WATT'S DISTRICT.

Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Hall and Mrs. O. M. Gardner are in Portland.

Oliver Buxton, who has been quite ill with scarlet fever, is improving.

The hay baling season opened up on the Watts ranch Monday morning.

Ed Brick is moving his family to Scappoose where he has secured work.

Mr. Rice's family spent Sunday with Chas. Day and family of Gales Creek.

Ernest Burke and family spent Sunday with John McCoy and wife at Banks.

D. B. Adams visited relatives and friends at Salem and Lebanon last week.

Mr. Porter of Gales Creek was peddling a fine quality of honey through here recently.

A. T. Buxton was at Corvallis a portion of last week attending the Board of Regents meeting of the O. A. C.

Eli Bangs, a prominent livery man of Eugene and wife and his brother and wife of Madison, Kansas, who are touring the western states, were guests at the Bisbee home several days recently.

GALES.

John Beal made a business trip to Forest Grove last Saturday.

Archie Walker and Ed Wese made a trip to the Grove last Wednesday.

Ed. Wese and sister Edith were picking cherries west of Gaston one day last week.

The J. G. Boos stone quarry has ceased to operate on account of no orders at present.

Virgil Whitlow of Newberg, who has been visiting his sister Mrs. John Beal, has returned home.

Misses Nettie Thomas and Helen Olson of Cornelius were visiting Miss Carrie Fitch last week.

Mrs. Frank Johnson and Miss Schmale of the Watt district were guests of Mrs. John Beal Sunday.

Amos Whitlow and John Beal were seen carrying a three point buck down the mountain last Wednesday afternoon.

Jim Lee and sons are doing a fine job of baling hay through this neighborhood, and the farmers are well pleased with their work.

Roy Tolson was called from the county road Sunday, to participate in the ice cream at John Cummins at the E. B. F. M. club meeting.

After baling about nine tons of hay, George Beal came to the conclusion that his hay was not in the proper condition for baling, and postponed for a few days.

While baling hay at George Beals last Thursday Ward Tolson became prostrated from the heat and was unconscious for some time, but was ready for business the next day.

We are glad to hear from the north end of our city, the Spur, but we notice in the last week's News from Gales Spur and in the last note that the name was not used correctly.

GALES CREEK

Everybody is busy making hay while the sun shines.

Mr. and Mrs. Parkin of Davids Hill, spent Sunday on Gales Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Adkins returned Monday from a trip to Nehalem.

Mrs. Benson of Portland, is visiting with her brother, S. S. Dallars of Gales Creek.

Mrs. N. C. Lilly was called to Gaston Monday to see her mother, Mrs. Iler, who is very ill at that place.

Robert Lilly, who has been working on the Nehalem for some time, passed through Gales City Monday, on his way to Portland.

Mr. Chapman and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lee of Gales Creek and Mr. Bennett and family of Cornelius, started for the coast Tuesday.

Howard Lilly was followed the other day quite a distance by a large cougar while hunting. He likes to hunt but doesn't like the idea of things hunting him.

The man who was murdered on the Nehalem and found by Mrs. Neighbor while picking wild blackberries, was taken through Gales City last Saturday evening for burial.

The ball game Sunday played at Thatcher between the Thatcher nine and the Gales Creek Red Caps, resulted in a score of 35 to 3 in favor of the Red Caps.

THATCHER

Jake French bought 20 acres of Mr. Mickle and will soon erect a new house on it.

Jay Raymond and his brother Guy bought the John Farthing farm for two thousand dollars.

George Hadon was taken sick Saturday night, phoned for a doctor Sunday and at this writing is much better.

Miss Blanche Hazlett, who came home last Friday from Portland where she has been attending school, left Monday for her school again.

Worden French and wife from Michigan, who visited their uncles and aunts, Raymonds and Wills, a few weeks, have located in Forest Grove.

Camp meeting commenced Monday night near the Thatcher church in Pryor French's Grove. Everybody invited. Come and bring your tents and dinner boxes.

Farmers in this direction are hopeful of getting the motor line in the near future. They say the wagon is too slow as the milk sours before it reaches the Condenser and has to be hauled back.

Ivan Dakin came down from Hood River and stayed a few days with Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Dakin, his grandparents, returned last Friday taking with him his brother and sister who have been visiting their grandparents for several weeks.

PICTURE FRAMES

Special Sale for One Week

The expense of a picture is often in the framing. While a good picture can be spoiled with a poor frame, an inexpensive picture will frequently bear a very good frame. The framing is the making of the picture.

We have just had the opportunity of buying up a quantity of frames, mostly hardwood, 8x10 to 12x16 or 10x20, and we offer our customers for a week a share in our good bargain. Bring your pictures with you.
