natured rivalry existed, each class trying to outdo the others in giving its class yell. All report a good time.

Superintendent M. C. Case returned Tuesday from a visit to schools in this county. He says that steps should be taken to generally improve the sanitary condition of school grounds and buildings. Last year several districts were forced to suspend school on account of contagious diseases, and while the school houses were fumigated, out-buildings were left free to propagate disease germs for future sickness.—

Millard White, aged 57 years, and a native son of Washington county, was buried at the West Union Baptist church, Oct. 20, the remains having been brought out on the morning train from Portland, the funeral taking place from Hillsboro. Deceased was a son of John S. White, who took up what is known as the Freeman donation land claim, now owned by Mr. Bechen.
Deceased was a grandson of Judge David Lenox, an early pioneer, who donated the ground for the West Union cemetery, many years ago. Mr. White moved away from Washington county in the sixties, and resided for many years in Umatilla county.
