

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure
The only baking powder made with Royal Grape Cream of Tartar
No Alum, No Lime Phosphate

THE CITY

Fred Cornelius, of Hillsboro, was in the city Tuesday.

E. B. Tongue of Hillsboro, was in Forest Grove Sunday.

E. W. Seymour made a business trip to Portland Tuesday.

Deputy Sheriff F. T. Kane was a Forest Grove visitor Tuesday.

C. F. Miller was in Portland Sunday to see his father who is critically ill.

The First National bank publishes an excellent statement in this issue.

N. L. Sexton was in Hillsboro, Saturday, transacting business matters.

Miss Etta Schulmerich, of Hillsboro, was the guest of Miss Minnie Myers, Friday.

Sam Smith of Gales Creek, passed through the Grove Monday on his way to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Pierson of Portsmouth, Ore., were visiting L. J. Corl and family over Sunday.

Archie Bryant returned Friday from a business trip to Eastern Oregon and Klickitat county, Wash.

Slightly damaged $75 Organs for $49 at The Bazaar. You will have to hurry as they are going fast.

Dr. Lowe the optician is coming soon. Will give dates in our next issue. The wise will wait for him.

N. L. Atkins and family expect to move to Portland the latter part of the week where the former is employed.

If "competition is the life of trade" it may have been the incentive to Joe Stream's tonsorial accomplishments.

V. S. Abraham and family moved, last week, from the Henry Wirtz residence to the house recently vacated by A. E. Nourse, on First avenue and Fourth street. The Wirtz' are to move back to the Grove from Portland.

Rev. Daniel Staver, field secretary for Pacific University, was in Condon last week, in the interests of the college.

Arthur Knox, of Scoggins Valley, was among the farmers of that neighborhood, transacting business here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Buxton returned Saturday from Eugene where they were in attendance at the state meeting of the Grange.

Will Gerrish of Portland, formerly representative of a music house in this city, was visiting relatives here the first of the week.

Mrs. Lowell Markee assisted at the Independent phone office, the past week, during the absence of Miss Hazel Aldrich.

Lee Via who is employed in a Portland pharmacy, was visiting for several days the past week with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Via.

Attorney H. T. Begley will deliver the memorial address at Hillsboro, on Decoration Day, and the exercises will be held in the Crescent theatre.

R. D. Inman of the Hinman-Poulsen Lumber Co. of Portland, drove his automobile to Forest Grove Thursday bringing Governor Chamberlain here.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Christian church is planning to give an "Experience Social" the latter part of the month.

W. E. Pegg, the Dilley merchant, was here during the week transacting business and reports the neighboring village as prosperous.

Harry Morrison of Walla Walla, Wash., was visiting A. G. Hoffman and family over Sunday. They were old-time friends in Nebraska.

E. A. Kreider and family have moved from their residence on Third street to a dwelling on Pacific avenue where Mr. Paterson and family reside.

Sam Broadhead of Tillamook, passed through the Grove Monday on his way to the Odd Fellows' state meeting at Salem. He was formerly mayor of that city.

The largest bank statement ever published in Washington county is the one of the Forest Grove National Bank which appears on the last page of this issue.

Lewis Carstens of Greenville, who has been critically ill with stomach trouble for a month, has been taken to the North Pacific Sanatorium for treatment.

Every man owes to his home and children a Piano or Organ especially when he can get such reductions as are offered at the Bazaar Piano and Organ Sale.

Sam Moulton has the foundations laid for his new home and is awaiting the arrival of the lumber to begin building that which promises to be a cozy residence.

"Babe" Britton, who played first base for the Forest Grove Colts last year, was here, Saturday, renewing acquaintances. He now resides at Oak Point, Wash.

Statement of the Condition of The First National Bank

FOREST GROVE, OREGON
At call of Comptroller, May 14, 1908

RESOURCES	LIABILITIES
Cash on hand and due from Banks . . . $69,363.65	Deposits $144,503.23
Due from U. S. Treas 1,250.00	Capital paid in 25,000.00
United States Bonds . . . 25,000.00	Surplus 10,000.00
Premiums (U S Bonds) . . . 825.00	Undivided profits 1,961.00
Bonds and Securities . . . 20,414.49	Circulation 25,000.00
Loans and discounts . . . 82,879.95
Furniture and fixtures . . . 3,443.80
Real Estate 3,282.92
Total $206,464.81	Total $206,464.81

Correct Attest: R. M. DOOLY, President.

