The Washington County News tells of a friend who received a card from Nebraska with a picture of a basket filled with hail stones larger than an Ingersol watch. This Nebraskan should be sent a picture of Oregon strawberries larger than a silver dollar, it might cause him to think a little.—North Yamhill Record. And it might cause his mouth to "water" a little too.

The Young Men's class of the Christian Church Sunday School entertained the Young Ladies' class at Naylor's grove Tuesday evening. A contest in Sunday school work was held and the young ladies came out best. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. The classes were chaperoned by their teachers, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Sias, respectively.

Mrs. Anna Guyer, aged 75 years, and widow of an artist who was well known on the Pacific coast years ago, was tried for insanity Tuesday at Hillsboro, and the county court has the case under advisement. Guyer's best work was "Custer's Last Stand," and this painting, when exhibited at San Francisco received much favorable mention. Guyer died several years ago, and the widow has been working by the day to support herself, the husband leaving her but a small home.

A dispatch from Hillsboro to the Oregonian Monday says: "The United Railways has concluded its first preliminary survey into Hillsboro since its present owners gained control. The line comes from near Linnton, over the Cornelius Pass, runs through the Bethany-Phillips-West Union sections, the richest dairy section in the county, and crossing the north plains of the Tualatin, strikes Hillsboro three blocks east of town, on main street. The new survey taps an immensely rich section." This is the company that has run a line into Forest Grove from the direction of Roy, which strikes this place from the northeast.

Evangelical Tent Meetings will open in a large tent near the Christian church this evening, with Evangelist F. E. Billington of Albany, in charge. He will be ably assisted by the local pastor, Rev. C. A. Sias. It will be remembered that about this time last year similar meetings were conducted here by Rev. Kellems of Eugene, which terminated in much good to the community. This meeting will likewise be beneficial to the religious denominations of this vicinity, and attractive invitations have been gotten out, one of which you have probably found under your door. Mr. Billington is a good talker and will no doubt arouse much interest. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

—Dr. E. H. Brown, Physician and Surgeon. X-Ray and all electrical appliances in office. Calls answered night or day.

—Money to loan on farm security W. H. Hollis.
