THE WHYS AND WHEREFORES.

Ever since the present management has taken the reins of this paper, we have never hesitated to speak our sentiments defeat in the legislature, which, up. We do not claim to always have been right neither do we always expect to be right. The News has always been Republican and as far as we know now, always will be. We have always maintained our right of independence and always shall. As an independent republican paper we have considered that est Grove has got to do someit was our duty to uphold first, thing with its streets. We do the constitution of the United not have in mind any particular States, second, that of the state mud hole to complain about but of Oregon, and third, we have everything in general. Now from these same counties that disgrace for a strong republican state to send a democrat down to Washington, and are working tooth and toe-nail for his on any subject we have taken if accomplished would strengthen their chances of being elected against the will of the people. This state of affairs is being resented, not only by the opposition, but, by every commonplace republican in the state,
