PUBLIC RECITAL AT MARSH HALL.

Oratorical Contest Held at Monmouth. Two New Amendments Adopted by L. O. A. O.

The Intercollegiate Oratorical Contest for 1908 is a thing of the past. The students who attended the contest at Monmouth Friday, are unanimous in the opinion that it was a very good one. The attendance was large and so was the enthusiasm shown. The assembly hall was in a din for nearly an hour before the contest began. Willamette University had the largest delegation, as a number of its students drove over to Monmouth Friday evening. Pacific University was represented by a delegation of thirteen. This, together with the fact that it was Friday, the thirteenth of the month, might have had something to do with Pacific's misfortune.

The first place was won for Oregon by Bert W. Prescott on the subject "Mercy that Condemns." Mr. Prescott's oration won first place both in composition and delivery. It was clear, forceful and deliberative, both in style and delivery. Dealing, as it did, with one of the great social problems of the day, the laxity of our courts in the punishment of crime, it was of special interest. Mr. Prescott's delivery was calm and convincing and the decision which awarded him first place was a popular one and met with general approval.

The other speakers, their subjects, and the places awarded were as follows: second place, Joseph Richardson, McMinnville College, "The Trend of the Hour; third place, Clarke Bolnap, Willamette University, "The Twentieth Century State;" fourth place, W. E. Gwynn, Pacific University, "National Stability;" fifth place, Harry Maxfield, Pacific College, "Training for Intelligent Citizenship;" sixth place, E. E. Gallaway, O. A. C., "A Nation's Need;" seventh place, Mrs. C. A. Bryant, Monmouth Normal, "A Prophetic Record."

Although Pacific's orator did not win first or even second place, she may well feel proud of him. Mr. Gwynn's quiet dignity and intensity held his audience, and general surprise at the decisions was expressed by even the winning schools.

The music for the contest was rendered by the Monmouth Orchestra, the O. S. N. S. Girl's Glee Club and the Faculty Quartette. Mrs. Babbot, the instructor in music, played one of Liszt's Rhapsodies during the program.

The banquet was held in the gymnasium, which was elaborately decorated for the occasion. During the banquet the orchestra played several numbers, and the faculty quartette rendered several entertaining selections. The toasts were varied and well given. R. A. Imlay responded for Pacific University to the toast the I. O. A. C. Prof. Orr responded for the faculty. It is said that Prof. Orr told the funniest story of the evening.

Two important amendments were adopted at the business meeting of the association. One, that no minister who has been ordained, or lawyer who has been admitted to the bar shall be allowed to enter the contest. The other that no medical or law student shall be allowed to enter unless he take the major part of his work in the departments of art or sciences. These amendments will tend to keep out anything of a special or professional nature and will put the colleges of the league on an equal basis.

Alpha Zeta.

Alpha Zeta met in general assembly on Wednesday evening. The first number on the program was a solo by Mr. H. E. Witham, then followed the debate on the question Resolved that, "The Local Option Bill should be repealed." The affirmative was upheld by C. D. Mason and Richard Abraham while Virgil Waterman and Mr. Taylor upheld the negative.

The decision of the judges was rendered in favor of the negative. Prof. Taylor criticized the meeting and gave the society some valuable advice.

After disposing of the business the society adjourned.

A fine set of books for travel study were received at the library a few weeks ago.

Advanced Students in Public Speaking Department Will Give Program March 21.

Saturday evening at Marsh Hall, the students of Prof. Orr's advanced class in Vocal Expression will give a recital. The program will show the character of the work done during the year by the students of this department.

For a number of years little attention has been paid to this phase of the work. Last year, however, Prof. Orr renewed the interest with the result that a number of students have taken up the study of Vocal Expression. During the year the class has presented various forms of literature, such as the lyric, ballad, monologue, and drama.

This recital will be the presentation of this work as perfected in the class. The admission is free and the public is cordially invited to be present.

The following program will be rendered:

Monologue, Evelyn Hope... Browning

Miss Hawley

Story, The Thunder Oak, Cutting

from the First Christmas

Tree... VanDyke

Miss Silverman

Monologue, Unexpected Guests

Miss Payne

Impersonation, Guinevere, Cutting

from the Idylls of the King... Tennyson

Miss Heide

Comedy, "Mr. Bob"

Characters

Philip Royson... W. E. Gwynn

Robert Brown, clerk of Benson

and Benson... H. E. Ferri

Jenkins, Miss Rebecca's butler

Rebecca Luke, a maiden lady

Helen Chandler

Katherine Rogers, her niece

Grace Payne

Marion Bryant, Katherine's friend

Lepha Hawley

Patty, Miss Rebecca's maid

Maud Hollinger

The dramatic part of the performance will be repeated at the opera house at Hillsboro, Monday evening.

