CORNELIUS.

Our new school house will be done in time, and will be a credit to our district.

People of the M. E. church of Cornelius, are putting a new roof on the church building.

The new depot building on the electric line is enclosed and will fill the bill to a dot.

An immense quantity of apples are being shipped to Portland from here by Wm. Stratton who will buy all that comes.

H. G. Fitch and O. G. Jones, Fred Walton, Fred Barber and Geo. Lingenfelter went to Portland on business Saturday.

Charles Kafer's and A. M. Fitch's new residences in Talbot Addition, are progressing finely, and will soon be nearing completion.

J. F. Kilgore and son of Umatilla, have purchased the Matthies place just east of Cornelius. Phelps, Fitch Land Co. made the sale.

Moss and whiskey are not very civilizing or progressive in their tendencies, and it is high time they were relegated to the rear.

Messrs. Ewing and Reynolds of Nebraska, are here looking for a home where cyclones and blizzards never come. They are much pleased with the outlook.

Mr. Wilcox, nephew of Nelson Wilcox of this place, had the misfortune to get his arm broken, and is now in the St. Vincent's Hospital in Portland, doing well at last account.

Mrs. Wendell, former station agent for the Southern Pacific here, has removed to Reedville. She will have charge of the office there. Mr. Dolan of Hillsboro takes charge of the office here.

The school board here are expecting to introduce a water system for the school with air pressure. We are glad that we have a school board, who are up to date and in favor of modern methods.

GALES CREEK

Mrs. Sheppard has been visiting with her brother, Joseph Lee of Gales Creek.

Teddy Hundley is quite sick and is under the care of Dr. Hines.

Mr. Hollinger and Mr. Curtis of Forest Grove, visited the Gales Creek Sunday schools last Sunday and gave them a very interesting talk.

M. L. Vincent has been on the sick list for the last few days.

Mr. and Mrs. John Raney have purchased the Guy Thrapp place and took possession last week.

The Hillsboro, Banks & Tillamook

R. R. Co. have lately purchased the old Wm M. Lyda sawmill for the purpose of sawing timbers for the completion of the tunnel near Buxton and have just finished moving it to its new location.

Rev. Staver attended Sunday school at Gales Creek last Sunday.

DILLEY.

Mr. Vermilie is putting in some new improvements in his blacksmith shop.

Mrs. H. Hubbard's sister has returned to Portland, after a week's visit.

Mrs. Umplet of Amity, a sister of Mrs. Briggs, is visiting at the Briggs home.

Mrs. Grovendike went to Portland to visit her granddaughter and great granddaughter.

On Wednesday night the store of Briggs Bros. was entered by thieves securing some jewelry, six pairs of loggers' shoes and other articles. The thieves have not yet been apprehended.

Wallace-Morrison.

A very pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Ogden, Sunday October 18, when Miss Myrtus V. Morrison was married to Mr. Charles B. Wallace, Rev. C. A. Sias officiating.

The home was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and ferns. After the ceremony and congratulations all present were served with a bountiful dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace left the first of the week for Newberg where they will make their future home.

Rev. W. P. Elmore of Brownsville, will be here Sunday evening and hold a gospel temperance meeting in the M. E. church. Everybody invited.

The road bridge at Centerville is torn out and a new one being put in its place. This hinders traffic out that way, as there is only a foot passage. It will be about a week before the bridge is completed.

—Parties wishing teeth extracted by any of the dentists here, should try the new preparation administered by Dr. C. L. Large. No matter how bad the teeth are or how difficult they are to get out, there will be absolutely no pain and satisfaction guaranteed or no charge for administering the preparation. 16-11p

A. L. Sexton brought to this office the other day, two pieces of wood taken from a tree on Alvin Brown's place, that contained a bullet embedded about four inches from the surface. There is nothing to show when the ball went in, and there is some speculation as to how it got there and when. The bullet was discovered by being sawed in two.

Next Thursday is Hallow'een. The United Artisan Lodge will hold a Hallow'een party at its hall, on next Tuesday evening. It is reported that the luncheon will consist of cider, hard doughnuts, fried pie, pumpkin. All members are invited to come, wearing a mask and in possession of the password. The ladies are each to bring a pumpkin pie.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Congregational church held a Thank offering meeting at the church on Friday evening. A good supper was served to the members and invited guests after which the offering was taken amounting to $29. All then repaired to the audience room where an excellent program was listened to, the main feature being the address by Rev. Folsom on the subject of Home Mission work.

C. E. Nicholson, who resides in Cedar Canyon a few miles north of this place, has on exhibition at Callaway's grocery store, a turnip that is a pippin. Carl knows enough about advanced agriculture, since leaving the grocery business here, to establish a new record in farming. This turnip of Carl's, like all else he possesses, is the largest ever. It weighs 13½ pounds and was planted on June 26 this year.

Business Men Honest.
The business men of our community as a whole are honest and their methods are sound. The President has never said otherwise. Indeed, it is chiefly in the interest of the great body of honest business men that he has made his fight for lawful business methods.—Hon. Wm. H. Taft, to Merchants and Manufacturers' Association, Boston, Mass.

Gratitude to McKinley.
The highest claim of William McKinley for the gratitude of his countrymen is that, in spite of the abuse and contumely that was heaped upon his head for this policy, he placed our country in the forefront of nations as a civilizer and uplifter of unfortunate peoples.—Hon. Wm. H. Taft, at Cleveland, Ohio.
