Advertised Shoes and Prices Made by Manufacturer

I am perfectly willing to give Douglas and Dr. Reed company credit for having a better shoe reputation than I have and by letting Forest Grove and Washington Co. people know that I handle their shoes. I know their name is going to help me as those names stand at the head of the shoe world. IT WILL HELP ANY CONSUMER OF SHOES. I don't care who he is. I suppose I am as well known in Washington county for fair, square dealing as any merchant and I am not so conceited as to think that others do not make good shoes but I do know that after over forty years in handling shoes that I have the best shoes in Washington Co. for the

Nerve Force

If you are nervous, easily "unstrung" or excitable, you should take Iron-Tone. It creates good, steady nerve force.

For Sale by all Druggists. Price 50 cents. Let us send you our little booklet, "Renew Your Vitality," which tells you what IRON-TONE is and what it will do. You can have it for the asking.

Address GROVER MEDICINE CO., Woodburn, Ore.

Mrs. Broadhead, a friend of the Meresses, passed through here Sunday en route to her home in Tillamook.

Alfred Wheelock, a cousin of the local editor, was in this city Sunday visiting friends. He is a graduate of the Oregon Law school and has offices in Portland.

Carroll Morelock and his sister Miss Reva came up from their home at Beaverton Monday and Carroll registered in the Academy. Miss Reva has been attending college at Newberg.

That Rube Sanders' young son has considerable of his dad's blood coursing through his veins was evident the other day when a chap about twice his size piled on him, and got handed the Indian sign.

Oscar Baldwin is a mechanical genius as a look at the furniture and fixings of his confectionery will demonstrate. The desk, shelves, mount for the large mirror, shows the work of a mechanic.

Charles Odell sold a house and two lots located on corner of 4th street and 5th Avenue to Mr. P. Watson of Gaston, consideration $775. Sale was made by Staehr & Verhoeven, the Forest Grove Real Estate Co.

Carl Nicholson returned last Saturday from Tillamook, where he went a few days ago with Hugh Smith's team. Nick brought back a load of salmon or rather started with them and had them all sold before reaching here.

Walter Roseworm has purchased several hundred cords of wood from C. D. Vaughn of Thatcher, and now he will endeavor to keep the town folks warm instead of cool as was his mission last summer when he peddled ice.

R. M. Stevens of this city, was showing some samples of eastern Washington apples which for size and quality beats anything we have seen by several points. Mr. Stevens has been visiting a brother there and has just returned.

The body of Wm. Allen, who died at the St. Vincent Hospital last week of brain fever, was brought to this city Saturday and taken on over to Vernonia for burial Monday. He was the son of W. W. Sessman of that place. He was twenty years of age and was born in Michigan.

P. W. Cronin and wife came in from their ranch near Scoggins Valley Tuesday for a visit with their daughters, Mrs. N. L. Atkins and Miss Alice Cronin. Mr. Cronin has returned to the farm but Mrs. Cronin will remain for a fortnight.

Mistakes will happen in the best of families. On the sale bills of P. W. Watkins we omitted that he will sell 19 hogs and a two-year old colt, on the old A. H. Johnson place three and one-half miles southeast of Gaston, Wednesday, Oct. 9.

"A Life Motive," will be the theme next Sunday evening at the Christian church, the first discourse in a series to the young. The morning theme will be, "Church Government and Discipline" from a Bible standpoint. All are cordially invited to these services.

There is joy in the camp of the foot ball men of P. U. because of the return of Harry Humphrey the full back and punter of last year. It was thought for a while that he would not return and the fellows were casting anxiously about for a man to fill his place just as he appeared on the scene Saturday.

Prof. Boggess filled the Methodist pulpit Sunday in the absence of Rev. Gould who attended the conference in Portland and Prof. Taylor preached in the evening.

Miss Briggs who has been with the mechanical department of The News during the summer is now at her home in Dilley and will probably attend school this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Martzel of Portland spent Sunday at the home of the Allen family on Fifth street. They started yesterday for an extensive trip to Chicago and eastern cities.

We desire to thank the citizens of Forest Grove and especially the fire department for their interest in protecting our home at the recent fire during our absence.—J. H. Webby and Family.

J. P. Vanderzanden who has leased the City Restaurant has been a resident of this city for several years and is a native of this county. This city can bank on him putting up a good meal and it is fortunate in having a restaurant run by a local man rather than by floating individuals.

Miss Lydia Bachele of Gaston was recently married to John Dames of the same place. The bride has lived at Gaston for the past five years and the groom two years. They will make Gaston their home. Rev. Eberling of Gales performed the wedding ceremony.

The local auxiliary to the Christian Woman's Board of Missions will have its regular monthly meeting at the Christian Church Tuesday, Oct. 8, at 3 p. m. Subject for consideration, "Our Schools". Mrs. Clara Moore, leader. An invitation is extended to all Christian women.

Mrs. Dunning, who has been an invalid at her home at the east end of Second avenue for several years, left yesterday for the Old Ladies' Home at Portland. She has considerable money and made arrangements with the Home to care for her in her old age.

To do one thing and do it well is more to be desired and is of more benefit to humanity than to do many things and none of them equal to the best. Dr. Lowe confines his practice to the human eye. Consult him and you consult a genuine specialist with eighteen years experience. See him at Hillsboro October 7; Forest Grove 8 and 9.

Next Tuesday and Wednesday, October 8 and 9, Dr. Lowe the well known oculist-optician will be at Hotel Laughlin. Dr. Lowe has been coming to Forest Grove for more than sixteen years and by his skill, honesty and integrity has built up a large and lucrative business here. This will be his last trip here this year. 13-1

Ernest Reuter has been made foreman of the Forbes farm near Dilley. He will supervise the orchards, the rest of the land having been rented. Fifty acres are in prunes, seven in English walnuts and some in filberts. Mr. Reuter has been visiting and studying the large orchards over the Willamette valley and his experience on David's Hill with his father ably fits him for the work.

Messrs. Rice of St. Johns and Jean Comstock of Michigan visited with their old friend, J. W. Sherwood of this city a few days ago. They enjoyed recalling old times in Michigan. A few years ago Mrs. Sherwood said that she would give most anything to see a Michigan dog run through their back yard but now if she were in that state she would probably give more to see an Oregon canine trot through their yard.

A pleasant surprise party was given Saturday in honor of Miss Beryl Ritchie by a few of her friends. Different games were played after which a lunch was served. Those present were Amy, Gertrude and Irene Sappington, Ellen Wilhelmson, Salome Sias, Beth Emerson, Margaret Morgan, Edna Rasmussen, Gertrude and Helen Deckert, Nancy and Herman Moore, Dale Abraham, Esther Veable and Gertrude Allen.

Charles Hallberg and Charles Nelson of Ada, two butchers who have just sold out their business in Ada, Idaho, were in this city Tuesday. They are looking over the towns in Western Oregon with a view of locating here. "Ada is a town of six thousand people and has a large beet factory which is having splendid success," said Mr. Hall. He said that the people in Ada didn't pay as much attention to the Haywood trial as the people removed thousands of miles.

—Hoffman & Allen Co. are agents for the famous Butterick patterns.

—Girl 14 or 15 years of age wanted to work for board and go to school. Good home. Inquire at this office.

—Dr. Lowe, the well known oculist-optician, will be in Forest Grove, October 8 and 9.
