

The FIRST NATIONAL BANK
of
Forest Grove, Oregon

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS - $35,000

The Oldest National Bank in Washington County

THE CITY

—Bryant's Studio open today.
Mrs. Steigleder visited at St. Mary's Sunday.
Dr. Chas. Hines was in Hillsboro Monday.
Rev. A. J. Folsom preached at Arleta Sunday.
D. W. Smith of Hillsboro, was in town Saturday.
W. S. Stephens, of Dilley, was in Forest Grove Tuesday.
M. L. Noble went to Portland Saturday to look after business matters.
Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Brown returned Monday from their honeymoon trip.
Linck Hill, a farmer of the Gaston neighborhood, was in town Tuesday.
Clarence Hoyt was in Hillsboro Saturday looking after business matters.
Miss Rebecca Gray, of Dilley, was visiting friends in Forest Grove Tuesday.
Alvin Sexton was among the Forest Grovites who spent Saturday in Portland.
Oscar Loomis has accepted a position as clerk in the A. B. Caples grocery.
Mrs. Ralph Kinton of Banks, was visiting relatives in the Grove during the week.
P. D. Cridge, district organizer of the W. O. W., was in Forest Grove last Thursday.
Miss Vivien Brown, of Hillsboro, was visiting Forest Grove relatives during the week.
"Rags" is dead. "Rags" was the name of the Lewellen setter owned by Rollie Peterson.
John Heisler, the Gales Creek farmer, was in town Tuesday transacting business matters.
Hugh Sparks was summoned to Hillsboro as a witness in the Chinese laundryman case.
Miss Fortune, Miss Kirkwood's milliner, will spend Thanksgiving day in Newberg, her home.
Miss Wiest was operated on for appendicitis at the Good Samaritan hospital.—Weekly Index.
H. Hamrich, of the Gaston neighborhood, was in Forest Grove Saturday transacting business.
Chas. Monlux was in attendance at the big Oregon-O. A. C. football game in Portland Saturday.
Rev. Gould, of the M. E. church, will go to Newberg today, where he will tie a nuptial knot.

Mrs. N. L. Atkins, of Portland, was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Cronin, last week.
James Kirby and wife, who live beyond Gaston, were in the Grove Tuesday doing some shopping.
Avon Jesse left Tuesday for his home at Aurora. He is a student at the conservatory of music.
Mrs. E. Hyde and daughters expect to leave Friday for Southern California. They will first go to Pomona.
Miss Maud Mills, of Portland, who formerly resided here, was the guest of friends here during the week.
Charles Smith, who had been visiting relatives here last week, has returned to his work in Portland.
Mrs. George Rastall, of Portland, formerly Miss Charlotte Graham, is the guest of her parents this week.
—Cut glass at Venen's. We handle and are exclusive agents for the celebrated Libby cut glass ware.
Capt. Eli, whale hunter and lecturer, was in Forest Grove Tuesday looking for an engagement in this city.
C. R. Callaway and Claude Smith attended the Oregon-Agricultural college football game in Portland Saturday.
—Dr. Wendt's office is in Forest Grove National Bank Building, Residence at Dr. Ward's place. 15tf
Mrs. Joe Fairchilds and Miss Lota Laughlin visited in Portland last week. They went Friday and returned Saturday.
John Hiltz, a senior at the university, is afflicted with carbuncles and boils, but he is gradually getting better.
Professor Mary F. Farnham was in Portland last Saturday in attendance at a meeting of the state board of the Y. W. C. A.
Mrs. Charles Albright of Hood River, is visiting over Thanksgiving with her daughter, Miss Bessie, at Herrick Hall.
Professor C. E. Bradley, of the Oregon Agricultural college at Corvallis, was here on business matters during the week.
Bert Reeves, the Cedar Mill central for the Hughes telephone line, was registered at the Laughlin Friday evening.
James M. Enschede & Son have gone into the nursery business and have their offices on Third Ave. and A street.
Several from here are subpoenaed on the case of the State vs. Quong Lee, who last spring shot Clyde Wilson of this place.
Subscribe for The News, $1.50 year.

Miss Reta Fowler, of the Times force, who has been visiting friends at Oregon City for several days, returned home Sunday.

President Ferrin accompanied Dr. D. K. Pearsons as far as Portland Monday morning. The latter was on his way to California.

Roller skating is in vogue again. Locally the season has opened under favorable auspices and many are enjoying the whirl on wheels.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Nice, who spent the summer here, left Sunday, for Wallace, Idaho. They disposed of their property on A street.

"Uncle" John Baldwin has been busy this week discharging his duties as deputy sheriff and summoning witnesses before the grand jury.

E. M. Ward of North Bend, Ore., who is interested in the logging machinery business in that town, was visiting friends here this week.

