

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

Forest Grove, Oregon

Capital $ 25,000.00
Surplus 10,000.00
Resources 250,000.00

A General Banking Business Transacted

Directors: R. M. Dooly, J. E. Loomis, H. C. Wortman,
Frank E. Dooly, R. M. Dooly, Jr.

Pacific Art Studio FOREST GROVE, Ore

Under new Management

Post Card Photos, $1.00 Per Dozen

18 large Stamp Pictures 25 cents

Bring us your Amateur Work

ARCHIE BRYANT, Prop. Main Street

Dr. H. F. Leonard

OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN

PORTLAND, OR.
MOHAWK BLDG.
Phone Main 709

Laughlin Hotel
MONDAY
WEDNESDAY
FRIDAY

Forest Grove, Oregon

Statement of the Condition of

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF FOREST GROVE, OREGON

At Call of the Comptroller, August 22, 1907.

RESOURCES	LIABILITIES
Cash on hand and due from Banks.....95,321.99	Deposits.....224,208.01
United States Bonds.....25,000.00	Capital paid in.....25,000.00
Loans and discounts.....135,304.12	Surplus.....10,000.00
Bonds and Securities.....21,438.68	Undivided profits.....1,431.58
Premiums (U. S. Bonds).....825.00	Circulation.....25,000.00
Furniture and Fixtures.....3,348.80
Real Estate.....3,151.00
Due from U. S. Treas.....1,250.00
Total $285,639.59	Total 285,639.59

Correct attest: R. M. DOOLY, President

THE CITY

H. W. SPARKS, LOCAL EDITOR.

Banks is to have a saloon.

Trespass Notices for sale at this office.

Miss Lela Wagner was a Portland visitor Sunday.

Dr. Hines was in Portland Tuesday and Wednesday.

Charlie Miller was a Portland visitor one day last week.

A. G. Hoffman made a business trip to Portland yesterday.

Noah Baker of Hillside was doing business in this city yesterday.

H. H. Stuart's residence on south Fifth street is progressing nicely.

Cleo Milne has returned from Calgary, Canada, the first of the week.

People from all over the county are using 'The News' liner column. Read it.

Ira Purdin and daughter will leave today for the east for an extended visit.

Mrs. C. L. Large is visiting with the Doctor's mother in Portland this week.

Trespass Notices for sale at this office.

H. T. Botts, the mayor of Tillamook, was registered at the Laughlin last Monday.

—Money to loan on farm security. W. H. Hollis, Forest Grove.

Miss Grayce Ladd and Miss Bertie Johnson spent Sunday at the Spring Hill farm.

The News' liner column is growing in popularity because of its "pulling" power.

Wilton Miller and young Williams of Seattle, will be back to school again this year.

Mrs. Buxton of Portland, was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Sloan, last week.

Z. Wing has sold his place on Gales Creek to Will Douglas, and will move to California.

Mrs. S. Levy and Harry were visiting friends in the Rose City Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Marie Staehr of Portland spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. N. Staehr.

Miss Goldie Fields is home from Newport visiting her parents in the Watt District.

Grover Cleveland Rogers who formerly worked in this city is now working in Portland.

C. E. Bradley of the Experiment Station, was visiting friends in this city the first of the week.

Miss Livia E. Ferrin left today for Pendleton where she is instructor in Pendleton Academy.

S. G. Dorris of LaFayette, a relative of Dr. C. L. Large, was visiting with Doc one day this week.

The Misses Darling are camped in Harris' hop yard where they are stripping the bitter product.

Will Barrett brought a friend of his out from Annapolis and they are visiting "Bill's" parents in Hillsboro.

Paul Baker of Hillside who has been selling views and scopes at Astoria will attend Monmouth again this year.

Misses Anna and Belle Johnson have registered at St. Mary's Academy of Portland, which began last Monday.

Guy Via and wife and Dr. Via left early Saturday morning for Tillamook for a few day's outing. They returned Monday.

Mrs. W. B. Haines arrived home last Thursday from Philomath, where she has been quite sick. She is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Thompson and granddaughter, Maud Hollinger, left Wednesday for a visit of several weeks in Seattle.

A new combination wood and gas range is being installed in the Ladies' new Dormitory by Goff Bros., the hardware dealers.

Pete Peterson has sold his black driver to a party in Portland and it is understood that he got a good round figure for her.

