GALES.

Phil Penline is making good headway with his slashing.
 John Beal made a business trip to Forest Grove last Thursday evening.
 Carl Tupper and daughter Maud were visitors at Earl Tupper's Sunday.
 Lee Talman and family of Yamhill county, were visiting in this vicinity Sunday.
 A good many farmers will start making cloyer hay this week, in this neighborhood.
 Tom Sain of Scoggin valley made a business trip to the quarry last Saturday.
 A number of young folks from Portland spent Sunday along the creek in this vicinity.
 Archie Walker has returned from Salem, where he has been visiting with friends the past week.
 The county court met at J. G. Boos' stone quarry last Tuesday, for the purpose of locating a suitable place for the county crusher.

PATTON VALLEY.

The saw mill is shut down.
 Mr. Purdy is going to build a new barn.
 Finley McCleod is building a fine new house.
 J. E. Lee has his new house nearly completed.
 Newt and Ben Harper are slashing for Robert Tompkins.
 W. E. Lee is cutting wood for the farmers with the engine and woodsaw.
 Chris Rieferath is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rieferath this week.
 There are a good many farmers cutting hay the past week, and the crop is good this year. The grain is looking fine in the valley.
 August Roth of Seghers was seen out buggy riding Sunday afternoon with a very prominent young lady of Patton Valley. We expect to hear the wedding bells ringing in the near future.

GALES CREEK

Frank Fletcher has been visiting with his sister, Mrs. M. L. Vincent of Gales Creek.
 Miss Myrtle Corwin, who has been teaching school at Wilson River, left Monday for her home at Central Point.
 Lury Lynch and wife are visiting with his sister, Mrs. Thrapp of Gales Creek.
 Miss Denny, who closed a successful term of school here Friday, went to Banks Sunday.
 J. E. Lilly recently sold his lease and crop on the James McClaran place to Samuel Parkin and bought a small tract of land of the James Martin place recently owned by J. E. Ayers.
 A very warm school meeting passed over at Gales Creek Monday afternoon which resulted in the election of D. S. Pierce as director and Mark L. Cox as clerk and giving the board of trustees the power to allow only certain grades to attend school at the same time and the other grades to remain at home until their time comes notwithstanding the School law says that every child between the ages of 9 and 14 shall attend school every month that is taught in their district or pay a fine of from $5 to $25.

WATT'S DISTRICT.

The Misses Pechin visited school Thursday.
 Clarence Rice is the possessor of a new Harvard bicycle.

Allan Rice has sold part of his farm to a party in the Grove.
 Delbert Bisbee was home from Portland a few days recently.
 Harvey Rogers and wife spent Sunday at Cornelius with relatives.
 Congratulations and well wishes are extended to Albert La Mont and bride.
 Mrs. R. M. Bisbee returned from a two weeks' visit at Portland Monday evening.
 B. E. La Mont is enjoying a visit from a brother and his family from North Dakota.
 The ball game Sunday, between Gales Creek and Watts District nines, resulted in scores of 15 to 17 in favor of Gales Creek.
 Richard Wilson and Nelson Frost returned Tuesday from Tillamook after spending a week with the former's grandparents.

At the annual school meeting Monday afternoon, John Ihrig was elected director for three years and A. T. Buxton re-elected clerk and treasurer.
 At the annual meeting of the Vineyard Hill, Telephone Co. Saturday night, the following officers were elected: President, Allan Dilley; Vice President, Thad Stephenson; Secretary and Treasurer, D. B. Adams; Director, Richard Holscher.
 Mr. and Mrs. Groener of Scholls, Mrs. G. V. Adams and daughter of Molalla, Mrs. Cora Adkins and son of Gales Creek, and the Rice, Dilley, Buxton and Adams families enjoyed a picnic on the banks of Gales Creek near Dug Hill Sunday.
 Fourth of July will be celebrated in the Watts Grove again this year. The Grange will also hold its annual picnic there the same day and a good time is anticipated. Committees are busy arranging for the different entertainments during the day. Look for the big posters and bills which give the complete program.

BANKS

Little Newton Shipley is ill with typhoid fever.
 Joe Killin is out again and occasionally comes to town.
 J. L. Banks was able to be out Sunday and enjoy the ball game.
 Miss Pearl Shipley, who underwent an operation in Portland, is reported improving.
 Mrs. E. Turner is still confined to her room but we hope she will soon be up and around again.

The band concert and ice cream social held in Schremel's park Saturday evening was a grand success. The band boys looked very well in their new uniforms and their playing was thoroughly enjoyed. The fish pond was an interesting feature of the evening, and afforded a great deal of amusement for every body.
 The Brunn Beaver baseball team came out from Portland Sunday to show the Banks baseball nine how to play ball, but they came to the conclusion before the game was over that Banks was hard to beat, the score being 13 to 2 in favor of Banks. The line up for Banks was Cornelius, pitcher; Beaman, catcher; Carstens, first base; Cook, second base; Wilson, short stop; Bullock, third base; Holt, right field; Schlegel, center field; Moore, left field. The second nine, or "All Stars," also won the game played with the Dogville team, the score being 10 to 2 in favor of the Stars.
