ANNIE PETERS.

Obituary.

Richard H. Austin was born April 23, 1843, at Bethel, Vermont, and was attending college at Berlin, Vermont, at the time of the call to arms some 17 years later. He responded to the call of his country enlisting in the 13th Reg. of Vermont Company C. Was at the battle of Gettysburg and numerous other engagements during the war, receiving an honorable discharge. After the war he drifted west to Chicago engaging in bridge building for some twenty years, and in 1884 went to western Nebraska where he took up a homestead. In 1885 he was united by marriage to Miss Nettie M. Hodges at Kenesaw, Nebr., living with her on the homestead at Ogallala, Nebraska, until May of 1907 when they removed with their five children, three boys and two girls to Forest Grove, where after an illness of five weeks he died on the 25th of June, 1908. On the following day the remains were interred at the Forest View cemetery, the Masonic lodge of which he was a member for thirty-three years, assisting. While yet almost a stranger in the community where he died he had made a host of friends,

Gaston Improvement Club.

Gaston is not to be outdone by any of the live towns of this county, for on last Thursday evening a large number of citizens of that place gathered together and organized a Gaston Improvement Club with E. X. Harding president and A. M. Porter secretary and treasurer. It is the intention of this club to take an active part in the welfare of that town and to join in the county organization that is now raising funds with which to advertise our resources. Another meeting will be held tonight in the Artisan Hall when several good speakers will be present both from here and Portland.

Notice.

At the general election held in Washington County, and state of Oregon, on Monday, June 1, 1908, a vote was taken for and against stock running at large in said Washington County, Oregon, and it appearing from the returns of said election, that a majority of all the votes cast was against stock running at large in said Washington County, Oregon; now therefore pursuant to the provisions of section 4245, Bellinger and Cotton's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Oregon,

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

That in sixty days from the date of this notice it will be unlawful for stock to run at large, in said Washington County, Oregon, under penalty of ten dollars for the first offense and twenty dollars for each and every subsequent offense, to be recovered from the owner of the stock in civil action in the name of the state of Oregon before a Justice of the Peace of the precinct in which such owner or keeper, or either of them, may reside.
Given under my hand and official seal, at Hillsboro, Oregon, this 8th day of June, 1908.

E. J. GODMAN,
County Clerk of Washington County,
Oregon. 49-4
