

Ganderbone's Forecast

Now, Taft was enjoying An aeroplane flight,
And skimming around
Like the man-swallow Wright,
When who should appear,
Holding fast to his hat
And sailing the sky,
But the man from the Platte.
Said fat Bill to Platte Bill,
"Now, isn't this great?"
Said Bryan. "You bet—Is my rudder on straight?"
And the wind coming up With a slight show of bluster.
They both skidded off
Through the air belly buster.
And while they were flying
About a mile high,
The Roosevelt entry
Emitted a cry;
And Bryan, supposing He'd dropped from the race,
Showed up with a horrified Look in his face.
But Taft was just floating—
"My motor's gone out!
Now, hand me a match
When you next come about!"
But Bryan just laughed,
And he said, "My dear speeder,
Remember that I Am the great matchless leader."

October is from the latin octo, meaning eight. It was the eighth month of the old Roman calendar. This brought oysters in at the end of August, when they had to be candled like eggs, and the Oyster Trust always cornered the supply in cold storage.
But Rome, like every other nation, had a reformer not too often for reasonable profits in business, and when Numa Pompilius came into power in 713 B. C. he made October the tenth month and busted the Oyster Trust.
He was idolized by a grateful populace, and was only relinquished to private life in his later days that he might gratify his desire to hunt big game in Africa.

The presidential race will reach Three quarters of a mile,
And both the Bills will hit it up In good old fashioned style.
The Platte will shake his big brogans
And put up dust and dirt,
The giant Taft will grunt and sweat
And rip his undershirt.

The plaudits of the multitude Will rise in mighty peals,
And the watchful Teddy Bear will nip At William Howard's heels.

The pink mudguards of Sunny Jim will catch the frost descending, and turn a fine autumnal red, with the burning sumac blending; the frost will thin out Mr. Kern's elaborate chin thicket, and each of these hair-bearing tails will go some on his ticket.

The frost will paint the sassafras a deep and glowing red, and the farm hand will resume his howl for blankets on his bed. The plant exuded phosphorus will gossamer the air, the stiff rheumatic will put on his wind-proof underwear. The southward moving ducks will quack upon the reeded lakes, and man will line himself inside with buttered flannel cakes.

The women will parade beneath the big sky-scraper hats, and guy lines strung to steady them will anchor in their rats, and every time the wind blows brisk, with many screams and squeals, they'll all turn turtle and will fan the azure with their heels.

The camper will unto the woods
To live the life of Crusoe
And the quail will balance on a rail
And whistle like Caruso.

The poor hay fever patient will return from his retreat, and every time his nose goes off and honks upon the street, we'll scramble for the nearest curb as fast as we can dart, believing that his lusty sneeze is some skidoole cart.

The candidate will press his suit and tell his little jokes while he is handing out cigars they name for famous folks; and notwithstanding all the harm this sort of smoke has done us, we'll all waltz up and try his deadly Mrs.
Gunness.

After the 26th October will be under the influence of the zodiacal sign Scorpio the crustacean. Persons born in Scorpio and are lobsterers, and are mostly actors and base ball players.
They have remarkable foresight.
Among other things, they can tell when the hired girl is going to quit, and always gives her notice first.

The armoured football player will cavort in padded pants and butt to beat a billy goat while frenzied thousands dance. He'll cut the foe with glass hid in his Paderewski mop, and when they pile on sacks he'll do a war dance on the top. The college men will all get up and yell like Kingdom Come, the college girls will swallow six or seven gobs of gum, the autumn sun will be obscured by colors, horns and hats, the catapulting end will cave the other fellow's slats, the giant centers will collide like two excursion trains, the guards will paw the earth and scramble one another's brains; and when the ambulance drives up, with great vociferation the howling mob will give three cheers for higher education.

The first frost ripened hickory nuts
Will rattle to the ground, And local option will put on The blower all around.
The hunter's moon will sail the sky,
The bee will duck the clover,
And the other Wright in France will knock
The Eiffel Tower over.

The flower for October is the hop.
This signifies that the fates are against prohibition in one month of the year, anyway.

Our gad-abouting fleet will throw a scare into Japan, and shell the Chinese coast until they tell the age of Ann; and old John Rockefeller will observe October nine, with a big barn dance at Forest Hill and unfermented wine, the third month since he's had to make a payment on that fine.

And then November 3rd will come,
When all of us shall vote,
And one of these two Bills have To be the Billy goat.

Refined It.

A little girl was told by her mother that under no circumstances must she use the word "nigger," as it was offensive to the colored people. The next day at school she was requested to read aloud about a niggardly man, and she astonished the teacher by reading in this wise: "Once upon a time there was a very negrogardly man," etc.

Dodging His Friends.

The following advertisement recently appeared in one of the English colonial newspapers:
"James Savaell begs to notify that he has started business on his own account as an up to date restaurant and hopes that his many friends will jolly well stop away and give him a chance."

Cheap Jag.

"He was intoxicated with her beauty."
"That must have just suited him."
"Yes; it didn't cost any money."—

DAYS OF DIZZINESS

Come to Hundreds of Forest Grove People.

There are days of dizziness;
Spells of headache, sideache, backache;
Sometimes rheumatic pains;
Often urinary disorders.
I tell you plainly the kidneys are tick.

Daily, living on Second Ave., Forest Grove, Ore., says: "For over ten years I suffered from kidney trouble and no matter how many remedies I tried, I was unable to find relief. My kidneys were in a such dis-ordered condition, the secretions too frequent in action and greatly interfered with my rest at night. I suffered severely from dizzy spells and my eyesight became affected. I grew weak and at the time Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention, I was feeling very miserable. I received good results from their use, continued taking them and at the present time I am absolutely free from any sign of kidney complaint. I give Doan's Kidney Pills credit for the great change in my condition."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50