Thomas Roe, one of the most esteemed of Forest Grove's old residents, is ill at his home on Third avenue. His many friends are anxious for his improvement.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. L. Hollinger in the interests of the coming election. All ladies are urged to attend this meeting.

To drain that section of Pacific avenue and to carry away the surface water, fifty feet of tiling have been put in along the cement walk of the Forest Grove National bank.

John McNamer was down with the grippe for three or four days last week and had to be confined to his bed a good deal of the time. He is feeling some better at present.

Mrs. W. H. Parker has returned from a visit of three weeks with relatives in Salem. Clarence, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Parker, is now engaged in business in Portland.

After a careful selection of different make Pianos Miss Alma Curtis purchased a Hobart M. Cable at the Bazaar Piano and Organ Sale. These pianos never fail to please.

Charles J. Clement, who has the contract for the cruising of the timber districts in Tillamook county, was here Friday and took out a number of cruisers to the scene of operation.

The immense reserve carried by the Forest Grove National Bank appears to be a drawing card among depositors. The reserve shown by their statement in this issue exceeds 53 per cent.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Baldwin have moved to Portland to reside permanently. They recently sold their property at the corner of Second street and First avenue, to Mrs. Mary Thomas.

A. H. Thomas has purchased the Ed C. Allen place southwest of town, and is moving here from Sheridan this week. This sale was made through the Oregon Land and Trading Company.

H. M. Shaver, route agent for the Wells Fargo company, was here the forepart of the week and expressed himself as well pleased with the increasing amount of business done by the local office.

The Center of Attraction

PHOTOGRAPHS

If you haven't sat because you don't care for pictures, come and test our skill. We guarantee you'll like our photographs as much as you detested the old ones

Pacific Art Studio
Archie Bryant, Prop.

a growing sentiment for local option in the various counties he visited.

The large lot south of Goff Bros. store was sold last week to Elliott Bros. of Tekamah, Neb., by the Oregon Land and Trading Company. The Elliott Bros. are planning to erect a large, barn and engage in the horse business.

R. C. Hill and wife, who have been living in this city for some time, left Monday for an extended visit at Mankato, Minn. When they dispose of their property interests there they will return to Forest Grove to reside permanently.

N. I. Burnett of Banks, Arthur N. Cutting of Shewood, C. E. Hedge of Beaverton, and Wm. Schulmerich of Farmington, were registered at the Laughlin hotel Thursday evening. They came to listen to the political address at Masonic hall.

Announcements are out for the marriage of Miss Bessie Winona Gleason to George Leroy Meagher which was solemnized in Seattle on the 14th inst. They will make their home in the Sound City. Mr. Meagher attended college here some five years ago.

H. W. Sparks, the caricaturist and entertainer, returned home Monday evening from a tour of the Willamette valley towns, where he lectured before appreciative audiences. Beyond a few special appointments he has yet to fill his campaign is closed for the year.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Barnhart of Punxetanite, Penn., and two children are the guests of Mrs. James Shannon on Third avenue. The Barnharts spent the winter in California and will remain in Forest Grove for a week or ten days before leaving for the East.

Landlord Laughlin, our "Bed," loomed up big in the picture published in the Oregonian Friday morning, showing the State Republican convention in session at the Empire theater, in Portland. The Washington county delegation occupied front seats.

Two Portlanders were in the Grove yesterday to replace the plate glass at the Bailey Big Store. For some reason several of the plates have cracked due to certain unfavorable conditions. The putting in of the plate glass drew quite a bunch of interested spectators.

The Reading Room has received twelve volumes of the Universal Encyclopedia and Atlas and they will prove of more than common usefulness to the people of the town who may wish to use them. The set is well bound in leather and is first class in every respect.

A. Baldwin has returned from Newport where he has been residing for a year and a half. He has sold his property in the city by the sea and has moved into the Richardson house in South Park. He is considering the feasibility to go into the real estate business.

