way. Some of the leading men of the northwest have donated big sums toward the fund and they will go east in the interest of the school. New buildings will be erected to the extent of several thousand dollars and the remainder used as an endowment fund.

Martha Jane Mizner, aged 74 years, died at the home of her son, George Mizner of this city, Tuesday, and was buried in the Forest View cemetery yesterday afternoon. Rev. Sias, of the Christian church conducted the memorial services. She was born in Iowa and came to Oregon in 1869. Before coming to this city she lived with her son on a farm south of here. She leaves two sons and two daughters.

Telegraphic communication from Washington, D. C., has been received to the effect that the salaries of various Presidential postmasters throughout the state will receive advances in salary in proportion to the increase in business. The postmasters of this city and Hillsboro will get a rise from $1600

$1700 a year, the salary going into effect the first of July. Portland has been raised from the $5000 to the $6000 class.

Not least among the good things that will be in store for the people of this county on the Fourth of July will be the celebration at Watt's Grove on the Gales Creek road. Last year a similar affair was held by the good people of that place and a capital time was enjoyed by the merry makers. The year Gale Grange will join with the picnic, and sports, speaking, refreshments and a basket dinner will make the day a success.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted during the last days and hours of Mrs. Wilson's suffering, for the kindness shown to us and also for the beautiful floral offerings.
