THATCHER

Farmers are busy hauling their wood to the stone crusher.

Mr. Landis sold 50 acres of land last week at $50 per acre.

Have a good school house and will soon want a good school teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Lusley of Mountaindale, visited at E. J. Bonshu's Sunday.

Mr. Gagger of Banks, will hold tent meetings beginning next week. Everybody invited.

Mr. Anderson of Davids Hill sold 40 acres of land last week. He got $100 per acre.

Mr. Barker of Portland, Ore. came over last week to see his nephews, Willie and Rosco.

J. Biyers has completed his new barn 40 by 60, quite an improvement to his beautiful farm.

Paul Williams returned to his home in Washington last week after visiting some of his old friends.

Two of Mr. Dakin's grand children of Hood River, are spending their vacation with their grand parents.

Miss Millicent Sanborn and her brother, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Dakin a few weeks, left last Saturday for their home at Seattle, Wash.

Every body appears happy, why should they not be. Thatcher people are blessed with good roads. Prospects good for plenty of fruit this year. Crops are good.

Mr. and Mrs. Killen of Banks, were over Monday to look at their new home which they recently purchased of H. H. Graham. They will take possession the first of September.

Uncle Sam furnishes good mail service. R. 1 has a very obliging mail carrier. Mr. Oliver Curtis is well known in Thatcher and vicinity, being a former school teacher of this place.

GALES CREEK

Mrs. G. V. Adams and little daughter Ofa returned to their home at Molalla Saturday, after a visit at A. T. Buxtons.

Through the columns of The News we wish to thank the person who left us a fine basket of strawberries one day last week.

Miss Penfield and little Miss Margaret Marsh of Forest Grove are enjoying camp life with Mr. and Mrs. Senger near Forest View Home.

Henry Schmale is building a new house on his recently acquired property familiarly known as the Knights place. John Irig is helping with the carpenter work.

The Fourth of July promises a fine time here this year. A pleasing program is under arrangement and we extend a general invitation to all to come and spend the day and participate in the pleasures of the day as only people with the true American spirit of patriotism can.

GALES.

Andrew Boos is very busy now filling strawberry orders.

George Beal Jr. and three others were out on a fishing tour.

A. Roth is making clover hay, but the weather is a little bad for hay.

Basket Social.

The Banks Stars baseball team will hold a basket social in the Odd Fellows hall in Banks on next Saturday evening, the proceeds to go to the ball club. Dancing and other amusements will be in the program.

On June 24th the business men of Portland will make an excursion to Eugene for the purpose of participating in the commencement exercises at the University and witnessing the opening of the splendid new depot. Then at a little later date the Portland Ad Club will go to Albany as the guests of the Albany Commercial Club, the manager of which organization was a former president of the Ad Men's Club.

Notice.

At the general election held in Washington County, and state of Oregon, on Monday, June 1, 1908, a vote was taken for and against stock running at large in said Washington County, Oregon, and it appearing from the returns of said election, that a majority of all the votes cast was against stock running at large in said Washington County, Oregon; now therefore pursuant to the provisions of section 4245, Bellinger and Cotton's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Oregon.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

That in sixty days from the date of this notice it will be unlawful for stock to run at large, in said Washington County, Oregon, under penalty of ten dollars for the first offense and twenty dollars for each and every subsequent offense, to be recovered from the owner of the stock in civil action in the name of the state of Oregon before a Justice of the Peace of the precinct in which such owner or keeper, or either of them, may reside.

Given under my hand and official seal, at Hillsboro, Oregon, this 8th day of June, 1908.

E. J. GODMAN,
County Clerk of Washington County,
Oregon. 49-4
