MODERN PHOTOGRAPHY has reached the dignity of Art. A few decades ago the Photographer's ambition was to secure "a good likeness." Now the demand is for not only a good likeness but an artistic picture in all its aspects as well. PACIFIC ART STUDIO fully meets the demands of the times and furnishes the Art required. Pacific Art Studio Forest Grove, Oregon

Miss Ida Stewart who is teaching near Gaston, visited relatives and friends at Hillsboro, Portland and Buxton Saturday and Sunday.

Ira Crawford of Buxton, has been on the sick list for several days past but is much improved now and able to be around again.

A. B. Thomas has purchased the place formerly occupied by Frank Bear on Third street from Mrs. Lydia E. Miles of Portland.

Ralph Dugan, who graduated with the June class of the Portland Dental College, has located at Independence and is doing splendidly.

Ray Giltner who has been working in a furniture establishment in Portland, has had to lay off a few days owing to a carbuncle on his right wrist.

A couple of fellows came near going over the road last week for hunting for Chinese pheasants on trespass grounds. It is well to beware of the "dog."

Archie Clark, who The News said last week was clerking in Hatfield's grocery, should have been C. R. Callaway's grocery, formerly the Nicholson & Son place of business.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thomas of Sheridan, were visiting at the home of the former's father A. B. Thomas in this city Sunday. Arthur is in the mercantile business in Sheridan.

Frank Johnson, a prosperous farmer living two miles west of town, was hauling his oats to this city the first of the week.

the week. Mr. Johnson is getting $30 a ton and says that $27 is the best price he ever got before. He has several tons of the product.

F. J. Miller, the hop man, has purchased four lots on Sixth Avenue in South Park and intends to put up a handsome dwelling there. Sale was made through Thomas & Hoge.

M. R. Wagner bought the two beautiful lots in South Park located east of Rev. Clapp's residence, consideration $300. Sale was made by Staehr & Verhoeven, the Forest Grove Real Estate Co.

S. E. Todd purchased yesterday from John E. Bailey a lot 100x100 feet of the new tract lately laid out on the east side of Fifth street. Consideration $300. Sale was made by Staehr & Verhoeven.

C. F. Fleck and wife of Colorado Springs, Colo., have come here to locate. Mr. Fleck formerly attended Pacific University and Mrs. Fleck is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Curtiss.

F. M. Starrett has sold his place on Fifth street to Mrs. M. J. Holloway of Grants Pass, who will take possession the first of the month. Mrs. Holloway is a sister of Sam Carlyle. Oregon Land Company made the sale.

The new passenger car for the local electric line arrived last Saturday from Salem and will be overhauled for special use. The traffic on the line is growing right along and on Sundays there is scarcely strap room.

W. D. Kenworthy and wife of Tacoma, J. D. Kenworthy and wife of Portland, Miss Minnie Buxton and her friend Miss Anna Peterson of Portland, left for their homes yesterday after several day's visit at the Sloan home.

Mr. Dickson, the noted evangelist singer and brother of Mrs. A. C. Alexander, has been helping in a series of meetings in New England with Dr. Chapman, and now he and Dr. Toy are in Canada doing religious work.

John Williams who formerly lived on the Smith place near the depot, but who resides in Yamhill county returned from the Alberta country a few days ago where he contested a claim and got it. He will move his family up in the spring.

Mr. Ross, a brother-in-law of Alvin Brown, who came to Oregon fifty years ago and then moved back to Missouri, and to Portland, Oregon again, is making a lot of improvements on his house at the corner of First street and Third avenue. He and family will soon move in.

Word from Walla Walla says that Ralph Dimmick, who formerly attended Pacific but is now captain of Whitman's football team, is in the game again after the serious injury he received the first of the season which was thought for a while would lay him off for the season.

A. C. Allen left school for his home at Beaverton yesterday with a dislocated rib which injury he received in the Oregon-Pacific game last Saturday. Allen did not notice the injury much at the time but it grew worse and has caused pleurisy of the lungs, so he will have to rest easy for awhile.

The dance given by the lady Macabees of Greenville at that place last Saturday evening drew one of the biggest crowds that has ever attended such functions at Greenville. The floor was so crowded that the dancers could hardly wobble. A big bunch went out from the Grove and report a fine time.

John Cornelius sold his farm Tuesday to a Mr. Thomas of Baker City, consideration $4200. The tract contains 85 acres and is located about eight miles northwest of town. Mr. Cornelius purchased the place two years ago, after leaving the livery business here. He proposes to stay in Washington County.

