WATTS DISTRICT.

Dick Holscher and best girl were buggy riding Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Buxton entertained company from town Sunday.

Allan Rice was at Gales Creek for lumber and posts one day last week.

A large auto containing a party of four persons spun through here Sunday.

Robt. Stevenson now makes his daily trips to his office in the Grove in a fine new buggy.

Mrs. Buckley of Thatcher was through here last week getting orders for ladies' dresses.

Mrs. M. Bisbee and Mrs. Florence Ranes called on Mrs. J. B. Prickett Thursday afternoon.

The school was favored by a call from Emma Wiberg of Forest Grove, Friday, who was a former pupil here.

Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Short and family of Gales Creek and relatives from town and this place were pleasantly entertained at Mr. Rice's Sunday.

Condenser checks Sunday and creamery checks Monday gave the farmers some spending money; hence the increase in trade towards town this week.

Easter Sunday services at Watts church will be conducted by Rev. Keagy. Sunday school at the usual hour. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

THATCHER

Fred McElliott is on the sick list, suffering with the lagrippe.

The roads are much improved by the work being done on them of late.

The young people of Thatcher organized a Y. P. S. C. E. a week ago last Sunday evening.

Mrs. Chas. Swaney of Forest Grove called at the home of Mrs. H. H. Graham last Wednesday.

E. J. Bonshu and Warren Thatcher went to Portland last week to attend the funeral of the latter's niece.

Mrs. Fannie Smiley and son who have been visiting Mrs. N. Haney, will leave this week for their home in Nebraska.

Roscoe and Willie Barker accompanied by their aunt Mrs. M. Thatcher, attended the funeral of their sister in Portland last week.

Thatcher people are rejoicing over the prospects of a motor line, and some are ready to sign bonds and give the right of way. Henry Rhodes would like to have it through his farm. Mr. Rhodes has a small lake on his farm, an ideal place for picnics. The young people imagine they can see the cars loaded with picnickers. We are glad the board of trade has become interested in the project. It will be a great advantage to people in the vicinity of the line as well as profitable to the owners of the line.

GASTON

L. P. Quimby was a Gaston visitor last week.

A. Hamrick is building a barn for Ed Bates.

Aunt Nettie Carter is very low at present writing.

The lake is dry enough so that cattle are being pastured on it.

C. L. Dennis and wife spent Wednesday at the home of B. C. Dennis.

The little five year old son of Will Harris had the misfortune to get his leg broken above the knee. He was brought to town and the wound dressed by Dr. Everest. At last accounts the boy was resting well.

Our school observed Arbor Day last Friday, by having a program and picnic.

Mrs. Tolson has moved to this place, she having rented her home in Gales to Lowell Magoon.

J. D. Hibbs has purchased a fine new automobile, Hal bringing it out from Portland Saturday.

GALES CREEK

Miss Myrtle Cronin spent Sunday on Gales Creek.

Miss Maud Lilly returned to school in Forest Grove Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alstrom of Forest Grove, spent Sunday on Gales Creek.

Our school room was improved last week by the addition of six new seats.

Miss Caroline Wescott was visiting with her aunt, Mrs. N. C. Lilly of Gales Creek.

Otice Shearer of Hillside, was over Saturday picking up the fragments of the runaway buggy.

Tom Johnson has purchased a new horse which he will make good use of when the roads get good.

H. L. Shorb came in Monday. He has been repairing the telephone line from his ranch to Gales Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Proctor and Mr. and Mrs. Williams of Hillside, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Vincent of Gales Creek.

Mrs. Carpenter, who has been visiting her son, Ed Wagner of Scoggins Valley for some time, returned to her home on Gales Creek Friday.

H. J. Prosser of Hillside, will give us an Easter lecture Sunday at 11:00 o'clock a. m. at the Gales Creek A. C. church. There will also be Easter exercises by the children at two o'clock p. m.

Gales Creek seems to be noted for unaways of late as Mrs. Trites was riding horseback the other day, the horse running away throwing her off, breaking her arm and collar bone. Dr. Via was called on for repairs. Also Charles Adkins had a runaway with a harrow Monday but no serious damage was done.
