GALES.

Pete Dethlefs has no wheat to sell in small lots.

Mrs. Minnie Tupper was shopping in Forest Grove, one day last week.

Mr. Creps, of Banks, was at the stone quarry, last Saturday, for stone.

Mrs. J. G. Boos and Mrs. May Beal were shopping in Gaston, last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Boos made a visit to Forest Grove, last Saturday evening.

Mr. Vandercoven, of Verboort, called at the quarry for stone, one day last week.

Baley Lewis has leased a piece of land of A. Roth, which he has sowed to oats for hay.

George Beal Jr. is under the care of a specialist from Idaho. He is getting along fine.

Earl Tupper hauled a load of farmer stone to Forest Grove, last Saturday, for Johnnie Wirtz.

Several of the boys from here attended the ball game, last Sunday, at the Hill school grounds.

Last Wednesday, while loading stone at the quarry, Carl Tupper got one of his fingers badly mashed and broken.

Several of the young people attended the dance at Dilley, last Friday night. Tom Hundley and John Beal furnished the music. A fine time is reported.

BANKS

Mrs. Roy Bunn, of North Yamhill, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hatley.

Mr. Willis, the hardware man, is building an extensive addition to his warehouse.

A number of our young people went to Buxton, last Saturday night, to attend the dance.

H. Smith and wife have moved into town from their place, and have taken charge of the Banks hotel.

The trees in this section are out in full bloom, and it is thought that the frost of last week did not do any material damage.

Dr. Berger and wife have returned from an extended visit to California, but left again, the forepart of the week, for Hot Springs in Washington.

The disciples of Isaac Walton have had a jolly good time casting their lines in Dairy Creek, the past week. Al Young, while resting his horses during the noon hour, the other day, caught sixteen of the finest speckled beauties ever hauled out of the creek.

When his men have donned new uniforms, Frank Perimboon will be the proudest man in town, and Banks will have one of the best bands in the county. Twenty-four musicians have learned to sound sweet music and they will help in enlivening meetings and gatherings held at Banks. The uniforms will be green trimmed with black and are said to be very attractive. They are expected to arrive this week.

Hugh Walter Sparks, the entertainer and caricaturist, delivered an interesting talk at McGraw hall, Saturday night. For more than one hour and a half he held the attention of his audience with impersonations and monologues and clever drawings drawn with lightning-like rapidity. Haskell Ferrin sang several songs with the dash of a typical minstrel, and the evening's program proved thoroughly enjoyable.

Baseball is the all-absorbing topic in our burg. From the little boy that bats "flies" on the school grounds, to the big fellow that plays the game to keep Banks in the public eye, everybody in town is talking baseball. Just how many nines we have is a difficult matter to ascertain. First there is the regular, dyed-in-the-wool Banks nine; then there the Banks Outlaws made up of home players. Another aggregation is managed by John Miller, and this bunch of baseballists is known as the