Harvey Baldwin has started to prepare the grounds for the erection of a cottage on the property south of T. H. Littlehales' on Second avenue.

Claud Smith was in attendance in the circuit court at Hillsboro in connection with the case of the young fellows who robbed the Buxton store.

Frank Watrous returned home the latter part of last week from a business trip to Eastern Oregon and Washington, to spend several days at home.

John Beyer of Thatcher district, was in town Tuesday on business connected with the proposition to build some good road in that district next summer.

C. E. Brown, of Milton, was a Forest Grove visitor during the week. He called on his nephew August Wagner, who is registered at the college.

Washington County is represented at the Oregon Agricultural College by 42 students. The total enrollment at the college for the present semester is 1072.

The Missionary program given by the children and young people of the Christian church Sunday evening proved interesting and was well attended.

—We are getting goods in for the Xmas trade—don't forget it, and also remember what we sell is warranted both by the manufacturers and ourselves.—Venen's.

Sam Lawrence, who is studying law at the University of Washington, writes that he is getting along well and that he expects to be home to spend his Christmas vacation.

Harold Edmunds of Tillamook, well known here as having spent several years as a student at the college, was here last week. He is engaged in business with his father.

Levi Sparks, the contractor, while at work on the new Moulton residence, ran a nail in the palm of the left hand which necessitated that he desist from working for several days.

The Hillsboro Dancing club will give the first of a series of six dancing parties on Thanksgiving eve. The committee in charge consists of W. W. Boscow and F. J. Sewell.

College friends received word this week that Miss Gladys Hartley of Hood River, who will be remembered as a student for many years in the conservatory, is quite ill at her home in the Apple City.

With the approach of the holidays, local business firms are beginning to distribute calendars and small boys are much in evidence in some of the stores endeavoring to swell their collection of 1909 calendars.

A. N. Cutting, of Sherwood; W. H. Harris of this city and Chris F. Hesse, of Hillsboro are Washington county citizens who have been chosen to serve on the federal grand jury which meets in Portland November 23.

The Thanksgiving recess at the university began Tuesday evening and will continue until Monday morning when classes will be resumed. A number of students left for their homes Tuesday afternoon to spend Thanksgiving.

School Superintendent M. C. Case was visiting the schools in this part of the county last week. The schools at Gales Creek, Greenville and Hillsdale were inspected by Professor Case who appeared pleased with their conditions.

Rev. Thomas Robinson, who is filling the pulpits of the Presbyterian churches at Tillamook and Bay City, is a former Pacific University student. Later he went to Princeton University from which institution he graduated and took a course in theology.

President W. N. Ferrin received this week a fine, life-size portrait of President Thomas McClelland, of Knox College, Galesburg, Ill. The portrait is an excellent likeness of the former president of Pacific University and will adorn the walls of Brighton chapel.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Odell, who had contemplated to make a sojourn of several months in Southern California have decided not to go on account of Mr. Odell's health. The Odells have property at Long Beach, Cal., one of the finest beach resorts in that section.

R. W. Traver, one of Washington county's republican war-horses, is in possession of two communications. One from "Bill" Taft and the other from "Bill" Bryan, in which they both express their gratitude for the kind words of Mr. Traver.

The Tillamook Headlight says that the Parker Bros., sons of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Parker of this city, treated the firemen to an appreciated quantity of hot coffee during the fire that recently occurred in that city, and which destroyed property to the amount of more than $12,000.

Henry "Chick" Shannon, who has been on a large ranch near Union, Ore., came down to see the football game at Portland Saturday, expecting his old team-mates at Corvallis to win from Eugene. He came to Forest Grove and is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Shannon.

Farmers came in Monday with quantities of turkeys, ducks and chickens. Ducks alive sold at 13 to 14 cts per pound and turkeys sold from 20 to 22 cts alive, and 25 cts dressed. There was no scarcity of fowls for the Thanksgiving table except as people believed the price too high.

E. S. Huckabay, well known here and now a deputy under Sheriff Stevens of Multnomah county, is out on the search of F. Theoria who is wanted in Portland for the murder of M. C. Rasmussen. Huckabay is a son-in-law of Prof. J. N. Garrison and was a student at the college here for a number of years.

Haskell E. Ferrin has been elected to the captaincy of the college football team for next season. The recognition is one that comes because of meritorious work on the gridiron for a number of years. For the past four years Ferrin has played on the team at various times either as quarter or half. His work this year was well up to the average. He is deservedly popular among his fellow-students.

—Acre tracts for sale—J. P. Wagner. 19 tf

—You will find a full line of The Choicest Groceries at M. Turners.

