A vote for William A. Carter at the primaries Friday, for Railroad Commissioner, will be a vote cast in the interest of the people—and against the men whom the railroads would like to have in that office. Number 19 on the ballot.

Tom Cornelius, ex chief of police of the city of Salem, was here yesterday, visiting his brother, John Cornelius. The ex-marshal brought in a band of horses for John Connell at Hillsboro and was on his return trip to Salem. Tom is well known among old residents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Sloan of Portland, were visiting Mark L. Noble and family over Sunday. Mrs. Sloan remained here several days at the home of her father but Mr. Sloan returned to Portland Monday to resume work on extensive building contracts in the Rose city.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Hoodenpyle, in East Gaston, was made happy April 12, by the arrival of twins, a boy and a girl. The advent of the stork has elicited numberless congratulations from friends to the favored couple. The mother and children are doing nicely.

William A. Carter, candidate for Railroad Commissioner, had the courage to fight the railroad company for a three cent per mile passenger rate when they were charging four cents and if chosen by the people of this district will be found active for more reasonable freight rates for our rapidly growing state.

The funeral of Mrs. Jennie Bullock, nee Howard, was conducted from her late residence near Buxton on April 15 and the remains were laid to rest in the Buxton cemetery. She was the wife of Robert B. The game of ball played last Sunday between teams from the neighborhood of Banks and Verboort resulted in a victory for the former. The final score was 12 to 5. The turn came in the seventh inning when a wild throw allowed the Banks men to bring in four tallies. The batteries were: Banks—Carstens and Kopple. Verboort—Van Lum and Bernards.

Many people who had their garbage and rubbish ready to be hauled away were somewhat surprised last Saturday when the wagons were not sent out by the Civic Improvement Society to gather them up. This is due to the fact that the city has at the present time no dumping grounds available. It is probable that the society and the city council will co-operate in this cleaning-up movement and that a day will be set apart in which to do the work.
