comment is always pleasant but kindly criticism is also welcome. We think we produce exceedingly handsome

PHOTOGRAPHS.

But if there is any suggestion for improvement we want to know it. We have received so much praise for our handsome portraits that a little criticism would be a change at least. Have you any to make?

Fire Chief Lennerville has just had completed in his blacksmith shop a capital hose and fire apparatus wagon. The firemen of this city will pay for the wagon themselves, the price being $175. At the next meeting of the council a man representing a fire apparatus house of Portland will be present and the fire boys are in hopes that the city fathers will put in an order for a couple dozen of fire coats.

Dr. Boggess is in receipt of a wedding bid announcing the marriage of Ralph Logan to Miss Jones of Medford. Mr. Logan attended college here last year and was a member of the football team. He went to Medford this fall to teach in the high school of that place and a short romance followed which ended as they do in story books. Mr. and Mrs. Logan will be at home after November 15.

Last week W. F. Harttrampf sold his one-fifth interest in the Crescent flouring mills of this city to Miles Purdin for the consideration of $2500. J. W. Fuqua owns the other four-fifths of stock in the mill. Mr. Harttrampf went into the mill about a year ago. He already has several good offers in the mechanical line, but does not know as yet what he will do.

Last Sunday at the Congregational church was a notable Rally Day. The Sunday school and morning service had the largest attendance of the year. The music was rendered by the choir now reorganized and enlarged for the year. Miss Maud Shannon is the director and has secured a strong double-quartet for the morning service and a large chorus choir for the evening. Next Sunday evening this choir will lead a gospel song service.

A capital silver cup which was awarded to S. E. Reed 34 years, one month and two days ago, "for the best long woolled buck any breed or age," and which was lost for over 25 years at the old Reed farm at Reedville, is on exhibition in Abbott's jewelry store. The cup was found by Mr. McEldowney who has general management of all of the Ladd farms, and brought to this city. The trophy is a handsome silver, gold lined, engraved cup.

A very pleasant surprise party was given in honor of Harry Nauff's birthday—we won't tell how old he is—and a very enjoyable time is reported by all present. Games were played and a delightful lunch was served. Those who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Ridgley, Mr. and Mrs. Higby, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Moulton, Miss A. Dixon, Mrs. Lambert, A. T. Buxton and Miss Maud Miller.

Mr. Stevenson, a timber cruiser, who was at one time one of the University of Pennsylvania's star football ends, was registered at the Laughlin this week. Mr. Stevenson first went to Harvard and was asked by a friend to put on a suit and come out on the field. But the squad let him stand on the side lines, not even giving him a try out. He left Harvard and went to Pennsylvania where he made good. In a short time he had the pleasure of helping defeat Harvard by a big score—the team that had turned him down.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to thank our many friends for their kindness during the last sickness and death of our beloved husband and father.

We want to especially thank the Modern Woodmen and Royal Neighbors for their help, sympathy and kind words of consolation in this our sad bereavement and great sorrow.

MRS. WINIFRED ALDRICH,
HAZEL ALDRICH.

Appointed State Game Warden.

Forest Grove claims another state official in the person of Robert O. Stevenson, who was last Saturday appointed to fill the office of State Game and Forestry Warden by Governor Chamberlain to succeed John W. Baker of Cottage Grove. Three state officers of importance are now claimed by Forest Grove men since the appointment of Mr. Stevenson, as H. C. Atwell is president of the State Fruit Growers Association and Wilbur K. Newell, president of the State Horticultural Society.

Mr. Stevenson is 55 years of age and is the son of the late Mrs. Ruth Scott. For years he has lived west of Reuter's on David's Hill where he runs a fruit farm. He is the father of John Stevenson a prominent newspaper man of Portland. He will open up offices in this city next week from which he will conduct the state forestry and game business. The office carries a salary of $100 a month with traveling expenses. He has announced his policy to be that of a strict enforcement of the laws.

Grand Display.

The arrangements for the Loan exhibition to be held at Marsh Hall, Nov. 8 and 9 are almost completed and the paintings are being packed for shipment. In addition to the list of Portland people mentioned in last week's paper as sending paintings, the following friends are interested: Mrs. W. S. Ladd, Mrs. H. W. Corbett, Mr. W. B. Ayer and Dr. William Jones. It might be of interest here to state that in proportion to its size Portland has one of the best collections of paintings in the United States. Another item of importance and one that shows the interest and co-operation of the citizens of Forest Grove is that Mrs. G. O. Rogers has generously offered her rare collection of Satsuma, Cloissonne, embroideries and carvings.

THATCHER

J. Byers is digging his potatoes. Fred Burton was on the sick list last week but is now on the mend.

Cole Willis and Charley Kended killed a deer on Round Tok mountain.

E. J. Bonshu and wife and their daughter Carrie drove to Mountaineer Sunday.

Mrs. A. J. Ramond has returned from Hoquiam, where she visited her daughter a couple of months.

Mrs. Hattie Haney and sister and Mrs. Haney and brother arrived here from the east last week. They are thinking of locating here.

Forest Grove had more foreigners within its city limits the first of the week than for many a day—of course not including the people from Missouri. Sixty-two Greeks landed at the depot and were taken by their interpreter up to the Leabo hotel for their midday meal. While on the way up a little chap heard the clatter of their footsteps and the dagos chattering in their lingo. He was very curious as to where they came from and upon asking got the following reply from a lad about his size but just a little "nearer" himself. "Oh dey're from Hillsboro you mut." The four wagons that took them over were crowded to the limit. The dagos were taken over to work on the Tillamook railroad.
