And the agony is over!

top to bottom.

Statement No. 1 victory; Chamberlain or Cake?

Haven't the democrats made a mistake and voted for the visit every section and hamlet in the strongest instead of the weakest candidate?

It has been said that there is mary election. no republican party in Oregon. They simply meant "machine" instead of "party."

Hon. H. M. Cake is deserving of the nomination he won. ponents are estimable gentlemen and He made a good clean cam- their business, private and public life paign and worked hard for the has been such as to assure every thinkplace he sought. That he will win at the June election there is no doubt.

The democrats of this county now come to the front to nominate a legislative ticket that will "support the primary law," not that they care to use it themselves, for mass conventions suit their purposes better.

The Oregonian has shown that it is the duty of Gov. Chamberlain to withdraw from the senatorial fight. Mr. Chamberlain and Mr. Cake stand on the same platform as regards Statement No. 1, but Mr. Cake went extend every courtesy compatible with forth and fought for its establish- the proper discharge of the duties, to ment and irrevocably won its be as economical as in the conduct of battle while Mr. Chamberlain my private business and to so serve did nothing for the popular choice measure. The canvass for the nomination was entirely devoid of personalities and, certainly, as far as the shreivalty contest is concerned no just cause exists for any of the "soreness" sometimes manifest after an election. Both my oping man that they would, had they been chosen, served as ably, honestly and conscientiously as I intend to do. However, certain conditions existed. which, in the uncertainty of political campaigns, resulted in my election. There were three contestants and only one could be chosen. We are all Republicans and I am assured that both Mr. Buchanan and Mr. Kuratli will now extend to me the same staunch support in my candidacy that I would have extended had either been selected. Both gentlemen deservedly possess many warm and loyal friends whom I will be proud to number with my own, if for no other reason than

> The Board of Trade edition of the Forest Grove News, which is issued as ally which I hope will be my pleasure a supplement to that paper, is on our table. It is a neat 16-page affair printed on heavy book paper, and is profusely illustrated, containing views of the Grove, and pictures of its prominent men. In this magazine, Brother Woods exhibits a fraternal spirit, by publishing a short sketch of the newspaper men of the county, including half tone pictures of the editors. Leaving out the fraternal feature, which ought to be appreciated by the press of the county, the edition is a credit to any paper in the state, and will do much to advertise the resources of our sister town. - Hillsboro Argus.