—See display of Onyx ware at Carl Hinman's Hardware Store on Pacific Ave. 14 tf

—Miss Kirkwood has the best linen handkerchiefs, also the latest thing in fancy combs. 20 tf

—M. Turner of Banks handles the celebrated Stillson and Kellogg Loggers and also A. A. Cutters, Crussers and Loggers. 19 tf

—Farmers intending clearing land should phone or write M. Turner of Banks for prices on Stump powder, caps and fuse. 19 tf

—Dr. J. S. Bishop, who has lately returned from a course of study in hospitals and sanatoriums in the East, is now prepared to give the best home treatment for tuberculosis. Office in the Templeton Block, Forest Grove, Oregon. 18 tf

Thanksgiving Dinner.
The Colonial Hotel will serve a Thanksgiving dinner from 5 to 7 p. m.

HAVE YOU SEEN IT?

THE ROCHESTER
HOOK HANDLE
"NEVER SLIPS"

saves your strength,
avoids the danger of being scalded.
Alleviates the unpleasantness of washing.
Costs no more than the old style.

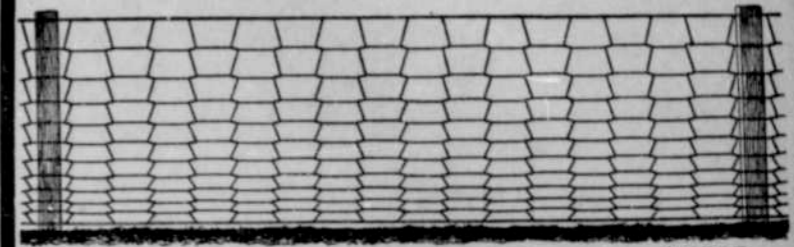

ON ROCHESTER WASH BOILERS ONLY

Come in and let us explain them to you.

See our Bargain Counter

For the next 30 days we will close out our odd lines of Graniteware at actual cost, this will give you a chance to stock up on cooking utensils at a great bargain.

Carload KEYSTONE fencing has just arrived

GOFF BROS.
HARDWARE
FOREST GROVE, OREGON

FALL and WINTER GOODS

We have a large stock to select from this fall and invite you to call and inspect our goods.

SHOES, DRY GOODS GROCERIES

V. S. ABRAHAM
The Corner Store

—Money to loan on farm security
W. H. Hollis.

—White River Flour made of best Eastern Oregon wheat for sale at Bailey's Big Store. 47 tf

Subscribe for The News, $1.50 year

THE PARIS
MILLINERY PARLOR

Imported and Domestic Patterns and Novelties

Dr. S. M. Wendt

Physician & Surgeon
CONSULTATION IN GERMAN OR ENGLISH
SPECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN TO SURGERY AND ELECTRICAL TREATMENTS
Office in Forest Grove Nat'l Bank Bldg.
Residence, Dr. D. W. Ward's office.
Calls answered day or night—Both phones

You are cordially invited to call and inspect our stock

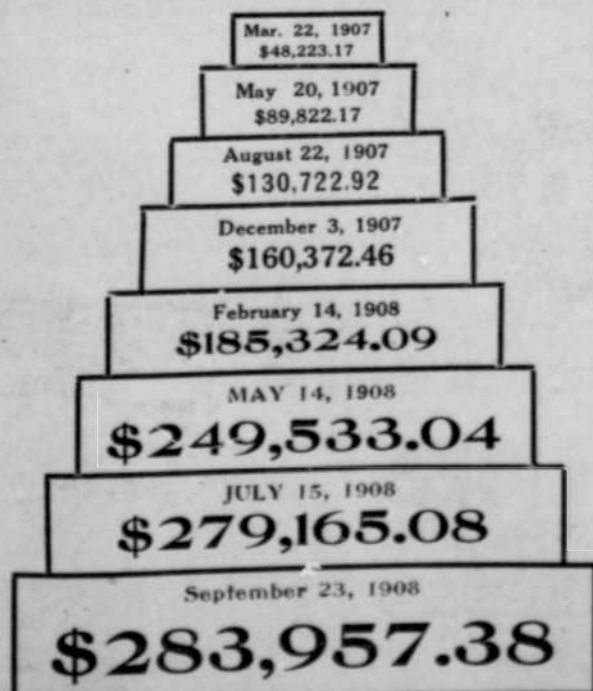

Miss Marie Spiesheart

—Dr. E. H. Brown, Physician and Surgeon. X-Ray and all electrical appliances in office. Calls answered night or day.

FOREST GROVE NATIONAL BANK

FOREST GROVE, OREGON

COMPARATIVE STATEMENT OF DEPOSITS

WASHINGTON COUNTY FARM BARGAINS

Near Forest Grove.
Fine Climate, rich soil, one of the best of locations for fruit, vegetables, hay, stock, etc.
Descriptive literature free

OREGON LAND AND TRADING COMPANY

(Incorporated)
EDW. SEYMOUR, Sec. and Mgr. A. B. THOMAS, President
Both Telephones
Forest Grove, Oregon