BANKS

Mr. John Carson left for Portland on Monday.

Ralph Kinton says duck shooting is "hard walking."

Ask Mr. Kinton and Dr. Killingsworth if their boat is seaworthy.

The few turkeys that lived through Thanksgiving are roosting high.

Miss Ella Schulmerich is still confined to the house with sickness.

School is on in earnest now and each day finds new scholars attending.

Everybody is well supplied with water these days as all wells are full.

Mrs. Brown and children of Greenville paid Banks a visit on Tuesday.

The First M. E. church of Banks will give a social the evening of the 19th.

Mrs. U. Turner's sister and her husband and daughter are visiting at Banks.

Christmas displays are the order of the day and afford the children much pleasure.

We understand that Al Young belongs to the Union. Hours from dark to darkness.

Mrs. Killingsworth left on Saturday for The Dalles to make final proof on her timber claim.

The new water tower on Mr. Schulmerich's place is completed and the pump has been installed.

The dance given on Saturday by Mr. McGraw, in his hall was a success and the suppet was enjoyed by all.

The band boys have cards out for their first concert and dance for Dec. 28, which promises to be the event of the season.

The work of planking the road between Banks and Buxton is being rushed and will indeed be a great improvement when completed.

Chas. Shipley, our newly appointed mail carrier, will begin his duties about the 24th of this month. We wish him success working for Uncle Sam.

Mr. Otto Gallaway and Mr. Bert Friday left Tuesday for the lakes, on the Columbia River, belonging to Mr. Banks. They expect to come home with the limit.

WATT DISTRICT.

M. B'sbee was on the sick list last week.

Some real estate is changing hands on David's Hill.

Miss Bleed came out from Portland last Wednesday.

D. B. Adams transacted business in Portland Tuesday.

Mrs. L. Van Kirk is expected home from Washington, Thursday.

Mrs. T. Cox is reported as very low with no hopes for improvement.

Mr. and Mrs. Prickett attended Grange meeting in town, Saturday.

Word has been received that Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Buxton will be home before the holidays.

Last Thursday and Friday the forty-five pupils enrolled in our district school were perfect in attendance.

Miss Livermore who has been very sick for the past week at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. R. Hall, is improving.

Services will be held at Watts church, Sunday, Dec. 14, at 1:30 p. m. by Rev. Keagy. Sunday school at 2:30 instead of 3 o'clock.

EAST GASTON.

James Crunican is slashing for Mr. Edwards.

Chas. Crunican started to school Monday at Spring Hill.

The Vandehy children have again entered school after a siege of the measles.

H. Kennell has done quite a lot of repairing and fixing up his house, papering, painting etc.

S. Shotwell & Son have built a large hoghouse, 30x48 ft., for L. L. Paget, Wapato View. It is double boarded all around and rubberoid roof. It contains nine large pens and a cook room.

The six months old son of Mr. Edwards burned its left hand quite severely on the stove Thursday evening. The wound is getting along nicely considering the severity of the burn.

Mr. Edwards, who recently bought Master's place, is fixing up the house a considerable. He has painted the inside woodwork and cloth and papered. S. Shotwell & Son did the clothing and papering downstairs, and Mr. Edwards and Mr. Pritchard are doing the upstairs.

BUXTON

Ida Lorenz went to Portland last week.

Ernest Hunger returned from the logging camps last Friday.

Dr. Linklater was up this way Monday to attend Mrs. Genzer.

Cass Garrigus conducted services in the Hayward schoolhouse Sunday.

Oregon Development League Notes.

The statement of the National Banks of Portland on December 3rd proved that they had ample cash—more than the most enthusiastic had anticipated. The same is true of banks throughout the state.

"Profitable Advertising," published at Boston and one of the leading journals of its character in the United States, reproduces the letterhead of the Oregon Development League in its December number, and prints an exhaustive letter from the Secretary telling of the league's methods and accomplishments. Oregon is nationally known for her development work.
