To Our Friends & Customers of the FOREST GROVE SHOE STORE

You certainly have and are giving me a very liberal patronage for which I desire to extend my heartfelt thanks and I assure you that in the future as in the past will do my best to give you a fine assortment of shoes as can be found in any town twice the size of Forest Grove.

PRICES SHALL BE AS LOW AS GOOD GOODS CAN BE SOLD.

You must understand that we are now living in an age of the most prosperous times in the history of our country and work and material is all on the high wave as labor is, so you will find prices a little higher than five years ago.

To make it as easy as possible we sell you shoes without any extra expense doing our own labor.

Come and see us this fall or any other old time it will do you good as well as us.

Should be glad to have you make yourselves at home in our store. It's a pleasant place to rest a few moments. We are proud of our little store of a five year's growth and will be pleased to have you if not already a customer, a customer of the

E. M. Bower of Independence, has bought a twenty acre farm near Thatcher from J. M. Haynie, consideration $1300. The sale was made by Staehr & Verhoeven.

Otto Fields of Walla Walla is here visiting his father and brothers. Since he went up there a few months ago the fort city has had a boom and now has eight street cars making the town.

D. S. Pierce of Gales Creek made The News office a pleasant call last week and incidentally dropped a bunch of Spitzenberg apples into our basket. They were very choice fruit.

G. W. McGraw was in from Banks Wednesday and reports that he will on November 1st open up a first class feed store in that place. He will install a feed chopper and carry all kinds of feed stuffs.

M. P. Hoffman and wife of Redding Iowa who have been at Red Lodge during the summer for his health are expected here this week for a visit with Mr. Hoffman's nephews, A. G. and J. N. Hoffman.

A. G. Hoffman has recently set out over 2500 strawberry plants at his home at the corner of Second avenue and Main street and says that he is now trying to engage pickers for next season.

Doctor C. L. Large reports that the son born to the wife of Billy Long of South Park, has a couple of incisors well developed. This is the first case of its kind he has ever seen in his many trips with the stork. The babe has other teeth which have started.

At the Congregational church next Sunday—Preaching in the morning by the pastor. In the evening an address by Mrs. Hoge on "Ideas and Force Embodied in the Church Building." At this service there will be special music. All are cordially invited.

Philip Hoodenpyle, who has relatives at Gaston, and who was contemplating moving to that place soon was shot in the breast by a fellow hunter, Philip Johnson, while out for Chinese birds the first day of the season at Newberg. The gun went off accidentally and filled Hoodenpyle full of bird shot from the neck down the breast, but the wounds were not serious.

H. H. Belt, Supt. of the Yamhill County schools, was in this city Monday and stated that the McMinnville Fair was a decided success from every standpoint. Never before even at a Fourth of July celebration, said he, has there been such a large crowd in McMinnville at one time as on the banner day of the fair. The displays of the schools were splendid.

J. H. Ackerman, State Superintendent of Education, Miss Cornelia Marvin, Secretary of the State Library and H. H. Belt Supt. of the Yamhill County schools, left this city Tuesday morning for Tillamook, via the stage, where they will attend the Annual Teachers' Institute of Tillamook county. Mr. Belt has recently been appointed to fill the vacancy of the late Supt. of Yamhill county. Previous to that he was principal of the North Yamhill public school.

Miss Broad gave a very interesting stereopticon lecture at the Congregational Church last week. She spoke of the work under the Southern Cross at Madagascar and South Africa. The work that the missionaries has had a mighty influence upon the people of these places and the converts are spreading the gospel to the interior of the country. Miss Broad had some excellent views which added materially to her lecture. A small but appreciative audience was present.

Judge and Mrs. W. H. Hollis have rented the Mrs. Dunning place on Second Avenue between Sixth and Seventh and went to housekeeping today.

Miss Hazel Aldrich is now a hello girl at the Hughes office and Miss Hattie Krieder is clerking for George Pateffon.

Yesterday, at Col. Haynes' hop-yard, the Shipley baler broke the record, by baling forty-five 200 lb. bales of hops in ten hours.

The first regular meeting of the Woman's Club will be held next Monday, the 14, at the Cong. church parlors. All members are urged to be present as there is important business to transact.

Rev. H. W. Boyd and family returned from the east last week and are again in the parsonage on First avenue south. The family visited friends in Massachusetts while Rev. Boyd was abroad with his brother.

A special from Tacoma to one of the Portland papers of this week states that Mrs. George Bond has been brought back to that city by her husband and that they were extremely reticent as to the escapade of Wagley and Mrs. Bond.

The sale of P. W. Watkins, held Wednesday at Caston under the auctioneers' hammer of Web Hughes, was one of the most successful sales held in that part of the country. There was a big crowd, prices went well and everybody had a good time. Some of the cows sold as high as $82.

Philip French sold his beautiful farm near Dilley the first of the week to G. W. Russell recently of Everett, Wash., where he conducted a shingle mill. The farm comprises 35 acres of rich land and fruit orchard and is a fine home. Consideration $4,150. Loren Porter of Dilley made the sale. Mr. French will probably move to this city.

Pete Peterson was out from Portland the first of the week looking after business interests here. He gave us his address in Portland and said to be sure to send The News as he wishes to keep posted on the doings in Washington County and especially Forest Grove. He is working for Mason Ehrman Company, but will return to this city in the spring to run his brick yard.

Saturday was an unlucky day for the P. U. foot-ball team. Waterman and Williams got severe, but not altogether mysterious, jolts on the head which rendered them unconscious for some time and James Ward had his knee wrenched so badly that he was confined to his room all day Sunday and had to hobble around on crutches the forepart of the week. Last year the total of injuries did not aggregate those of Saturday and possibly they have received theirs for the entire year. We hope so.

Miss Cornelia Marvin gave an address before a body of people at the Free Rest and Reading Room Monday evening and spoke very gratifyingly of our library. "A library," said Miss Marvin, "should not be merely a collection of books and papers but should be a town center where people should gather and debate on questions of interest and then there should be reading circles." The library needs new books on travel, biography and fiction. In some towns the different organizations, lodges, clubs and circles have donated sums which has caused keen rivalry and thus builded up the library. The Grangers have volumes in the library for reference and the Woman's Club of this city intend contributing a set of Chataqua books.
