Will, who is employed on the new bank building, will leave the first of September for their old home in Wisconsin for a visit with their mother and other relatives. "Shorty" has some stalwart brothers in the east and he thinks likely that Oregon's population will be increased somewhat by his visit to the east.

Oscar Love ripped his right leg just above the knee quite badly while threshing for Krebs near Greenville Tuesday afternoon by catching the member on the sack hooks of the separator. He had been working on the separator and gave a leap but did not quite clear the machine catching his leg on the hook. He came to town and had Dr. Brown dress the wound.

A crowd of boys consisting of Chet Johnson, Ora Fields, Clarence Parker, Carl Christian, Harve Baldwin and Trumbull went over to Newport last Saturday returning Monday. They were joined at Carlton by Carl Michaux and every one of the bunch was clad in red sweaters and when they arrived at the coast were bradred the red sweater brigade.

Levi Walker returned last week from the government survey he has been making in the Cascade Mountains about 12 miles southeast of Gates. Mr. Walker reports that country very rich in minerals and some fine strikes are being made in lead. Gordon Clapp, Albert Kirkwood and August Wagner did work for Mr. Walker on the survey.

Mr. Thos. Emrick arrived from Forest Grove this morning with a load of men who have been employed by the Wakefield Company, contractors on construction of the railroad. Mr. Emrick will make regular trips by this route, by which method it is hoped by the contractor to secure enough men to fill the present pressing need.—Tillamook Herald.

John Vondehey's farm of 34 acres and located 1 1/2 miles north of Forest Grove has been sold to I. C. Nealeigh of Hood River and R. A. Phelps of the same place has purchased J. H. Herb's ranch of 40 acres near Greenville. Both of these families have lived at Hood River for the past seven years and this community is to profit by the apple country's loss. Both sales were made through the Oregon Land Company.

Frank Miller, the renowned aeronaut who sent his boy, the Russian, up at Hillsboro the Fourth, came out with Zeno the snake charmer, Sunday, and had Ira Bradley take them on over to Tillamook where they will do stunts or the people during the fair. Miller is reported as saying that he did not go over on the boat from Portland because he was afraid to load all the gold on the boat he intends taking away from the land of cheese for fear of sinking the craft.

E. I. Kuratli of Hillsboro and ex-recorder of conveyances was in the city yesterday on business. He found time to call at The News office.

Ed Davidson and Jim Hall came up from Southern Oregon, the first of the week and have been visiting at the home of Prof. LaFrane. Mr. and Mrs. Hall left Tuesday for their home in Grants Pass where he has a position with the railroad. Ed Davidson's home is in Jacksonville, where he runs a big ranch.

Ivan Roy Curtiss, the second son of Wm K. Curtiss, fell from a load of hay a few days ago and sustained a broken arm by the fall. Carl, his brother and his father were hauling hay and the wagon ran over a stump and Roy was tossed up into the air and to the ground. He is still carrying his arm in a sling.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Walker and Misses Elda and Leva have returned from their outing at Newport and report a very pleasant time. Misses Elda and Leva will leave in about two weeks for the University of Nebraska where they both have responsible positions as instructors in the botanical department, for which the Nebraska institution is noted.

Len Morley and his brother Will, who is employed on the new bank building, will leave the first of September for their old home in Wisconsin for a visit with their mother and other relatives. "Shorty" has some stalwart brothers in the east and he thinks likely that Oregon's population will be increased somewhat by his visit to the east.

Oscar Love ripped his right leg just above the knee quite badly while threshing for Krebs near Greenville Tuesday afternoon by catching the member on the sack hooks of the separator. He had been working on the separator and gave a leap but did not quite clear the machine catching his leg on the hook. He came to town and had Dr. Brown dress the wound.

A crowd of boys consisting of Chet Johnson, Ora Fields, Clarence Parker, Carl Christian, Harve Baldwin and Trumbull went over to Newport last Saturday returning Monday. They were joined at Carlton by Carl Michaux and every one of the bunch was clad in red sweaters and when they arrived at the coast were bradred the red sweater brigade.

Levi Walker returned last week from the government survey he has been making in the Cascade Mountains about 12 miles southeast of Gates. Mr. Walker reports that country very rich in minerals and some fine strikes are being made in lead. Gordon Clapp, Albert Kirkwood and August Wagner did work for Mr. Walker on the survey.

Mr. Thos. Emrick arrived from Forest Grove this morning with a load of men who have been employed by the Wakefield Company, contractors on construction of the railroad. Mr. Emrick will make regular trips by this route, by which method it is hoped by the contractor to secure enough men to fill the present pressing need.—Tillamook Herald.

John Vondehey's farm of 34 acres and located 1 1/2 miles north of Forest Grove has been sold to I. C. Nealeigh of Hood River and R. A. Phelps of the same place has purchased J. H. Herb's ranch of 40 acres near Greenville. Both of these families have lived at Hood River for the past seven years and this community is to profit by the apple country's loss. Both sales were made through the Oregon Land Company.

Frank Miller, the renowned aeronaut who sent his boy, the Russian, up at Hillsboro the Fourth, came out with Zeno the snake charmer, Sunday, and had Ira Bradley take them on over to Tillamook where they will do stunts or the people during the fair. Miller is reported as saying that he did not go over on the boat from Portland because he was afraid to load all the gold on the boat he intends taking away from the land of cheese for fear of sinking the craft.

