DIES FROM HIS WOUNDS

Walter Bernard, Prominent Farmer of Verboort, Meets Bad Accident

BOTH LEGS CRUSHED

Was Taken to the Hospital where Leg was Amputated. Died Tuesday and Interment at Verboort Today.

Walter Bernard, a well known citizen of this county, died Tuesday morning at the St. Vincent's hospital, Portland, from the effects of injuries received at his Verboort home Saturday afternoon, while working with a clover huller.

Together with other neighbors he was hulling clover when something went wrong and the feeder or conveyor was thrown out of gear so that the adjustment could be made. Mr. Bernard climbed upon the machine and when he stepped on the conveyor it was somehow thrown into gear drawing both feet into the cylinder of the machine. The right foot and ankle were ground almost to a pulp and the left foot badly lacerated. He was removed from the machine to the house and Mrs. Hines, via and Large of Forest Grove, and Dr. Linklater of Hillsboro were called. It was decided by the physicians to remove him to Portland where better attention could be given and he was taken on the 4:37 to St. Vincent's hospital. The leg was amputated late Saturday night but the patient was unable to recover from the loss of blood and terrible shock to his system.

Walter Bernard was born in Holland and came to the United States when he was nine years old. When 21 years of age he settled at Verboort this county, where he met with marked success at farming, and last year was a candidate to the legislature of this state.

The funeral was held today at Verboort with interment in the cemetery of that place.

He leaves a wife and the following children: Mrs. J. N. Vanderzanden, Banks; Josephine, Martin, Maggie, Minnie, Zellie, Christine and Francis at home; two sisters, Mrs. Van Kim, Mrs. Gomas, and three brothers, Herbert, John and Theodore.

Washington County Would Co-operate.

Judge Goodin, in answering the invitation to attend the good roads meeting at Tillamook held on September 4th, had the following to say concerning the good roads movement in this county:

"The subject of good roads is the paramount issue with us in Washington county, and at no time before has the popular demand for first class macadam roads been so great with us.

The good roads meetings throughout the state should demand of our legislature an appropriation to aid the counties in this permanent road building and to place the work under state supervision.

In regard to the road by way of Wilson river from this county to Tillamook, I can assure you that this county will cooperate with you in any improvements necessary."

The funeral services were held at the home this morning by J. D. H. Adkins of Gales Creek. Miss Amy Thomas sang two beautiful solos. The remains were laid to rest in Forest View cemetery. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the bereaved parents.

COLTS TAKE LAST GAME.

Banks Outlaws Here Sunday Afternoon—Season Is Closed.

With the Colts' victory Sunday over the Banks Outlaws, by a score of 9 to 7, the bronchies ended a very successful season, winning fifteen games and losing but six. Since Robinson, the new pitcher, has been added to the staff the Colts have dropped but one game—that to the Sherwood White Sox, which team was defeated in the first game here by a score of 4 to 1. So with the White Sox the Colts broke even and neither can claim a victory, as the rub off was never played—although very much desired by the Colts.

Great preparations had been made for a rip roaring big game with the St. Johns Apostles here Monday, but the untimely Jupiter Pluvius plotted against the lovers of the game and turned loose, first gently and then not so gently which scared the Apostles out, and put all possibility of a game to flight. The business men closed their doors and a crackerjack of a crowd would have been present with a good day.

Now for the Banks Outlaw game. For the first few contos the illegal bunch went after the ball like a hungry kid after a doughnut. and by their clouting of the leather and errors by the Colts they stacked up four runs before the locals got a trip.

It was a very even matinee and errors which were legion owing to the abundance of humidity were about even. The ball got so wet that it was impossible to freeze onto it and the twirlers were saved much saliva. Moore and Getter were the battery for the Colts and Bullock and Barrett for the Outlaws. None of the Portland players were in the line up for the Colts.

It is not probable that any more games will be played here this year owing to the uncertainty of the weather and people being away to the hop yards. But enthusiasm for the National game has in no wise waned and the Colts will have another banner team in the field next year.

County Judge Goodin is establishing—not by any aggressive solicitation, however, a genuine Gretna Green in his offices at Hillsboro. He may not know it, but it is generally supposed that County Clerk Bailey is guiding the light hearted folks up the stairway, where the Judge always greets them with a confiding smile—not the kind that won't come off, but one that always lasts a long time.

The public sales of H. D. Jennings on the 3rd and A. S. Dilley on the 5th, were well attended. The Jennings sale was held near Gaston and the Dilley sale was out three miles west of this city. J. W. Hughes, the genial auctioneer, cried both sales and the proprietors are perfectly satisfied with the returns.

W. J. R. Beach has received a communication from the G. A. R. Post at McMinnville which states that the directors of the Yamhill County Fair have set aside Tuesday, Sept. 23—the second day of the fair—as Grand Army Day, and invites all veterans and their families to attend.

Walter Hoge of Portland, former City Recorder of the Grove and editor of the Times, was out from Portland Tuesday, where he is conducting a very successful job printing office. Mr. Hoge and daughter Jessie will come out next week and Miss Jessie will register at the College and attend Pacific University this year.

Those having made reservation of safe deposit boxes will do well to come in early and make their selections. The Forest Grove National bank expects another shipment to be placed in their vault this week.

Dr. Lowe, the optician, is now at Hotel Laughlin. In town till Saturday noon.
