WATT'S DISTRICT.

John Wilson is on the sick-list.
Frank Johnson and wife were in the Grove, Saturday.
A fine horse belonging to D. B. Adams died Sunday night.
Allan Dilley has two carpenters making improvements on his house.
R. O. Stephenson returned, Friday, from a two weeks' trip through Southern Oregon.
Willie Monner was out from Portland visiting among friends, the forepart of this week.
Mrs. R. M. Bisbee shipped a large consignment of dressed pork to Portland, last Thursday.
School was closed Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, while Prof. Krause was assisting County Superintendent M. C. Case.

We understand that Mr. Day, who has been visiting at Mr. Rice's, has purchased Sam Parkins' farm near Gales Creek.

Those who heard Governor Chamberlain speak at the Grove, Friday night, were Messrs. Burk, La Mont and Stephenson.

Forest Grove real estate men are numerous through here these days, and even some of the neighborhood men are taking the fever.

Rev. Hall has been seriously ill at his home here, but it is thought he is slowly improving at present. Dr. Brown is the attending physician.

Richard Holscher and Miss Nancy McCoy were married at the home of the bride's mother Mrs. M. McCoy, last Sunday forenoon, the interesting ceremony being performed by Rev. J. R. Hall of Forest View home. A number of relatives and friends of the contracting parties were present, and after congratulations had been extended, a wedding dinner was served. The bride has spent all her life here, and is one of the best of young ladies and will prove a good helpmate for the one who has been fortunate in securing her for a wife. The groom has lived here for several years, owns a nice home on David's Hill, and is an energetic young man. Mr. and Mrs. Holscher boarded the afternoon train Sunday for a short visit in Portland, and upon their return will go to housekeeping immediately here. The many friends of this estimable couple will join in extending their congratulations and well wishes.

GALES.

Mr. and Mrs. Eberling are the proud parents of a new son.

A. Roth is hauling baled hay from the Stickle place to Gales.

Mr. Frank Kertison, of Gaston, is cutting wood for A. Roth.

Jim Whitlow is working for J. G. Boos at the stone quarry.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tupper took dinner with J. M. Beal, Sunday.

J. G. Boos expects to begin crushing rock for the county roads soon.

Mr. E. J. Ward, of Gaston, made a business call at John Beals, Sunday.

Mr. Buxton, of Forest Grove, made a call at the stone quarry, last week.

J. G. Boos disposed of a horse, last week. A man from Laurel was the purchaser.

Mr. Vanderzander, of Verboort, called at the quarry, last week, for two loads of stone.

Mrs. Whitlow, of Newberg, was visiting with her daughter, Mrs. John Beal, last week.

Edward Beal has gone to Newberg to stay with his grandparents until strawberry picking is over.

Claud Allumbaugh got his leg badly bruised by a falling stone, one day last week, while working at the quarry.

DILLEY.

Eva Bryant is working at the Condenser again.

R. Kay has sold his place to Mr.

Newberry, and is thinking of going to Eastern Oregon to live.

A. H. Roberts and family, of Patton Valley, were in town, Saturday.

The speaking at the church was well attended, last Friday night.

A. R. Roberts was a passenger on the train for Portland, last Friday.

P. Vermyley has been quite sick with the measles, but is improving.

A new baseball team has been organized at this place, and a schedule of games is to be arranged in the near future.

THE MEANING OF ## BANNER BRANDS

The dictionary says that a "BANNER" is a "Military Ensign." So Banner Brand is the military ensign under which the firm, from whom we buy our

Women's Dress Skirts, Shirt Waists and Petticoats

have enlisted their labor and capital, and truly they have succeeded in manufacturing a BANNER LINE, as regards

ELEGANCE, QUALITY, WORKMANSHIP AND PRICE

and we wish to strongly emphasize the fact that

THE PRICE IS RIGHT $1.75 to 11.50

We show a few samples in our large show window this week, and invite you to inspect them and our stock in the store.

Oxfords

In our south show window we show some of this season's "New Kicks." We have one of the nicest lines of shoes in town and will be pleased to have you try a pair and help to demonstrate that Star brand Shoes are better. We have Oxfords in Black, White, Tan and Gray, for Large and Small Feet.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Byron M Smith and Anna Bacon;
Richard Holscher and Nancy McCoy;
J W Merrill and Lulu Noland.

Settled Out of Court.

The ejectment suit started some time ago by the city of Forest Grove against E. A. Hyde has been settled out of court in a manner satisfactory to both parties interested. This suit arose over the ownership of a portion of land known as the Hyde property and situated at the corner of Pacific avenue and Council street. The city claimed that a part of the building on the Hyde property was in the street while Mr. Hyde asserted he was the rightful owner to the land. It is understood that Mr. Hyde will vacate the street and tear down the building. He may eventually erect a new structure.

The Banks baseball team will meet the Holiday Maroons on the Banks grounds Sunday and on Decoration day they will play the Forest Grove Colts.
