If you want to see the finest garden truck going, call and see M. Mickle.

We had the pleasure of a visit from the condenser man last week. Come again soon and tell us some more good things.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Farthing and daughter, Lulu, left Friday for their home in Ontario. We hope too see them back.

Mr. E. Goff has lately installed a separator in his new barn. He wants the milk to raise his thoroughbred Holstein calves.

The farmers have been building straw sheds. This is a move in the right direction, we want our straw in the manure pile.

Mr. B. Goff had to take his steam boiler to Cornelius last week to have a new flue put in. He has been digging a new well in the canyon and fixing up his water works, a small gasoline engine does the work.

Mr. John Loznes has been making the wood fly the past week. He has his new sawing outfit set in G. Lilly's slashing and is now fitting up a drag saw to cut large timber. We all wish him success as a wood sawing outfit is a boon to the farmers.
