A big bear was killed last Saturday in the Taylor woods about a mile and a half east of Banks by a party of men in that neighborhood. The animal had been killing sheep and the posse treed him in the woods. Several persons were there with their guns and soon put him out of the way. Roy Watkins from here was at the scene and brought home one of the bear's feet.

The hotel Laughlin is getting a reputation as a health resort. The News has it on good authority—from two young ladies who are spending the summer there, that since going to the hotel they have each gained four pounds. They have only been there four days but that does not alter the case in the least. They begin eating at 11:30 and finish at 2 and all other meals are "attended" in the same manner.

Chautauqua Circle.

The Chautauqua Circle Class of the Woman's Club was entertained at the lovely home of Mrs. Dr. Brown. A most interesting and amusing program had been prepared by Mrs. Gould, the class leader. This being the Long-fellow Chautauqua Class, quotations, poems and music were from his work. Mrs. Brown proved herself to be a most charming hostess. A very dainty supper was served, each class member was instructed to invite a guest. Those present were Rev. and Mrs. H. Gould, Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Barber, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hoffman, Mrs. J. A. Abbott, Mrs. Georgia Hughes, Mrs. Emma Chandler, Misses Aline Hoffman, Reba Hoffman, Helen Chandler, Dr. and Mrs. Brown.
