attended and the exhibits were meritorious. There were many entries and the collection of agricultural and horticultural products demonstrated the fertility of the soil of this region and the interest of the farmers in raising first-class products. The embroidery and needlework exhibits called forth much favorable comment.

Doings of the Council.

The city council held a rather busy session last Tuesday evening at its regular meeting. W. R. Tucker at the request of Marshal Lennerville was appointed deputy marshal.

The matter of side walks came in for his share of attention. A cement cross walk was ordered put in at the intersection of Council street and Pacific Avenue.

While attempting to break a teacup which was cracked, Archie Bryant cut his thumb last Saturday to such an extent that Dr. Wendt took several stitches to sew up the wound. The old cup had been around the house so long that Archie was tired of seeing it and attempted to pull it in two with his hands when the "crazy thing let loose all of a sudden."

Mrs. John A. Abbott was in La Grande this week in attendance at the State Convention of the Women's clubs as a delegate from the Forest Grove Woman's Club. The sessions of the federation were of special interest and La Grande did herself credit by the royal entertainment and hospitality extended to the visitors.

All persons having head and eye ache are cordially invited to call at Hotel Laughlin next Friday or 4 to o'clock Saturday and have Dr. Lowe test your eyes.

Mrs. M. J. Wilson, of Portland, is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Rilda Steigleder.

M. Turner of Banks has a full line of Rubber Aquepelle and wet weather goods.

Dr. Lowe's new eye glasses with Sanitary Goggles cannot cause cancer.

Card of thanks.

We wish to extend our sincere thanks for the many expressions of sympathy and kindly services tendered by our neighbors and friends during the late sickness and death of our dear companion and mother.
