"Eighty chances to win—you can't lose" is the slogan of the Portland Commercial Club in its final work connected with the $5000 prize contest closing December 31st. People in general seem engrossed with the financial conditions, and their neglect makes the chances of those who do compete even more pronounced.

The Oregon apple has captured the Orient and Russia. Yadjoglou Brothers of Vladivostok, after making a display in one of the principal show windows of the city, removed the display and after it was crowned and surrounded with American and Russian flags it was photographed, and is to be reproduced in colors for International advertising. Thus the glory of the Oregon apple goes round the world. The display was unusual because most of the boxes were shown ready for ocean shipment, each encased in burlap. Varieties of apples included the Winter Bananas, Orley, Hydes King and Arkansas Blacks.