E. I. Kuratli of Hillsboro and ex-recorder of conveyances was in the city yesterday on business. He found time to call at The News office.

Feel Like New.

Iron-Tone benefits the first day and makes you feel like new in a week.

For Sale by all Druggists. Price 50 cents. Let us send you our little booklet, "Renew Your Vitality," which tells you what IRON-TONE is and what it will do. You can have it for the asking.

Address GROVER MEDICINE CO., Woodburn, Ore.

Behnke-Walker

THE LEADING BUSINESS COLLEGE
ELKS BUILDING, PORTLAND, OREGON

THE BEST IS NONE TOO GOOD FOR YOU

One is one of the ten largest business colleges in the United States. Enrollment, past year, 842 pupils. Equipment, $12,000. Graduates are all employed. Placed 351 pupils into lucrative positions during past year. We will place you when competent.

H. W. BEHNKE, Pres. SEND FOR CATALOGUE I. M. WALKER, Pres.

Ed Davidson and Jim Hall came up from Southern Oregon, the first of the week and have been visiting at the home of Prof. LaFrane. Mr. and Mrs. Hall left Tuesday for their home in Grants Pass where he has a position with the railroad. Ed Davidson's home is in Jacksonville, where he runs a big ranch.

Ivan Roy Curtiss, the second son of Wm K. Curtiss, fell from a load of hay a few days ago and sustained a broken arm by the fall. Carl, his brother and his father were hauling hay and the wagon ran over a stump and Roy was tossed up into the air and to the ground. He is still carrying his arm in a sling.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Walker and Misses Elda and Leva have returned from their outing at Newport and report a very pleasant time. Misses Elda and Leva will leave in about two weeks for the University of Nebraska where they both have responsible positions as instructors in the botanical department, for which the Nebraska institution is noted.

Len Morley and his brother Will, who is employed on the new bank building, will leave the first of September for their old home in Wisconsin for a visit with their mother and other relatives. "Shorty" has some stalwart brothers in the east and he thinks likely that Oregon's population will be increased somewhat by his visit to the east.

Oscar Love ripped his right leg just above the knee quite badly while threshing for Krebs near Greenville Tuesday afternoon by catching the member on the sack hooks of the separator. He had been working on the separator and gave a leap but did not quite clear the machine catching his leg on the hook. He came to town and had Dr. Brown dress the wound.

A crowd of boys consisting of Chet Johnson, Ora Fields, Clarence Parker, Carl Christian, Harve Baldwin and Trumbull went over to Newport last Saturday returning Monday. They were joined at Carlton by Carl Michaux and every one of the bunch was clad in red sweaters and when they arrived at the coast were bradred the red sweater brigade.

Levi Walker returned last week from the government survey he has been making in the Cascade Mountains about 12 miles southeast of Gates. Mr. Walker reports that country very rich in minerals and some fine strikes are being made in lead. Gordon Clapp, Albert Kirkwood and August Wagner did work for Mr. Walker on the survey.

Mr. Thos. Emrick arrived from Forest Grove this morning with a load of men who have been employed by the Wakefield Company, contractors on construction of the railroad. Mr. Emrick will make regular trips by this route, by which method it is hoped by the contractor to secure enough men to fill the present pressing need.—Tillamook Herald.

John Vondehey's farm of 34 acres and located 1 1/2 miles north of Forest Grove has been sold to I. C. Nealeigh of Hood River and R. A. Phelps of the same place has purchased J. H. Herb's ranch of 40 acres near Greenville. Both of these families have lived at Hood River for the past seven years and this community is to profit by the apple country's loss. Both sales were made through the Oregon Land Company.

Frank Miller, the renowned aeronaut who sent his boy, the Russian, up at Hillsboro the Fourth, came out with Zeno the snake charmer, Sunday, and had Ira Bradley take them on over to Tillamook where they will do stunts or the people during the fair. Miller is reported as saying that he did not go over on the boat from Portland because he was afraid to load all the gold on the boat he intends taking away from the land of cheese for fear of sinking the craft.

E. I. Kuratli of Hillsboro and ex-recorder of conveyances was in the city yesterday on business. He found time to call at The News office.

HOLLISTER'S
Rocky Mountain Tea Nuggets

A Busy Medicine for Busy People.
Brings Good Health and Renewed Vigor.
A Specific for Constipation, Indigestion, Liver and Kidney troubles, Pimples, Eczema, Impure Blood, Bad Breath, Sluggish Bowels, Headache and Backache. Its Rocky Mountain Tea in tablet form, 25 cents a box. Genuine made by HOLLISTER DRUG COMPANY, Madison, Wis.
GOLDEN NUGGETS FOR SALLOW PEOPLE

Wanted!

Farms to be listed with us

WHY?

Because we can sell them.
Because we advertise extensively.
Because we have inquiries from Eastern people who are coming to Oregon.
Because we have the customers and want to locate them in Washington County.

OREGON LAND CO.

GOFF BROS.

FOREST GROVE, OREGON

JAMES RASMUSEN

Dealer in
FLOUR and FEED

Forest Grove, Ore., Pacific Ave.