Skating has been fine for several days, and every one has enjoyed it.

The church is completed and the parsonage will be finished in about ten days.

We understand that Dr. Killingsworth and wife expect to return to Portland, where he intends to continue his profession.

Cooper & Co. have sold their furniture business to Mr. John Wonderlick. Sorry to lose the former from our midst.

Has every body enjoyed the snow balling? Those who had sleighs were out Monday in all their glory, making use of them while they had the opportunity.

The church social given here Jan. 25th was a decided success, financially as well as otherwise. The social was given for the purpose of raising money with which to buy a bell for the church. We praise the people of Banks and surrounding country for their generosity in helping so good a cause along so nicely.