E. X. Harding, the Gaston millman, was in the Grove yesterday looking after business matters. He reports

Don't Forget to call on V. S. Abraham

At The Corner Store

and see the new goods which are arriving every day. Some very fine shirt waists, laces and embroideries of all kinds. We aim to give you the worth of your money, whether you buy dry goods, shoes, ladies or gents furnishings or groceries. Every thing is as good as representative.

Phone orders will receive careful and prompt attention.

We respectfully solicit your trade

JAMES RASMUSEN

Dealer in FLOUR and FEED

Forest Grove, Ore., Pacific Ave.

Nails! Poultry Fence Nails!

Now is the time to buy them. The following are the prices we will sell them at while our present stock lasts:

20, 30, 40, 50, 60	$3.20 per keg
10, 12, 16	3.25 per keg
8d	3.30 per keg
6d	3.40 per keg
3d	3.55 per keg
3d fine	3.60 per keg

If you are going to need any Poultry Netting in the near future now is your chance.

150 foot rolls, 3 feet wide	$2.25
150 foot rolls, 4 feet wide	2.80
150 foot rolls, 5 feet wide	3.75

These prices are from 75c to $1.25 less than what we have been getting for it. We bought it at a low figure and are willing to give you the benefit.

Sash, Doors, Mouldings, Shingles, Lath, Cement, and Sand

In fact anything you need in the building line. We have received Nine Car Loads of goods this spring, which shows we are doing business and saving the people money.

We pay cash for all our goods, buy in large quantities, get low prices and get the cash discount.

GOFF BROS. HARDWARE

FOREST GROVE, OREGON

that the family afflicted with diphtheria as improving and the sick members out of danger. The people of that section hope to get a new depot in the near future.

In order to make the encampment at Cornelius a success a committee consisting of F. A. Haines and R. Crandall of Hillsboro; W. J. R. Beach and George Thomas of Forest Grove; George Mowberry and Henry Challacombe of Cornelius, was selected to make the arrangements and to prepare a suitable program for the three days' reunion.

The local lodge of Rebekahs was represented at the state convocation of the order which met at Salem this week by Mrs. R. M. Taylor. Mrs. Daniel Parsons was chosen as a delegate but circumstances arose so she could not go. Fred Gardner, of Baker City, who has been staying here for sometime represented the Baker City lodge.

Jack Wright, of this city, has purchased an interest in a livery stable at Bay City, Tillamook county. That town on the bay is beginning to get a new hold on life and things there are booming in great shape. Jack was out Reeher's, on the Wilson river road last Monday, where he met his partner coming in with a load of passengers.

Arthur Thomas, who for a number of years has been conducting a general store and furniture business at Sheridan, Yamhill county, has disposed of his interests there, and will, for some time at least, engage in farming near this city. He has purchased a place of property near Alex. Todd's place southwest of town, where he will devote himself to agricultural pursuits.

The Wood Sawing
ALBERT DIXON
Forest Grove, Oregon

J. B. Wilkerson
Independent Candidate for County School Superintendent

Statement of the Condition of the FOREST GROVE NATIONAL BANK

At the call of the Comptroller May 14, 1908

Resources:	Liabilities:
Loans and Discounts $121,242.86	Capital Stock $ 25,000.00
U. S. Bonds and Premiums 26,265.13	Surplus 1,000.00
Other Bonds 5,030.00	Undivided Profits 1,525.34
Bank Premises 12,085.26	Circulation 25,000.00
Other Real Estate 1,500.00	Deposits 249,534.04
Furniture and Fixtures 3,474.84
Due from U. S. Treas. 2,050.00
Due from banks 95,868.85
Cash on hand 34,570.94	132,489.79
Total $302,058.38	Total $302,058.38

DIRECTORS:
Thos. G. Todd J. A. Thornburgh John E. Bailey
J. W. Fuqua W. B. Haines

OREGON LAND and TRADING COMPANY

(Incorporated)
Office Four Doors West of Postoffice Forest Grove, Ore.

ATTENTION: If you want choice fruit lands, farms or ranches in Oregon's most beautiful valley, please call and examine our lists. We take pleasure in showing land to our customers.