KAPPAS ROYAL ENTERTAINERS.

Society Gave Party Friday Evening at Herrick Hall—Beautiful Decorations—Prizes Awarded.

A very unique party was given by the Kappa Deltas Friday evening at Herrick Hall. Some forty people were present to enjoy one of the most pleasant society functions ever given at Pacific. The large banquet hall was beautifully decorated with wild ferns, college pennants and the Kappa colors, purple and white. During the whole evening there were no dull moments spent. The fore part of the evening was given over to various contests. The first of these consisted in filling a neat little booklet with the largest number of autographs in a given length of time. Prof. F. W. Orr was the winner and received a beautiful autograph album for his endeavors.

The party was now divided into five groups, of which its members must perform some "stunt." Group one, Mr. Imlay, very cleverly impersonated "Old Black Joe," that famous negro melody, while the rest of the group joined in singing the chorus. Group two was called upon to compose a poem. Prin. Bates, Mrs. Cook, Miss Stearns and several others composing this victorious company, carried off first honors in a celebrated poem which is as follows:

A is for Avery, young and so fair,
B is for Bobbie gay and debonaire,
C is for Cook of wooden-leg fame,
D is for Doc so gentle and tame,
E is for Elizabeth, pretty and shy,
F is for Ferrin, with the girls quite fly,
G is for Goldie so happy and free,
H is for Horace, so much like a tree,
I is for Imlay, great in debate,
J is for Jennie extremely sedate,
K is for Koch, he sings a deep bass,
L is for Lawrence, he fills a large place,
M is for Miller, quite young for his age,
N is for nobody and this ends our page.

Group three gave a prophecy of the Kappa Deltas which brought out many startling announcements in matrimonial lines and the different vocations some of the illustrious members were to follow.

Group four surprised the spectators by vividly portraying the evils that is bound to follow in domestic life if we should adopt woman suffrage. This was worked out in a neat tableau. Prof. Cook illustrated the evil connected with the dairy by wielding the churn dash. A. C. Allen posed as laundry maid, while the young ladies, Misses Abernethy and Sewell, read the daily papers and delivered political speeches.

The last group impersonated different members of the faculty. The cause for the faculty meeting was a recent "Rough House" made on Prof. Chapman by two young ladies of the Hall. These two young ladies, instigators of this heinous crime against the musical director, were forced to testify before the discipline committee. C. D. Mason as Dr. Boggess, very ably impersonated the Doctor by his words and actions. He forcibly laid down the ethical law against such misdemeanors, and thought the young ladies should be made examples of for the benefit of young ladies of like inclination.

DAYS OF DIZZINESS

Come to Hundreds of Forest Grove People.

There are days of dizziness; Spells of headache, sideache, back-ache;

Sometimes rheumatic pains; Often urinary disorders.

"I tell you plainly the kidneys are sick."

"Daily, living on Second Ave., Forest Grove, Ore., says: 'For over ten years I suffered from kidney trouble and no matter how many remedies I tried, I was unable to find relief. My kidneys were in a much disordered condition, the secretions too frequent in action and greatly interfered with my rest at night. I suffered severely from dizzy spells and my eyesight became affected. I grew weak and at the time Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention, I was feeling very miserable. I received good results from their use, continued taking them and at the present time am absolutely free from any sign of kidney complaint. I give Doan's Kidney Pills credit for the great change in my condition.'"

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

tions. R. Abraham as Prin. Bates, held similar views to Miss R. Thomas as Prof. Farnham, on stricter rules being inaugurated and enforced. Miss H. Chalmers representing Miss Haskell, complained of the rough usage that furniture received in such midnight tournaments. Misses Avery and Koerner posed as the guilty girls. S. B. Lawrence representing Pres. Ferrin, with his gruff coarse voice, pronounced punishment upon the culprits.

Every person present now was asked to send a telegram made from the ten letters of the word "Kappa Delta." Very many pithy and comical telegrams were sent. Miss Jennie Rasmussen and Prof. Orr were presented with two beautiful Kappa pennants as victors in the contest.

The guests now repaired to the dining hall where dainty prepared refreshments were served. After feasting for an hour upon the delicacies pleasing to the appetite the evening concluded by a musical and recital program. Mr. Koch favored the party with a vocal solo, Miss Alice Sewell rendered a beautiful piano solo, Prof. Orr gave in his pleasing manner "Jane Jones" and responded to a hearty encore with two more numbers. Miss Katherine Shannon with her sweet musical voice gave a vocal solo. Mrs. Cook, chaperon and judge of contests, admirably filled these positions.

The party closed by singing college songs. Every one present pronounced the Kappas royal entertainers and all left feeling that they had enjoyed one of the most pleasing entertainments ever accorded them at Pacific. Those present were: The Misses Gladys Hartley, Chandler, K. Shannon, H. Allworth, Koerner, Alice Sewell, Goldie Person, D. Abernethy, R. Thomas, E. Chalmers, C. Abernethy, M. Abernethy, H. Chalmers, R. Hoffman, F. Corwin, L. Hawley, Avery, Stearns, J. Rasmussen and Mrs. Cook, Messrs. McCay, Ralph Abraham, Prin. Bates, Profs. Orr and Cook, Lawrence, Mason, Miller, Ferrin, House, Markee, Koch, Waterman, Imlay, Bryant, Brown, D. Clapp, Weathered. Aller and Allen.