Mr. Ross and family of Portland have moved to this city and are living on Fifth avenue.

—There will be a dance at the Skating Rink next Saturday night, September 11. Walker's Orchestra will furnish the music.

Fred Laughlin, a cousin of Bedford Laughlin, who lives in Stockton, California, was visiting with his majesty, the mayor, last week.

Miss Camilla Abernethy returned last week from her vacation. The family have been at their summer home in Coos county.

Misses Lucile and Bess Dooley returned home Thursday from St. Paul and other Minnesota points, after spending a delightful vacation.

Arthur J. Prideaux who is head of the Commercial Department of Willamette University, was visiting friends in this city Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Fannie Clark and her son Frankie, were in from Thatcher the first of the week and said that they would soon return to the Grove.

Way Humphrey and wife who went to Nebraska a few months ago, have returned to Oregon with the intention of making Forest Grove their home.

Willard Wirtz who is reporter on the Journal will attend the Oregon Law School this winter and also retain his position with the Portland publication.

—There will be a dance at the Skating Rink next Saturday night, September 11. Walker's Orchestra will furnish the music.

All members of the Women's Club wishing to join the Shakespear department will meet at Mrs. L. L. Watt's tomorrow, Friday, at 3 o'clock.

H. D. Logan and family of Sunnyvale, Calif., have moved into the Caldwell residence and will reside here during the winter if not permanently.

C. Franklin Koch of Portland, brought one of his prospective students out to see the college Saturday and has a "string" of them he will lead out next week.

Mrs. Helen Hartke, aged 67 years, died Saturday last at her home near Gaston and was interred in the cemetery there. Her husband died about twenty years ago.

Haskell Ferrin and brother, Holman, who have been working at the Gearhart Hotel this summer, have returned home to get ready for school which begins next Wednesday.

Anderson Baber of Hillside made this office a very pleasant call Monday and renewed his subscription to The News as many others of our patrons continue to do every day.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Renshaw and little son of Portland together with a couple of friends from San Francisco visited at Mrs. Renshaw's parents Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Clark last Sunday.

J. H. Lee and wife have moved to this city. He will take the place of Brakeman Clark who recently died suddenly when just about to make the run on the local train to Portland.

All club women who are interested in having a study class to take the complete program course—the coming are requested to meet with Mrs. John Abbott next Saturday at 4 p. m.

Misses Maud Buxton and Bessie Stewart, who are students at the Good Samaritan Hospital are in the city visiting at the home of Miss Buxton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Buxton.

A. C. Schofield brought a collection of apples to this office Tuesday that for size and perfection beat anything we've ever seen. They were raised on Mr. Staver's place on Gales Creek.

L. Aurburn and wife of Denver, Colorado, who have been touring the country for some weeks will arrive in this city some time this week for a visit with the Abrahams who are relatives of Mrs. Aurburn.

Dal Adams, whose parents live north of Cornelius, and who attended Tualatin Academy here, left this morning for Ann Harbor, to take a four years' course in the medical department of the University of Michigan.

Clarence Allen, who attended Pacific University last year and who was elected editor-in-chief of The Index which sheet the local editor of The News was chief pencil pusher last year, is now at Stanford University.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitney, Mrs. J. A. Thornburgh of this city and Mrs. Mary Gillis of Portland, left yesterday for Grand Ledge, Michigan, for a three months' stay. Mr. Whitney has not been back to his old home for twenty-one years.

Mrs. Antona Vandenberg, the wife of John Vandenberg, died last Friday at her home in Centerville. She was born in Holland 72 years ago. The funeral was conducted from the Catholic church with interment in the Verboort cemetery.

The Lutheran people of Cornelius are building a splendid church building in the town which will be a credit to the place. It is very likely that the building will be ready for dedication in six weeks. W. Bierman and Fred Harris are doing the work.

Thomas Ryrie, a traveling man whose home is in San Francisco, was in the city Tuesday making the town for dry goods. He intimated that it would be a hard matter to make it for wet goods and thought Forest Grove was one of the prettiest towns on the coast, and we think he is right.

Joe Gans, the charcoal fighter handed Jimmy Britt a crate of lemons and a few choice jolts Monday when the two met in the ring in San Francisco. Britt was totally outclassed and went out in the fifth round with a feigned broken wrist.

—Mrs. M. McKenzie has opened a millinery store in the Marsh building near the Postoffice and will have her fall opening next Thursday and Friday, September 19 and 20, to which she invites the Ladies of Forest Grove and vicinity.

