KANSAS CITY

Who says it can't rain.

Ezra Kirts is doing some plowing for Mr. Bennett.

F. Lewis is erecting a new shed adjoining his barn.

Arthur Aydelotte's folks were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Waldron Sunday.

Mrs. Kirts of Lafayette is here visiting with her sons, Iodel and Ezra Kirts.

An oyster supper and dance will be given by the Lady Maccabees at Greenville, New Years eve. Everybody invited.

GALES.

Mrs. P. N. Dethlefs spent a few days visiting in Dilley.

Mr. Claude Altembaugh is working for Henry Sundermeier.

The rain has somewhat suspended farming operations in this section.

Ed Henry of Gaston, spent Friday and Saturday visiting in this neighborhood.

The W. E. S. enjoyed a pleasant evening at the home of Charles Fitch Saturday.

John Cummins entertained guests from Portland Sunday.

Enoch Will and Ward Tolson made a business trip up Scoggins valley Monday.

The Bell Line Phone Co. held a meeting in the Dethlefs schoolhouse Saturday afternoon, Nov. 21.

People have been on the move around here lately, for instance: Lo Magoon has moved to Newberg and Roy Tolson has taken the vacated place; Albert Dethlefs has moved into his new house and rented his old one to Del Spurgin.

Through the effects of the continued fall rains, the S. P. freight had to leave two cars at this place Saturday evening. The rain had so soaked the ground and rotten ties that the track gave way, derailing two cars. The accident occurred on the switch, which makes it handy for the Railroad Co. The switch has been in a poor condition for some time.

DILLEY.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Kerr and children of Hillsboro, were in attendance at the Hubbert wedding. Mr. Kerr is a member of the Webfoot Realty Co. of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hubbert celebrated their wooden wedding anniversary last Thursday evening. There were forty-five guests present, and the evening was spent in social conversation, music and readings. The presents were numerous, beautiful and useful. At 11:30 lunch was served by Miss Josephine Freund and Miss Merle Maury, and equal to the occasion was brought forth on shingles. J. W. Hughes acted as toast master and brought forth responses from Mr. Briggs, Mr. Brodersen and others. At a late hour the guests departed, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Hubbert many happy returns of the day.

ONE WHO WAS THERE.

The school at Dilley is going to give an entertainment at the hall.

Mrs. C. A. Brodersen and son Harry spent Monday at Portland.

The Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. J. W. Hughes Wednesday at 2 p. m.

Butchering is in order around Dilley. Among those who have sent hogs to Portland are Mr. Schoolcraft, Mr. Linegar and Mr. Hiatt. Mr. Hughes has kept his for his own use.

The ball game at Portland must have been the attraction as a large number took the train Saturday.

GALES CREEK

Mrs. Churchill is on the sick list this week.

N. C. Wilson, our merchant, is remodeling his house.

H. T. Shorb came in from his ranch on Wilson River Friday.

Mr. Chapman and Miss Madge went to Portland last Saturday.

Mrs. Jane Lilly of Gales Creek, is visiting in Portland this week.

Dennie Wilson is visiting with relatives at Gales Creek this week.

Mrs. Dora Lee of Gales Creek, has been on the sick list for some time.

Miss Ara Heisler, who has been in the Grove for some time, is home this week.

Mrs. Johnson of Portland, is visiting with her nephew, D. S. Pierce and family of Gales Creek.

Miss Alice McCann of Portland, is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. McCann of this place.

Mr. McCann, who has been in Portland for some time, returned to his home on Gales Creek Monday.

J. D. Shorb, the oldest man on Gales Creek, if he lives till Thursday, will eat his 86th Thanksgiving dinner.

Miss Ethel Pierce of Forest Grove, spent Friday at the home of her brother, D. S. Pierce of Gales Creek.

Woman's Home Companion for Christmas.

The Christmas Number of Woman's Home Companion is one of the most beautiful of the holiday magazines. Its cover is in blue and gold depicting the Madonna and Child. There is a beautiful painting in color by James Montgomery Flagg, occupying a full page. Another delightful and unique feature consists of two big pages of old-fashioned Christmas Carols, with decorations by Ernest Haske!!