DR. WALKER SPEAKS TO STUDENTS

Religions of China His Theme. Buddhism, Taoism and Confucianism Discussed.

At chapel Wednesday, Dr. J. E. Walker, a graduate of P. U. in the class of 1868 and for many years a missionary in China spoke to the students on "A Comparison of the Religions of China." There are three. Taoism, Buddhism and Confucianism. The people not knowing which one is the true religion, so to be on the safe side worship all three. The people are greatly influenced by magic and superstitions of all kinds and beside the Gods represented by the three religions they pray to many minor Gods whose good will they desire to obtain.

They believe that an evil deed can always be atoned for by a good one and if at the end of the day there has been more good than evil, the Chinese feels that they are safe.

The Chinese have a very vague idea of the omnipresence of God. He told of the slight relation between religion and morality. Even in the best religion, Confucianism, there was no vital force to lead the people to a better life.

Dr. Walker's account was very interesting and certainly showed to the students the great value of the Christian religion and the need of mission work in China.

PENDLETON-TUALATIN DEBATE

"Postal Savings Banks the Question. Debate Scheduled in Pendleton.

The contract for a debate between Pendleton Academy and Tualatin Academy was signed by both parties last week. The provisions of the contract are practically the same as those of last year when the two Academies debated the ship subsidy question at Forest Grove. Any bona fide Academy student is eligible and from the number which entered the tryout last year at Pacific, the contest this year should prove especially interesting.

The final debate will be held in Pendleton sometime in April. The exact date has not yet been chosen. The local tryout will take place in

Cures Woman's Weaknesses.

We refer to that boon to weak, nervous, suffering women known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Dr. John E. Fife, one of the Editorial Staff of THE ECLECTIC MEDICAL REVIEW says of Unicorn root (Helonias Dioica) which is one of the chief ingredients of the "Favorite Prescription":

"A remedy which invariably acts as a uterine invigorator... makes for normal activity of the entire reproductive system." He continues "In Helonias we have a medication which more fully answers the above purposes than any other with which I am acquainted. In the treatment of diseases peculiar to women it is seldom that a case is seen which does not present some indication for this remedial agent." Dr. Fife further says: "The following are among the leading indications for Helonias (Unicorn root). Pain or aching in the back, with leucorrhoea; atonic (weak) condition of the reproductive organs of women; mental depression and irritability, associated with chronic diseases of the reproductive organs of women; constant sensation of heat in the region of the kidneys; menorrhagia (flooding), due to a weakened condition of the reproductive system; amenorrhoea (failure of the monthly period); abnormal or accompanying an abnormal condition of the digestive organs and general debility; habitually dragging sensations in the extreme lower part of the abdomen."

"If more or less of the above symptoms are present, no invalid woman can do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, one of the leading ingredients of which is Unicorn root, or Helonias, and the medical properties of which it most faithfully represents."

Of Golden Seal root, another prominent ingredient of "Favorite Prescription," Prof. Finley Ellingswood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says: "It is an important remedy in disorders of the womb. In all gynecological conditions and general debility, it is useful."

Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, says of Golden Seal root: "In relation to its general effects on the system, there is no medicine in use about which there is such general unanimity of opinion. It is universally regarded as the tonic useful in all debilitated states."

Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, says of Golden Seal: "Value is in its tonic, hemostatic, menorrhagic (flooding) and congestive dysmenorrhoea (painful menstruation)."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription faithfully represents all the above named ingredients and cures the diseases for which they are recommended.

Marsh Hall, Friday, Feb. 14th, one week previous to the Whistman-Pacific debate. The rules governing the local tryout will be the same as those used in the college tryout of this year. The main change from the old style of set speeches, to rebuttal given by each speaker of the previous speech from the floor should prove especially valuable in preparing the Academy representatives for future contests.

The worth of these Academy debates cannot be over-estimated. Before coming into the college, the lower classes have very few opportunities of proving their ability in speaking or debating before other than a small audience. True, they have their society debates; but this does not remove the "stage fright" to most beginners. Within the society rooms a different feeling prevails. Here everyone knows everyone else and a speaker is not likely to do his best.

Society training is necessary. But the larger contest, when the debater is keyed up to the highest pitch and begins to realize the possibilities of his power before a larger audience, brings out talents and awakens faculties which otherwise would remain dormant. Because of the value of this kind of training a large number of men will probably enter the tryout. Last year Tualatin Academy represented by Holmes, Miller and Hope, defeated Pendleton Academy on the subsidy question. Shall we not administer the same treatment this year? Then come to the tryout, Feb. 14th.

ORATORICAL CONTEST.

Many Contestants Enter the Tryout. Two Prizes Offered.

The annual oratorical contest will be held in Brighton Chapel, Friday evening, January 31, to select a representative for the State Oratorical contest, which will be held at the Oregon State Normal school at Monmouth.

Pacific University may well be proud of her past record in oratory. Twice have our representatives carried off first honors and last year William E. Gwynn, lacked only one per cent of winning second place from the University of Oregon.

The local tryout promises to be one of the best held of late years. Last year very little interest was taken in oratory, as only two persons entered the contest. However, this year, much enthusiasm is being shown. There has been a great deal of labor placed upon the orations and a good contest is assured.

Prizes amounting to the sum of $25 will be awarded by the institution, $15 for the winner and $10 for second place.

Those who will speak are W. E.
