DOINGS AT DILLEY

Furnished by the Local Reporter of the Press

Miss Wilcox of Cornelius has been visiting at the home of Mr. Fitch over Sunday, returning home on Sunday evening's train.

Clarence Caser of Portland has been visiting his uncle and aunt, S. F. Vanmeeter's several days. He returned to his home on the 21st inst.

Mr. McBride of the firm of McBride Bros. spent Sunday and Monday in Portland.

Miss Annie Turner of Portland visited Sunday with her parents in Dilley, returning home on the evening train.

Ward Tolston of Sigers made a flying trip to Cornelius Sunday evening.

Brady Channing of Portland was up Sunday visiting his parents near Dilley.

Rubin Frost, son of Professor Frost was visiting at the home of Mr. Joseph Vermilyea last Sunday.

Harold Hanson was home Sunday and left Monday evening for Portland where he is employed in an automobile garage.

The Quarterly Meeting of the M. E. church of Dilley held an all day meeting in the church on the 16th. The services were enjoyed by all. There were several visitors from North Yamhill and Carlton.

On the 18th inst the Dilley School had a debate, the pupils of the 8, 9, and 10th grades being the combatants. The question: Resolved, that environments have more to do with a person than heredity. The girls had the affirmative and won.

A good many of the Dilley people attended the Holy City oratorio held in the Grove on the evening of the 21.

Mr. Russell who has been grubbing land for J. F. Forbis mostly all winter, had a breakdown with his donkey engine on Monday evening, which is quite a bad streak of luck.

Cile Cassor of Portland was up 2 or 3 days visiting with S. F. VanMeeter and was looking around for a location. He thinks he will locate near Beaverton, Oregon, having sold his dairy ranch east of Portland. He was a resident of Dilley a dozen years or so ago.

There was a load of Game Wardens in Dilley on the morning of the 22, looking for trespassers of the game laws of this part. One of the party was from McMinnville.

Mr. W. E. Pegg of Dilley has identified himself with the Bank of Beaverton and has been elected one of the Directors of the bank. He states he will leave Dilley when the Dilley school is out. We all feel sad to lose him and family from our midst, he has been a great help to our town.

Mr. Abner Briggs of Dilley has been quite poorly for several days and not able to attend his store. He is afflicted with rheumatism, but all hope he will be out in a short time.