C. E. Lytle, general manager of the P. N. & R. R. and Frank Kane of Hillsboro, were in the city Wednesday and The News acknowledges a call. Mr. Lytle says this good weather has helped wonderfully towards construction work of their line and they hope by another season to run cars to Tillamook.

—Those having accounts at Dr. Hines Drug Store, that have been running for several months will please call and settle. 15t2

—The best meal in town at the City Restaurant. I was there and found it so. 13t4.

—Dr. C. L. Large reports a son born to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Olson of Gales Creek, the 18th inst. and a girl weighing 7 lbs. born to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kay of Dilley, the 20 inst. Parties wishing the attendance of Dr. Large in this class of cases, will greatly oblige him, if convenient, by engaging his services two or three months prior to the expected event. 14-5

A Mr. Carlton of Los Angeles, was here the first of the week and yesterday to see his cousin George Carlton, who was seriously burned here several weeks ago. Mr. Carlton was instructed by the family in New York to visit their brother at this place, but as yet the rich brothers have sent no money to George Carlton. He is at the Shogren home and is attended by two nurses.

Jack Latta's team of black's ran away Sunday. They started from the depot and ran with break neck speed up Fifth street and kept on going on their rampage until they had reached Sam Moulton's place on the Greenville road where they slacked up. Sam says that he didn't have to run his best to catch them so we assume they were not going a Kelley rate.

A. C. Davis of Patton Valley, held one of the most successful sales yesterday, at his place, ever held in that section. Every article under the hammer of J. W. Hughes, went at a good price. There was a good attendance and everybody was well pleased. Mr. and Mrs. Davis will shortly move to Roseburg where they own a chicken ranch. The News wishes them success.

John Cornelius came staggering into this office Monday under the load of an immense pumpkin. John promised the editor this pumpkin two years ago, but owing to our going east, it was not delivered then. Anyhow, he knew we'd be back, so he bore the pumpkin in mind. John whispered to us that he didn't raise it himself but was coming to town with prunes when he saw a dandy right up close to the fence and just borrowed it.

The Washington County Veterans' Association met in Hillsboro last Friday for their semi-annual encampment and a very good meeting is reported. They convened in the Methodist church and speeches were made by Revs. Belknap and Blake upon patriotism. Both of the speakers delivered capital addresses for which the G. A. R. were very grateful. Other speeches were made. It was decided to have the next semi-annual reunion in Cornelius.

Ed Boos is not going to be outdone by the shortage of cars if he has to go to Portland with a wheelbarrow and bring his feed stuff out in that sort of a conveyance. The first of the week Ed went to the Rose City and of course couldn't get any freight cars, so he went to the freight agent and told him to dig up some cattle cars. These obtained our feed dealer purchased a lot of tar paper and spent the day lining the cars so as to avert waiting for a month for transportation.

Our good friend John Templeton, attended the Smith & Jensen auction sale, out on the Thatcher road Tuesday and showed the boys how to bid at an auction. A mower was put under the hammer by the genial auctioneer, J. W. Hughes, and the highest bid received was 30 cents, but Templeton declared it was worth at least $3.00. Before he had time to withdraw the auctioneer knocked it off to him at that price, and now he is wondering what to do with a machine that is so valuable.

Mr. Graham is in receipt of a letter from Mr. Robbins, who formerly lived here but now is enjoying the frigidty of Canada, wherein he states that his grain had been covered with 18 inches of snow. Mr. Robbins and family lived in California for several years after leaving here and when on a visit with Judge Langley stated that he had never made so much money as here. It is strange that one should leave a place with such perfect climatic conditions when the gold is coming his way. But maybe it will be a case which has often been repeated in Oregon: "And the cat came back."

A very pleasant surprise party was given last Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Seymour in honor of George and Elizabeth's birthdays, Master George's birthday falling on Saturday and that of Miss Elizabeth on Monday. Their ages are six and eight years respectively. The afternoon was spent in playing games after which a lunch was served. Each little guest took a soap bubble pipe home as a souvenir. Those present were George and Elizabeth Seymour, Mabel Rasmussen, Winnie Stokes, Edna and Theima Pegg, Ogden Moulton, Frances, Ruth and Eilan Woods, Cathervoe, Lucile and Morgan Highby and Mildred Carlyle.
