Bryan has suggested that the democratic newspapers throughout the country, begin the collection of his campaign funds from their subscribers, say the price of a year's subscription. If the task proves to be as hard to do as the collection of the subscription fee to the general run of country newspapers, a thimble will hold all he gets.

Two young boys lost their lives in the Eugene wreck Sunday, because they were riding the "blind baggage." How many young men are doing the same thing on the trains here, taking their lives in their hands? The number would startle some parents in this vicinity. The two who were lost came of good families and no excuse can be given for such recklessness.

The Hains murder case in New York bids fair to become as notorious as the Thaw case did. The plea of insanity is to be made and no doubt enough expert testimony can be purchased to insure a verdict of not guilty. It may be, in higher society, that a man can stand guard while his brother commits a justifiable homicide from an insanity standpoint, but among the poorer class it would be considered premeditated murder, and the perpetrator hanged for it.

Ganderbone's Forecast.

FOR SEPTEMBER.

Now Bryan was having
A speech phonographed,
When he should walk in
But the giant Bill Taft—
And they laughed.

"Good morning," said Bryan,
Displaying a look
Of joy and surprise
As he laid down his book—
And they shook.

"I have come for a visit,"
Said Taft, while his hat
Was hung on a nail
By the great Democrat—
And they sat.

"Delighted!" said Bryan,
"If I be allowed
The sentiment Ted
Has so often avowed"—
And he bowed.

"I suppose," ventured Taft,
With a smile that was sweet,
"You have just made a record
That I've got to beat"—
Very neat.

"Why no," Bryan laughed,
"I have records for two;
You may make one yourself
If you wish so to do—
After you."

But Taft waved his hand
With a show of suspicion,
And said, "I am not
A machine politician"—
Intermission.

In the old Roman calendar September was the seventh month of the year. This brought Labor Day around in the heat of the summer. All the unions said it was too hot to march far enough to make any impression on capital. Like every other politician, Numa was afraid of the labor vote, so he pushed September along to the ninth place in the calendar and had Labor Day fall on the first day of Autumn. The unions were thus enabled to march twice as far, and Numa had to refuse a third term.

The old school bell will toll the knell of youthful summer joys, and the girls will meekly get in line, together with some boys; but the gamier youngsters will hide out a few days in dissent, and later on the last one in will run for president.

The summer girl will get her coat and Merry Widow hat, and journey homeward from the sea uncertain where she's at; but the widow easily caressed because she stuck to toques, will bring a mollicoddle home and show it to the folks.

The tourists who have been abroad on fashionable trips, will homeward wend with hotel tags stuck all around their grips; and thronging in their wake will come a never ending flow of busted immigrants to see where they got all the dough.

September is when the autumnal equinox the mosquito out. This occurs on the 22d, when the sun goes over the equator for a touchdown on the icecream giggly and summer underwear. The coal man will kick goal, and Mr. Roosevelt, leaving Sagamore Hill, will turn to Washington and the serious business of loading some more shells for lions.

The cooler air will stimulate
The Presidential race,
And everybody will hit up
A little faster pace.

The smiling entry from the Platte
Will put up clouds of dust,
And the roly-poly man will run
Till he is like to bust.

And Teddy meanwhile will observe
The contest through his glass,
And stick around the half-mile post until the runners pass; and if he fears the Platte will win the highest prized of boons, he'll laugh and whistle up a few old reassuring tunes, and toss a big fat bumblebee in Taft's back pantaloons.

And then there will be doings on this none too stable earth, and every Democrat will get his campaign dollar's worth; the Hagens, Debs, and all of that influential fry, will duck into the weeds and watch the event go by; and the Taft men, looking on the while the fireworks pop and sizz, will hold on tightly and enquire, "Which cloud of dust is his?"

The touch of Fall will make the ripe
And falling acorn thud,
And the crawfish will throw up his tail
And burrow in the mud;
The dread mosquito will depart
From this terrestrial scene,
But he'll die, as well becomes the brave
With his face against the screen.

And then the fall enlivened coil will frolic on the hill, and the railroads will return the folks they found too tough to kill; the fat and idle plutocrat will close his summer place, and the candidate will mount the stump and run off at the face.

After the 23d, September will be under the influence of Libra, the seventh sign of the zodiac. The sign of Libra represents a pair of scales held in the claws of a scorpion. It is of Chaldean origin, and is supposed to mean that the 23d is where the ice man gets stung himself.

People born under Libra are incapable of pretense; the women never kiss women they hate, and the men play a wretched game of poker. Libra people also have no ear for music, and generally play some particularly loud instrument in the village band.

The swallow will desert the cave
And start the movement south,
And the farmer prime himself to spit
Through early autumn's drouth;
The pumpkins will grow long and gaunt
With dragging on the vine,
And when the time will come for old
John D. to get in line
And pay his month's installment on
That thirty million fine,
We'll hear a horse laugh that will give
Us shivers down the spine.

Us shivers down the spine.

WHEN HER BACK ACHES

A Woman Finds All Her Energy and Ambition Slipping Away

Forest Grove women know how the aches and pains that come when the kidneys fail make life a burden. Backache, hip pains, headache, dizzy spells, distressing urinary troubles, all tell of sick kidneys and warn you of the stealthy approach of diabetes, dropsy and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills permanently cure all these disorders. Here's proof of it in a Forest Grove woman's words:

Mrs. J. Van Doren lives on Pacific Ave., Forest Grove, Ore. says: "I was greatly benefited by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. I suffered from this complaint for some time and my back finally became so sore and painful that I was scarcely able to do my household duties. My kidneys were disordered, the secretion very unnatural causing me great distress and uneasiness at times. I tried two or three different kinds of remedies, but found no relief until Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention, and I purchased a box. The trouble has entirely left me and I am now enjoying good health. I wish all women suffering from kidney complaint to use Doan's Kidney Pills and they will be well satisfied with the results obtained."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

*Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The moon will be full on the 10th, and the American fleet will make the Society Islands about the 12th. It is expected that it will remain there permanently, society having become its long suit.

With the advent of autumn, vice-presidential whiskers will begin to blend with Nature's general color scheme, and both Mr. Sherman and Mr. Kern will run a little stonger on the tails of their tickets.

And then October will return,
That gladsome time and rare
When the pumpkin pie will answer
"Here!"
Upon the bill-of-fare.
