REV. GOULD SPEAKS

Addresses Student Body on the Temperance Question in the Chapel.

Rev. Gould, pastor of the Methodist Church, addressed the Student Body at the special Wednesday chapel exercises on the Temperance question.

Rev. Gould gave a short history of the Temperance movement, setting forth very clearly the difficulties under which the champions of this question had worked in the past and showed the magnitude and influence this movement was having on different sections of our country. Nearly all the Southern states, he said, had voted against the sale and use of liquors, for the southern people realized that their only hope of solving the negro question, lies in a sober and temperate people. Many of the Northern states are following the example of the South as many of them are from one-half to two-thirds dry. So great has become the territorial extension of this great movement that the brewers throughout the country are becoming alarmed.

Rev. Gould closed his remarks with a strong appeal to every student to keep this question alive, and urged them to use their influence and defend the question at all times and in all places. Mr. Gould is a scholarly man and presented his subject in a very forceful and striking manner.

MUSICAL LECTURE

Mrs. Warren Thoms of Portland Addresses the Students of the Conservatory on Parsifal.

The lecture given on Parsifal by Mrs. Warren Thomas last Tuesday proved exceptionally interesting. Mrs. Thomas is well known in Portland musical circles and Pacific University was fortunate to obtain such a gifted speaker. She spoke in the well filled parlors at Herrick Hall. Mrs. Thomas is well posted on her subject as she has given a great deal of study to Wagnerian music and the growth of the folk lore on which most of his librettos are based; moreover she witnessed Conried's great production of Parsifal at the New York Metropolitan theatre.

The story of Parsifal is an adaptation of the legend of the Holy Grail and as presented by Wagner is a combination of Buddhist and Christian ideals which he had first planned to present separately. Mrs. Thomas gave an outline of the three parts of this musical drama, or "sacred comedy" as it was called by Wagner. With each part she played some of the principle motifs which characterize it, such as the "Spear" motif, the "Parsifal" motif and the motif of the "Holy Grail" all of which are repeated in many varying forms throughout the composition. The whole drama is representative in character, Parsifal being Purity, the wounded Amfortis, humanity; and Kundry, sin in its most alluring forms.

All those who attended this lecture carried away a very vivid idea of the purpose and grandeur of this greatest of all Wagner's works.

Skating Party.

A very successful skating party was given last Friday evening by Messrs. J. Ward, H. E. Ferrin and C. Franklin Koch. The following skaters made merry the sport of the evening: Misses Stearns, Hawley, Harbison, Lake, E. Fletcher, Thomas, Peterson, Wheelton, Allworth, Heidel, Leiser, Wilson, Bollinger, Ireland, Hoffman H. Chalmers, Payne and M. Abernethy.

Messrs. McCoy, Miller, C. Ward, J. Ward, Hope, H. E. Ferrin, Ferrin, Koch, Mason, Clapp, Allen, Humphreys, R. I. Abraham, Weathered, G. Brown, A. Robinson, Gwynn and Abernethy. Prof. Cook and Miss Hartley made delightful chaperons.

Second Number of Concert Course.

Edward Baxter Perry, concert pianist and lecturer, will appear in Marsh Hall Friday evening, Dec. 20.

Mr. Perry is the originator and chief representative of the Pianoforte lecture recital of which he has given more than two thousand in the United States during the past twenty years.

His plan is to preface each composition with a brief talk, calling attention to its descriptive or emotional characteristics and the circumstances of its origin, thus rendering it doubly interesting because fully intelligible to all.

CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION MEETINGS

Rev. Folsom Conducting Services in Chapel Throughout the Week.

The first of the series of special meetings as planned by the Christian Associations, which will be conducted throughout the week under the leadership of Rev. Folsom and Mr. Thomas, was held last night in the chapel, with a goodly number of students and townspeople present.

These meetings have been arranged especially for the students and it is desirous that everybody come out and make them a success.

Rev. Folsom is an excellent speaker, whose forceful words and attractive personality cannot fail to appeal to every hearer. Mr. Thomas will lead the singing. He has a rich and melodious voice which will add much to the success of the meetings.

The meetings begin at seven o'clock and close at eight. Everybody come and bring their friends.

Prof. A. J. Prideaux of Willamette University was looking after his "interest" during the holidays and incidentally shaking hands with his old friends.

Mr. Hilts was in Portland Tuesday.

THE TRYOUT DEBATE.

Large Number Will Enter Contest --Two Teams to Meet Willamette and Whitman.

The coming tryout debate which will be held January 3, to select the respective teams to meet Whitman and Willamette, promises to be an interesting contest. There will be twelve men in the contest who are members of the two young men's literary societies. The contestants realize that in order to make a place on the teams hard work confronts them. It is this keen competition for places that will give the best results. The question for the coming debate is Resolved:

"That the United States Should Continue to Admit the Japanese on the Same Condition as the European Immigrant." The manner of selecting speakers will be quite different than heretofore. Each succeeding speaker is required to rebut the argument of the preceding speaker before presenting his constructive case. This plan is aimed to secure good rebuttal speakers as well as a person capable of making a constructive argument.
