Windy ate another cracker before he spoke, "What yer thinks an' what is, is three or four different occupations, Cy Mullins, so keep yer face closed or a grass-hopper is likely to take it fer a gofer hole an' hop in."

"As I was a sayin' of, it was gittin' 'bout grass-hopper time an' the farmers was a worryin' as whether there was goin' to be as big a crop of 'em as the last year an' if it was safe to put in a crop of wheat fer fear of it's gittin' et up by the varmints an' if it wouldn't be a good idea to put a bounty on their scalps when one day Tom Johnson's boy, Mike, was a fishin' fer suckers in Gales Creek and couldn't find any fish worms so he gits a nice big grass-hopper an' puts him on fer bait, an' derved if he didn't ketch a fish in Gales Creek." After that jist as soon as a grass-hopper would hatch some feller would put him in a cage to fatten fer fish bait.

An Aid to Matrimony

Young men who are single, and starting in life,
And seek that great treasure, a home and a wife,
Will add to their pleasure and meet with success,
To buy a Studebaker, though others cost less.
To seek matrimony with prospects that are bright,
Buy your rig of R. A. Phelps, whose prices are right.

For the man with a family, a dozen, we'll say,
Who has traveled life's journey 'till his hair is grey,
A Studebaker hack runs as light as a feather,
Although the whole family piles in together.
Then see R. A. Phelps, as there is danger in delay;
For all kinds of machinery, go see him today.