For the Christmas Woman's Home Companion, Edwin Markham has written a most beautiful poem, "Before the Gospels Were." It tells the story of the gathering of the materials for the gospels by the disciples after Christ's ascension. "Before the Gospels Were" is greater than "The Man With the Hoe." It is, perhaps, the greatest poem of the generation.

It is seldom that a magazine—even a Christmas magazine—offers stories by such an array of great writers as will be found in the December Companion—Josephine Daskam Bacon, Anna Katharine Green, Mary Wilkins Freeman, Florence Morse Kingsley, Juliet Wilbor Tompkins.

Above all else, the woman reader will find here a magazine of Christmas helps—hundreds of suggestions for the making of attractive and unique gifts; ideas for the table; for making delicious candies; new neckwear; embroidery; fashions—an almost bewildering array of practical Christmas suggestions.

Third Years Are Beaten.

The Third Year class of Tualatin Academy was defeated at football Tuesday by a team composed of the remaining three classes of the academy, the score being 6 to 0.

The first half was played without a score but in the last part of the second half, Mayfield broke through the line for a touchdown, and Ferrin kicked a

SHOES TALK!

You say it is not so. But why not? They have tongues. At any rate you have worn shoes that gave you pain with every step. The expression on your face was such that everyone noticed it. That kind of Shoe Talk is visible if not audible.

Then you have had SHOES, THE RIGHT KIND, that made you feel PERFECTLY AT EASE. Your step was elastic, made you feel like LIFE WAS WORTH LIVING.

A combination of Grace and Comfort

Such are the "Star Brand", Utz & Dunn's The J. Miller Co's Shoes

These three well-known brands, we feel safe in saying, are the cream of Shoe Manufacture in the United States or in the whole world for that matter.

But how are you going to prove it? You say: We answer

Played the Devil.

The Devil was in town last week; not old Nick with the cloven hoofs and the sharp horns but the drama which bears his name. "The Devil" was played Friday evening on the Masonic Hall stage before a fair-sized audience by the Clark Burroughs Stock Co., which gave a fair interpretation of the play which has attracted thousands all over the country because of its title. The following evening, the company presented "The Cattle Queen." Some of the members of the company failed to have their lines well committed and the general effect of the play was marred to a great extent. Apparently, the company is just starting out on the road.

Lovers of good music enjoyed immensely the excellent concert given at Marsh Hall Tuesday evening by that trio of artists—Maud Powell the world's greatest woman violinist; May Mukle, the cellist and Anne Ford, the pianist. A splendid audience greeted the participants and the numbers given made up that which local musicians call the finest program in instrumental music yet presented in Forest Grove. Lack of space prevents further comment. Suffice to state that Mme. Maude Powell overwhelmed all with the dominant power and soul-stirring impressiveness of her interpretation of the great masters' compositions; that May Mukle played with rare sympathy and delightful expression and that Anne Ford possesses the gifts of a musician of exceptional merit.

Mrs. E. H. Coleman, of this city, was at one time a pupil of Hon. Samuel Cosgrove, governor-elect of Washington, in Brooklyn, Ohio, which has since been annexed to the city of Cleveland. In those days, Cosgrove had the reputation of being one of the best school teachers in that part of Ohio. Mrs. Coleman is much interested naturally in the illness of her old instructor and hopes ardently for his ultimate recovery.

Dr. C. L. Large reports a daughter weighing ten pounds, born to the wife of James Dilley, of near here, last Monday. Parties wishing the attendance of Dr. Large in this class of cases will greatly oblige him, if convenient, by engaging his services two or three months prior to the expected event. Dr. Large has both phones.

A full attendance is desired at the Domestic Science Club, which meets with Mrs. L. J. Corl, Tuesday, Dec. 1, at 2:30, as matters of importance to the Club are to be discussed. The subject for the afternoon is the "Uses of Water as a Food and Medicine."

James Robb, a farmer of the Centerville neighborhood, was in town Wednesday. He reports that Portland creameries have been scouring that section to obtain milk.

Will Seavy and wife of Springfield, Ore., were guests over Sunday, with Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Pollock.