Here is a simple home-made mixture as given by an eminent authority on Kidney diseases, who makes the statement in a New York daily newspaper, that it will relieve almost any case of Kidney trouble if taken before the stage of Bright's disease. He states that such symptoms as lame back, pain in the side, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night; painful and discolored urination, are readily overcome. Here is the recipe: try it:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargol, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

A well known druggist here in town is authority that these ingredients are all harmless and easily mixed at home by shaking well in a bottle. This mixture has a peculiar healing and soothing effect upon the entire Kidney and Urinary structure, and often overcomes the worst forms of Rheumatism in just a little while. This mixture is said to remove all blood disorders and cure the Rheumatism by forcing the Kidneys to filter and strain from the blood and system all uric acid and foul, decomposed waste matter, which causes these afflictions. Try it if you aren't well. Save the prescription.

Miss Hollinger spent Sunday at home.

"What the Association Means to Me" was the subject of last Tuesday's meeting led by Miss Amy Thomas. She brought out the different phases of Association work and showed how each girl might use her particular talent in the work of the Financial, Social and Devotional committees. These committees give a chance for broad development along many lines.

Don't forget the recital Saturday night.

Mr. Arnston was a Portland visitor last week.

Miss Sylvia Baker was a chapel visitor Thursday.

While in town, Mr. Mason visited the Portland Library.

Miss Frances Abernethy was out from the Portland Library Sunday.

Miss Bain was confined to her room last week on account of illness.

Miss Chandler was the guest of Miss Heide at the Hall Friday evening.

Miss Silverman was the guest of Miss Heide at Hillsboro last Tuesday.

Miss Gula Bennette spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in Beaverton.

Miss Hartley, who has been home for the last week, returned Thursday.

Mr. Wagner has declared his intention of joining the Press Club next year.

Word has been received of the arrival of an exceptionally fine boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fletcher, Pueblo, Colorado.

Miss Hollinger, Professor Orr, Messrs. Gwynn, Ward and Mason went to Portland Wednesday to see "The Merchant of Venice" and "Antony and Cleopatra."

Miss Clara Chalmers gave a skating party Friday evening to a number of her girl friends. Although inexperienced in the art of skating, everyone reported a good time.

Miss Heide and Miss Silverman went to Portland Wednesday to see "The Merchant of Venice" and "Antony and Cleopatra." While there they were the guests of Miss Sheehy.

Miss Livermore of Pendleton, was the guest of Miss Koerner, the latter part of the week.

Miss Farnham went into Portland Saturday to attend a meeting of the executive board of the Y. W. C. A.

Miss Bertha Koerner entertained a number of her friends at Herrick Hall Friday evening, in honor of her friend, Miss Livermore.

Soph.—I notice that Sam is worshipping at the shrine of Diana now.

Prep.—Who is Diana?

Soph.—Why, the goddess of the chase.

This week a large consignment of books have been received at the college library. They include, for the most part, fiction and musical books. A list of the books will be given next week.

Last Thursday at chapel, the students were given the opportunity of hearing Mr. Gwynn deliver his oration. Since the local tryout, Mr. Gwynn has made marked improvement in his delivery.

The following students and faculty attended the contest at Monmouth Friday: Misses Sewell, Holmes, Templeton, Payne, Wheelon and Bowie, Messrs. Gwynn, Imlay, Lawrence, Raul Abraham, Ralph Abraham, Witham and Prof. Orr.

A large party of enthusiastic students met at the train Friday morning to give the P. U. delegation a rousing send off. It was an occasion of great interest as several young couples, well known in school circles, were taking their departure. Our esteemed editor and his charming companion had many friends present to wish them happiness and long life. The lady was attired in a very becoming traveling suit and hat of brown and made a charming picture beside her stalwart escort. It was only after decking her suit-case with white ribbons and showering the happy pair with rice, that their friends were satisfied to let them depart on the 8:30 train.