The young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miller who live about a mile south of the depot, fell on a rake tooth yesterday and cut a bad gash in her knee. Dr. Hines was called and was obliged to take several stitches in order to close the wound.

W. P. Wagner, the genial Oregonian solicitor and his wife have just returned to Tillamook County where they have been attending the fair. "Pete" has taken unto himself a slice of Uncle Sam's domain and while he was over to the coast he proved up. He has a good piece of timber.

J. W. Taylor, a laborer of Hillsboro all but lost his life in the Hazelwood fire in Portland Monday morning. Taylor was working on the third floor and did not notice the fire till the flames drove him to a window as the only avenue of escape. He leaped for life with a only a severe jar as a result.

E. C. Wasson of Clanton, Illinois, has begun work for Mr. Davis in his shop on First Avenue South. Davis is one of the best mechanics and he is able to do work that would make many of the profession blush. He has a transit in his shop that he made himself out of old scraps of material and it does very accurate work too.

Preaching at the Congregational Church next Sunday morning by Prin. Bates. At 7:30 p. m. the services will consist of a program on the missionary work among the islands of the Pacific, presented by the Ladies' Missionary Society. Sunday School at 10 a. m. Endeavor meeting at 6:30 p. m. Prayer Meeting Thursday evening at 7:30.

—W. E. Bowman has moved his harness shop into the building next to M. Peterson & Son's hardware store. 9-3t

—Ladies' white canvas oxfords in the latest styles at Bailey's.

Quite a number of our citizens have taken advantage of Elier's ad sale on pianos during the past week. Seven have purchased beautiful new pianos and we are proud to note that Forest Grove and community is taking an active interest in one of the greatest accomplishments and also giving the younger generation a chance to develop their talent in the music study. Following is a list of those who have purchased up to the present date: Miss Grace Dixon, purchased a beautiful sweet-toned Clarendon in a Mahogany case; Prof. Wilkinson, a style R., Hobart M. Cable, in a new Colonial mahogany case; Mrs. H. Dixon, a handsome Clarendon in a style 'M' walnut case; Mr. Ed Fisher a Jacob Doll, in a beautiful C X inlaid walnut case, upright Grand size; Mr. Robert Alexander, a Schumann, style G, in a handsome mahogany case, Exposition style front; Mr. Shipley, a Marshal & Wendall in a beautiful Golden Oak case, style L. Hollenbeck & Shipman, who have charge of the sale here, report they are pleased with the interest taken in this line and will have four more samples of standard makes of pianos in this week. They hope to be able to place ten pianos here on the advertising list. The sale and free concerts are being held every evening at the Bazaar store.

Fall Clothing is Here

I have just laid in one of the best lines of Fall Clothing for

Men, Boys and Youths

This season's styles are beauties and will satisfy the most fastidious. This is the best place to buy your new suit for fall and winter.

John Anderson,
THE TAILOR.

Nice Cool Dress Goods

Dimity and lawns of all kinds. A new shipment of trimmings, the very best that money will buy. Laces and embroideries.

Big stock of

SUMMER SHOES

Also the finest line of groceries in town. Everything guaranteed or your money refunded. Get your fruit jars—Mason and Economy—from us.

ABRAHAM BROS

Forest Grove - - - Oregon

Now is the time to do your plowing. Ground plowed at this time of the year is as good as summer fallow. You can do it easier and better with a Disc Plow and have your grain sowed before you could start with the Walking Plow. We carry the two best plows made. Call and see them. We also handle the TRIUMPH SULKY and GANG PLOWS, JOHN DERE WALKING PLOWS, J. I. CASE HARROWS, HOOSIER DRILLS and everything in the line of implements for working your land to the best advantage.

The Sanders and Benecia Hancock

GOFF BROS.

FOREST GROVE, OREGON
The Progressive Store

JAMES RASMUSEN

Dealer in
FLOUR and FEED
Forest Grove, Ore., - - - Pacific Ave.

Behnke Walker

The Leading Business College

ELKS BUILDING, PORTLAND, OREGON

Our faculty is stronger than ever

We have just secured the services of two high-salaried, practical men, as well as leading business educators, from the East. We leave no stone unturned. We are now giving you the best that money can procure.

H. W. BEHNKE, Pres. SEND FOR CATALOGUE J. M. WALKER, Prin.