One thousand million dollars has been squeezed out of the stocks of this country, and it is estimated that there are many millions more yet to be squeezed out.

Jonathan Bourne, Oregon's senator "at large," has offered a prize of $1000 for the best argument why President Roosevelt should accept a third term.

Nothing like old age to knock the life out of a man. One man has never been equal to the old-fashioned country hams.

The most wearisome cross of religion is the poor preacher. Everyone who will stand it can expect to be imposed upon.

Woman is never made vain by what she wears; that is man's work. There is no sweetness in the smile that smiles alike for everybody.

The right that the poor never fail to prize is the right of criticism. It is said every thin woman who complains about fat women lacing.

How respectful some men are to their wives! And how rude the same men are to their friends!

There are a good many schemers in town. Why should you work for nothing for a schemer?

Some people say that working down town does a girl more good than a term at an Eastern school.

Age fills out and rounds off a man's nose; but the older a woman gets, the sharper her nose becomes.

Here is a chance for some man to make fifty million dollars in a few minutes; marry Helen Gould.

A round-shouldered man is of great use in a community, for the sight of him makes others straighten up.

Don't fight the shams of the world too seriously; the sham will wear you out, and live long after you are dead.

When a man says to you, "I want to show you something," the something he shows you is seldom interesting.

It sometimes happens that people bear sorrow bravely because they are so cold blooded they don't feel it deeply.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES.

BRITA MACRUM, Editor. NELLIE JOHNSON, Asst. Editor.

Mrs. Boyd visited the school one day last week.

Mrs. Foster visited in Miss Foster's room Friday.

The new room has just received a new stove, table, etc.

The members of the Ninth grade are very much interested in their Latin.

Have you seen the beautiful new flag floating over the school building?

We have one of the neatest and best little drummers in the person of Ross Kertson.

Mrs. Hoge, one of the directors, made an official visit to the school one day last week.

There will be three holidays next week, on account of the teachers' institute at Hillsboro.

Josephine Ward, of the Seventh grade, has gone to McMinnville to attend the Sisters' school there.

Rev. Boyd spoke to the upper grades Monday morning, on his trip to Europe. His talk was enjoyed very much.

There will be a meeting of the literary society Friday afternoon at 2:45. This being the first meeting the program will necessarily be short.

The base ball game between our boys and the Hillsboro public school team did not materialize last Saturday, for the reason that the Hillsboro boys did not come.

The shelves, formerly used for a library, will be taken from the cloak room and placed in the third grade room, where all books for the primary grades will be kept.

H. W. Sparks of The News, entertained the upper grades Tuesday morning with some interesting character sketches. The drawing and explanations of the characters provoked much laughter.

The following pupils were enrolled in the various rooms during the week: Second grade, Edward Beal; Third grade, Pearl Griffin; Fourth grade, Margaret Marsh, Dorothy Joy, Charley Griffin and Mattie Griffin; Seventh grade, Roy Linden; Eighth grade, Ray Joy.

Painting Exhibit.

The Loan Exhibition of Paintings by Great American Artists to be held in Marsh Hall Nov. 8 and 9 promises to be an event of unusual interest.

By the generous co-operation of Mrs. Wm. Ladd, I. N. Fleischner, Mrs. Henry E. Jones, H. C. Wortman and other prominent Portland citizens, over thirty paintings have been secured.

Such noted men as Geo. de Forest Brush, winner of the Hallgarten prize of $1000 in 1888 for his famous "Sculptor and the King;" Walcott, also a Hallgarten prize winner in 1902, Couse, celebrated for his Indian pictures, Talcott, Keith and others are represented.

The value of this collection is over $5000. One Keith, alone, cost its present owner $1000. This is the first time in the history of Oregon that one of her Universities has undertaken anything of the kind, and shows the high standards that Pacific University is trying to maintain.

Every citizen of Forest Grove as well as every student in the college should see this exhibition, as it is an education as well as a pleasure to be able to see such pictures. To defray the expense of transportation, insurance and cataloguing an admission fee of 25 cents will be charged—and the collection will be on exhibition afternoon and evening of the two days.

Woman's Club.

The first meeting of the Woman's Club of Forest Grove for the year 1907-08, was held in the Congregational church parlors on Monday afternoon.

An interesting program opened with an instrumental solo by Mrs. E. E. Williams, followed by an address by Mrs. Walter Hoge, president of the club, who spoke with much sincerity of feeling relative to the object of such an organization.

The outline of work as planned for the year was carefully considered and the hearty co-operation of all members was earnestly requested.

Leaders of various departments then spoke briefly of the work as outlined for study. The Shakespeare class continues its excellent work under the direction of Miss Mary Farnham. The first meeting as announced occurs Friday p. m. at 3 o'clock. Excellent opportunities are offered for a better acquaintance with good music in the class conducted by Mrs. E. E. Williams. A cordial invitation is extended to all who are truly interested. The first lesson will occur Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Hoge.

The new department and one that promises to be very popular, is the Domestic Science class. The first meeting was well attended at the home of Mrs. M. S. Allen Tuesday afternoon under the leadership of Mrs. A. T. Buxton.

The regular Chautauqua course of study will be followed by the class led by Mrs. H. Gould. Much pleasure and profit are anticipated in this department. The class will meet Saturday of each week.

The subject of an interesting discussion was "The Student Loan Fund" led by Miss Octavia Goldsworthy—a work directed by the Oregon Federation of Woman's Clubs. An interesting letter was read from Mrs. Sarah A. Evans of Portland, describing the plan adopted. Much interest was shown in this excellent scheme of assisting worthy young women to higher educational advantages and it is expected some action will be taken relative to this or some equally worthy object which the club hopes to be in a position to assist.

Six new members were admitted and in every way this first meeting of the year gives promise of future growth and prosperity.

Rev. Austin Rice who was formerly pastor of the Congregational church here, but who has been pastor of the First Congregational church in Walla Walla for several years, has accepted a call from a church in Massachusetts. Mr. Rice's pastorate here was one of his first charges, but he was recognized as an unusually strong man. At Walla Walla he has built up a strong church and he is held in high esteem by all the citizens of that place. Mr. Rice is a deep student, a splendid speaker, and a man. He has many friends in this city who sincerely regret to see him leave the northwest.

Judge J. M. Scott, president of the Oregon State Good Roads Ass'n., has called a meeting for Nov. 14 and 15 at the Portland Commercial Club. Samuel Hill, president of the Washington Good Roads Ass'n., will come with a special car from the Washington meeting Nov. 12 and 13 and bring with him a number of Canadian experts. A lantern slide lecture will be given by Hon. Samuel Lancaster, of the Good Roads Department at Washington.

Chas. Miller, Dr. Pollock and "Nimrod" Armentrout, returned from a hunting expedition in the Nehalem district Saturday. They report the slaughter of three deer.
